Cleveland's "A Goner."

The following dispatch to the New York Herald is reproduced in the Phila. Times, two strong Cleveland papers, and is a straw worth more than a whole bundle of the ordinary kind.

I am burying through the western countries, for I am sick of this eternal button-holing and corner-grocery tariff discussion. You can make up your mind that, unless some extraordinary change occurs between now and November 6, Harrison will go down to High Bridge with something like 70,000 plurality. If New York city can overcome that, Cleveland is all right; if not, he will have to pack up and come back to Buffalo.

SENATOR VEST insists that he has been misquoted and that what he really said is that "Mr. Cleveland by his message, for which I sincerely honor him, has challenged the protected industries of the country to a fight of extermination." This does not differ materially from the current quotation and Mr. Vest's very lame explanation in the Senate has not helped the matter.

The Potsdam, New York, Herald, tells of a Republican pole-raising in that State, where, just as all was ready, a prominent citizen and Democrat stepped forward and said: "Gentlemen! I desire that no Republican hand should be applied to the raising of this pole. There are here nineteen Democrats who crave the honor of doing the job." And so it was done.

Look Upon Both Pictures.

The question is often asked, "why are you a Republican" and it is proposed to give a few reasons below for the faith that guides us into Republican ways, also a few reasons that warn us against Democracy and Free Trade, viz: because Republicanism has Subdued Rebellion, and saved the Union.

Conquered war and established peace. Gave freedom to a race and a free ballot to all men.

Was patriotic enough to create a debt to carry on war and honest enough to make provision to pay that debt.

Made liberty universal throughout the States and the flag honored throughout the world.

Made treason odious and loyalty the badge of respected citizenship.

Raised the nation from bankruptcy and secured for our public credit the faith of the financial world.

Made persons and property and freedom of thought and of expression secure in every part of the land.

Has dignified labor and secured its rightful reward by protective tariff laws.

Has practically given each citizen a free home by securing the public domain from the monopoly of capital.

Has by a rigid supervision of corporate franchise, made transportation cheap, safe and rapid for persons and property.

Has by wise economies and just laws, reduced the public debt and the interest upon it.

Has by generous, and yet just, appropriation for pensions, illustrated its love and respect for the Nation's gallant defenders.

Has made competency a condition for appointment to office and fidelity to duty the tenure for holding it.

Has reduced the public expenditure to the lowest point consistent with the general welfare and collected the tax from sources best able to pay it.

Has made religious liberty more secure to all forms of faith by an enlightened public opinion and established free schools with no sectarian denomination in them.

Has by fidelity to public trust, by its statutory enactments, Federal and State, by the life and character of its long line of statesmen, heroes, orators and martyrs, by its sacred traditions, and its matchless history of great things accomplished, proven itself competent and worthy to achieve the great things yet to be done for the good and glory of the country.

Free Trade is no experiment in America. Sad experiences of the past ought to warn the wage-worker and laborer. Will you profit by your experiences. Answer at the ballot box in November.

Democracy and Free Trade would Shrive the public revenue. Drain the country of money. Drive labor largely to the land. Lower the standard of comfort. Scale down all salaries and profits. Revive here the British colonial system. Inundate the country with foreign goods. Turn the balance of trade against us.

Destroy our capacity for cheap production.

Universally reduce the value of farming land.

Unsettle all forms of mercantile business.

Instantly cause a paralysis in iron manufacture.

Increase farm products and diminish the market.

Strike the skilled laborer first and most severely.

Destroy the possibility of diversified employment.

Paralyze the arm of the worker and empty his pocket.

Add greatly to the wealth of the rich and make the poor poorer.

Leave skilled labor the alternative of idleness or English wages.

Close up thousands of mills, factories, furnaces and workshops.

Empty the building associations of their tens of millions of dollars.

Destroy our coasting trade, from which all foreign tonnage is now excluded.

Rob us of our industrial prosperity for the benefit of Manchester and Birmingham.

Make labor a beggar at the feet of capital, instead of a partner and an equal, as now.

Substitute for the music of the looms and lathes and hammers the complaints of idle workmen.

Eventually place America practically in the condition of agricultural countries like India and Southern Russia.

Bankrupt many railroads and displace an immense number of laborers in transportation, by reason of a diminished internal commerce.

Make these States the dumping-ground for England's surplus products, which necessity would compel us to take, upon her own terms.

WHEN the Republican party enacted the law placing the present duty on wool, it was for the purpose of encouraging a young industry in America and as well to protect it against the imported wools of foreign countries. The duty on wool was to encourage sheep husbandry in America so that our farmers might bring the industry to such a condition of perfection as to make it a permanent product of this country; to grow enough for our home consumption, if not for exportations.

Before the duty or tax was put on imported wool the United States did not produce more than 60,000,000 pounds annually. This was under Free Trade. In the year 1887, under the protection of a duty on foreign wools, we produced almost 500,000,000 pounds. The result is that to day our manufacturers do not need to import much wool. Should the duty be taken off of foreign wools, it would take less than five years to utterly destroy the already extensive sheep husbandry that has grown up under Protection under Republican rule.

The farmer of America is interested in this question, and indifference to his own interests may cost him all he has accumulated for a quarter of a century past.

Study the question not from a political standpoint, but from "cause to effect" and you can reach but one conclusion.

Your interests are on the side of Protection and with the Republican party. Vote intelligently.

DEMOCRACY DODGES THE ISSUE.—Those Democrats who insist that their party is not for Free Trade, should ponder the words of Congressman Breckinridge, one of the Democratic majority of the Ways and Means Committee, who prepared the Mills bill. He said on a recent occasion:

"If we win, it will mean that the Mills bill, as a preliminary step to Free Trade is all right. It is a victory or a Waterloo for the Republicans. It's victory or a twenty years setback for us."

GENERAL HARRISON'S speeches are like bugle blasts. You do not have to read them twice to be sure you get the sense right. He says what he has to say in clear, plain, forcible Anglo-Saxon, and the boy just beginning to take an interest in politics can understand the meaning as easily as the gray beard of sixty winters. His speeches are an epitome of Republican doctrines.

HE STANDS for Harrison, happiness and health; while M is for Morton, with ability and wealth; P's for Protection, Pie and Plenty; and together they're all for Pork, Potatoes, Peaches, Preserves, Potpie, Pudding and a whole lot of good things, that the Emigrant comes to Protected America to get.
