For Assembly Hon. Charles A. Randall was accorded a re-nomination by the Republican party of this county without a dissenting voice. Personally Mr. Randall needs no introduction to the people of Forest county who recognize in him a man worthy of their confidence and esteem. His record in the last Legislature is one in which he or any other individual might take just pride. For a new Helen Lee, of Milesby, Centre county, member he was wonderfully successful in gaining the confidence of his fellow members, and his influence in shaping legislation was felt from the start. The experience gained in one term is a great help to a member, and instead of sitting almost half of a term learning the routine of business, he is enabled to take a hand in the work from by the overturning of the meagre adthe start, where it counts the most, verse majority there.
