A FINAL WORD TO REPUBLI-CANS.

Republicans, are you doing your whole duty in these last few days of the great campaign of 1888? Are you urging your neighbor and friend to stand firmly by America in this hour of its great trial, when all England is thus created. It is, however, impossible arrayed against us in the endeavor to destroy our great national prosperity? Are you fully aware of what stares is every reason to believe that, while upyou in the face if the doctrine of free holding the position he has taken, he will trade is successful in this great struggle? If you fully realize this we are satisfied you are to-day working and doing your level best for the whole Republican ticket.

Not a single vote must be left behind. Get out every one!

FREDERICK DOUGLASS took prompt measures to put his foot on that falsehood which the Democrats had been circulating about him. As the story ran, he had conceded Indiana and New York to the Democrats and expressed a generally gloomy feeling over the Republican outlook. In his speech at New Haven, Thursday evening, Mr. Douglass declared that he never uttered the language ascribed to him, and that, on the contrary, he entertained the utmost confidence in Harrison's election. A party must be in a desperate strait when its newspapers are compelled to falsify expressions from men of the opposite party in order to buoy up its own hopes during fighter knocking out the nations of the last few days before election. This the earth is having a big run in the particular falsehood, however, only Democratic organs. NO LONGER ANY DOUBT ABOUT ENGLAND'S ATTITUDE.

She Favors Cleveland's Election, and the British Minister Says So in Unmistakable Terms.

[Special to N. Y. Tribune.] Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 21 .- A prominent citizen of Pomona, whose name is withheld under pledges, recently wrote a letter to Lord Sackville-West, the British Minister at Washington, asking his advice as to the duties of these voters who are of English birth, but still consider England the motherland. The writer also states among other things that while in former years many resident Englishmen declined to be naturalized, the adminis tration of Cleveland has been so friendly toward Great Britain, so kind in not enforcing the retaliation act, so sound on the Free trade question, etc., that thousands have become naturalized for the express purpose of helping to elect him over again.

Minister West replied promptly to the foregoing, and his autograph letter. surmounted with the British coat of arms, is in possession of the Times, of this city, and is published to-day. The letter is as follows:

BEVERLY, MASS., Sept. 13, 1888.

Str:-I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th inst., and beg to say that I fully appreciate the difficulty in which you find yourself in casting your vote. You are probably aware that any political party which openly favored the mother country at the present moment would lose popularity and that the party in power is fully aware of this fact. The party, however, is, I believe, still desirous of maintaining friendly relations with Great Britain, and is still as desirous of settling all questions with Canada, which have been unfortunately reopened since the retraction of the treaty by the Republican majority in the Senate and by the President's message, to which you allude. All allowances must, therefore, be made for the political situation as regards the presidential election to predict the course which President Cleveland may pursue in the matter of retaliation, should be be elected; but there manifest a spirit of conciliation in dealing with the question involved in his message. I enclose an article from the New York Times, of August 22, and remain, Yours, faithfully,

> BE UP and doing, Republicans; there's no time to lose from this on.

THE United States is about to choose a new President and the chances are that England will shortly appoint a new minister to America. Reform is necessary in both cases.

THE question which this campaign presents to the American workingman is: Shall I vote to cut wages down at home and put them up abroad or to keep them up at home and let foreign labor look out for itself?

THE British Minister's letter in favor of Cleveland's election makes it very clear that another declaration of independence of Great Britain is needed in this country. It will be by a "tricky Yankee, who imposed due on November 6.

New York City Their Last Stand.

The tariff uprising has forced the Democrats back from state to state until their entire hope turns to day on the vote of Manhattan Island and the re-election of President Cleveland has no possible chance but in the size of the majority gained in that city.

Oregon drowned Democratic hopes on the Pacific Coast. The sentiment for Protection in the farming districts ended the expectation of the party in the Northwest before the canvass opened. The two New England elections left Connecticut secure. From openng with loud protestations of carrying Republican states scattered from California to Maine, the Democratic campaign has reached a point in which it is within the outlook of the day that not a single Northern state will vote for Cleveland.

Nothing is left but New York City. On the large registry and heavy vote of that city rest all the fading chances of the Democracy to day. How little these amount to is shown by the poll published in a New York dispatch of the vote in districts making a heavy increase of registration. The Republican vote is either heavily in the majority or fully equal to that of the Democrate in the new registration, and above Harlem River the Republican vote daily grows .- Phila Press, of yes-

Indiana is to-day confidently claim ed by the Republicans by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority. The Democratic papers no longer claim it seriously, but have agreed to call it doubtful, and frankly say there are many ele ments of uncertainty. The batle was blunder has come, but it is on the Democratic side, and has strengthened the Republicans 10,000 to 12,000 votes in New York City alone.

THE Republican workingmen's demonstration at Indianapolis last Thursday was a great success. Gen. Harrison delivered a telling speech, and among other things said: "Early in this campaign certain people, claiming to speak for the working men, but really in the employ of the Democratic campaign managers, promulgated through the newspapers a number of false and scandalous stories relating to my attitude toward organized labor. poison the minds of the working men against the candidates of the party that stands in this campaign for the principles of protection to American labor. I have only once, in all of the proached Republicans on the matter land in this campaign, as their own be utterly false. The story that I ever of trading, offering to give a vote for Minister ought to be good authority. said one dollar a day was enough for a workingman, with all its accompani.

> News from West Virginia is very encouraging. Unless the unexpected happens it will break the Solid South this fall by choosing Harrison for President, Goff for Governor, a Republican Legislature, which means a Republican United States Senator, and three Republican Representatives. The Republicans have made a good fight, and all they need do is to contione it to the end.

THE Democratic press broads with a strange and solemn silence over Lord Sackville's letter. The broad will hatch a week from next Tuesday in the biggest Republican rooster of the generation.

Manifestly, Secretary Bayard retains his old southern provincial prejudice against eastern people, for be speaks of the recent letter that drew out Minister West's indorsement of the Cleveland administration, as written upon his lordship." Iuasmuch as the letter in question was written on the Pacific slope, and by a British admirer of Mr. Cleveland, it is not clear why Mr. Bayard should allow his "South ron" gore to rise, to the extent of ropeating old confederate diatribes against the "Yankees."-Blissard.
