LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.
—Oil market closed yesterday 86 1/2.
—There's nothing the matter with the sleighing now. It's all right.
—Mr. Wm. Helm of Tidouite, gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call last Wednesday.
—Ex-Commissioner H. W. Ledebur of East Hickory gave us a pleasant call yesterday.
—Mrs. A. A. Carlisle, widow of the late editor of that paper, offers the Clarion Jacksonian for sale.
—Auditor General McCamant will please accept thanks for the annual report of his Department for 1888.
—Last night was a good ice-maker, and those who have coops and don't get them filled now are liable to get left.
—The Clarion Jacksonian says Abram Stull, a former resident of that place, intends opening a store at Marienville, this county.

—Mr. J. H. Dingman received a painful injury to one of his feet last Saturday at the depot, by having a tie fall on it, thus housing him up for a few days.
—Life is made up of small things, the smallest being the thing which runs in debt for a newspaper and then orders it stopped, without paying what he owes for it.—Blizzard.
—Messrs. John Finzer Bros., the celebrated tobacco manufacturers of Louisville, Ky., have our thanks for a crayon picture of Chief Arthur, the head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.
—The groundhog didn't see much of his shadow in this section last Saturday, but the bluebirds haven't arrived yet on that account that we have heard, and it is safe to say there'll be a trifle of winter yet.
—A Polish newspaper says: "Dowladujemy sie, ze w Wielkiej Brytanii, now Castle, S. Wales i okragu Clyde znajduje sie tyle węgla, ze swiat nie potrzebuje sie obawiac braku opalu przez 600 lat nawet 600 lat." Ze dickens you say!

—The latest reports from the Dawson Hets well, at Dawson Station, say it is showing up for a nice well, a good pay streak having been found in the second or stray sand, and a better one in the third or regular sand, which has just been tapped.
—The County Auditor's Report is published this week, and, as usual, shows a healthy state of affairs, all of which is attributable to careful and conscientious management. The assets this year show an excess over all liabilities of $8,195.05.
—A wing dam is to be erected in the Allegheny river, at the mouth of Redbank creek, and the contract has been let to a Washington, D. C., firm, for $13,783. Messrs. A. E. Wielman and J. G. Henry, P. J. Linnon and George Mack, of this place, and J. L. Long, of Freeport, were bidders.—Kittanning Times.

—John Hiding, who was recently tried and convicted in the Clarion courts of assault and disturbing religious meetings at Newmansville, was sentenced by Judge Wilson in one case to pay a fine of $25 and three months in the workhouse, and in another $500 fine and two years and four months in the Western Penitentiary. In the third case he was found not guilty, but pay the costs, says the Clarion Democrat of last week.

—Benjamin May Esq., of Norristown, Pa., arrived in town last Wednesday evening, and has been warmly greeted by his large circle of old friends here. He has since been visiting friends at Franklin and Titusville. We are pleased to note that time deals gently with our old friend and that he is still quite hale and hearty for one of his years.
—The Mayor's Message.—May be pardoned for requesting the Mayor to incorporate in his next message the fact that many of our most prominent citizens have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia and kindred complaints, by Salvation Oil, and that he recommends this valuable medicine to be kept in every family.
—Postmaster Haset is in receipt of a letter, (which he promptly answered "in the affirmative.") from an Eastern firm wanting to know what sort of a point this would be for the location of a tannery. We can inform them that no better point can be found in the State. That covers everything, we believe, and there is no use looking further. Come on, men.
—John Charleston, who has the job of "stocking" for Foreman & Derickson at the mouth of Stewart's Run, lost his best team horse by "wind colic" one day last week. He had refused $300 for the animal a short time previous. John Hood lost one of his horses some days previous on the same job. A broken leg took him off. And now comes the news that one of Billy McKee's horses dropped dead from heart disease on the same job Monday.
—Constable Canfield has posted notices to the effect that one week from next Tuesday, Feb. 19, an election will be held, at which the following officers will be voted for: Burgess, Collector, Constable, High Constable, Judge of Elections, Assessor, two Inspectors of Elections, two Justices of the Peace, two Auditors for 3 years, two School Directors for 3 years, one Councilman for 3 years. Next week is the last opportunity for announcing, so pick out the office you want and send in your name with the fee, one $.

German Hill.
All are busy hereabouts, while quite a number are nursing bad colds.
George Matha met with a mishap which might have proved his everlasting, while hauling a load of ties from Zeigler's mill the other day. Coming down a hill the sled "slewed" and went over an embankment, throwing George headlong in front of the load. As luck would have it, a log laid near with just enough room to admit of his body under which he was thrown, and which supported the load of ties, thus saving him from being crushed.
A similar accident happened Henry Kaman last Friday. While coming down from Hickory with a load of lumber, and when on that piece of road known as the "narrows," the coupling of his sleds broke, leaving the hind sled turn from the road so as to take the whole load with it. Henry, not being prepared for such proceedings, was forced to jump down the bank, and falling against a log was quickly overtaken by the load of lumber, which passed clear over him, only the log beside which he lay saving him. The load not being bound to the front sleds saved the team from going over.
George Weller has been rustinating at Eulenton for awhile back, but we see him among us again.
What's the matter with the debating club? It can't be that all the boys are too busy, as we observe some of them go sleighriding. Ain't it, Will?
The question is, did John get that black on his face trying to crawl up the chimney amongst the soot? No; it was soot all right enough, but it was put on in streaks.
Boys and girls, if you want to have a coasting party now is the time. Don't wait till next summer.
We saw Shugart Watson and Fred Glasser driving over the hill loaded with bark from Zeigler's lumber camp. We don't mean the bill was loaded with bark, but their sleds, and they were en route for West Hickory. That's what we wanted to say, and having had our say, we will say no more at this time.
Feb. 5. OLD JAKE.
—Jay Gould's wonderful new yacht will, it is said, be most completely and elegantly furnished. Among other useful and indispensable things ordered for it was a box of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.
—Spend your idle time reading. A full line of good Miscellaneous Books, School Books, and Bibles at Smearbaugh & Co.
—How often we hear middle-aged people say regarding that reliable old cough remedy, N. B. Down's Elixir: "Why, my mother gave it to me when I was a child, and I use it in my family; it always cures." It is always guaranteed to cure or money refunded. For sale by Dr. Barrett.

Barnett Notes.
Scarce, now.
Plenty, now.
Wonder what urgent business called E. A. Kuhns south last week.
An eminent speaker will lecture on temperance at Greenwood, Feb. 13.
We are expecting to participate in a "Spelling Bee" at the Fitzgerald school in the near future.
The lumbermen are excited about the snow and are wishing that they could put in about eight days in a week.
Prof. J. B. Stewart and E. S. Whitmer, two of Barnett township's pedagogues, visited their parents on Saturday and Sunday.
The young men are jingling their small change in their pockets, and wondering when the W. C. T. U.'s will have another oyster supper at Greenwood.
Madam Rumor says one of our best girls is going to emigrate—well, into the state of matrimony. We wish you a safe journey and a prosperous and happy life. I. C. V.
Cooksburg, Feb. 5.
Strobleton.

Mr. Blow of Titusville, the noted barrel manufacturer, was in this proximity last week making the stove haulers smile by paying them their little checks.
Rev. J. R. Miller, pastor of the Washington M. E. Church, closed his series of meetings last week with but few converts added. Some of the people can say, another good opportunity has gone by which can never be recalled.
Mr. Joseph Allio of Newmansville was visiting friends near here not long since.
Once again we hear the merry bells jingling, which reminds us of winter, when the gentlemen and lady friends are seen swiftly gliding through the snow drifts with their vehicles.
Last Saturday was ground hog day. We think if the pets were out all day and had their eyelids propped open they might have seen their shadows, which indicates six weeks of excellent sledding yet to come.
Literary society at Red Brush school house, last Friday evening, was largely attended and a pleasant time was had in general. We wish them success in their undertaking.
Miss Fanny Myers of this community, who for a prolonged time has made Oil City her place of residence, returned home last week.

HERE AND THERE.
A stranger called on Albert Tripp, of Albion, asked for work, was hired, and got Mr. Tripp to write his name so that, he said, he could remember it when he came to work. Next day the signature turned up on a check for $300, the amount being paid by the Orleans County National Bank.
There is certainly a place in Harles heated seven times the usual warmth for such miscreants as the fiends who have been mutilating horses in Indiana county for a year past. There is no punishment too severe for such damnable villains. Cutting off tails, cutting out tongues and stashing the abdomen until the entrails protrude have been done in a number of cases. The good people of Indiana should catch the fiends and start a little inquisition of their own.—Reynoldsville Paper.
From an exchange we take the following which may be beneficial to some of our readers: An ingenious swindler is going the rounds and passing off two dollar bills for five dollars. With a stamp or die he cuts out the large figure 2 and replaces it with 5 cut out with the same stamp and exactly fitting the opening, a slight tear is made on the bill and a piece of pink paper is pasted over this, holding the figure in its place. The small figure 2's are then blurred and the bill is passed off as genuine.
Congressman Scott's private car has just been turned out of the shops at Manchester, Va., and it is a daisy. Its sleeping rooms have double beds, hot and cold water, and all the appurtenances of a bridal chamber room in a small hotel. Dining room, sitting room, kitchen, ice room, library, smoking room—everything complete—and one may live luxuriously in the car, missing nothing he could get at a first class hotel. The bath room is elegant, the lighting is by electricity, and the heat by steam. But the feature of the car is the open grate in the general room, in which on cold days a cheerful wood fire is burning.
The stockholders of the Presque Isle Gas Company of Erie, have decided to abandon the deep test well for natural gas begun in that city in October, 1887. The well is now 4,500 feet deep, next to the deepest drill well in the world, the Westinghouse well, near Pittsburg, claiming to be 118 feet deeper. Thus far the well has cost something over $13,000. The tools were lost last week and their recovery, even if possible, would cost several thousand dollars more. The test was made to tap the Trenton rock, and samples of the drillings for the last 200 feet, submitted to State Geologist Leslie, are pronounced to be Trenton rock.
Joseph Fleming, the Pittsburg druggist, who was convicted in Mercer county of selling liquor without license and sentenced to 90 days imprisonment in the county jail and pay a fine of $500, has appealed the case to the Supreme Court. He has been released on $1,000 bail, by a special allocater pending the decision of that body. Mr. Fleming was convicted in the Mercer county court on a technical point of law. He sent liquor to a purchaser there by express, collect on delivery. This, the court held, constituted a sale in that county, and conviction and sentence followed. Mr. Fleming is one of the most extensive druggists in the city of Pittsburg.
A native of this part of Pennsylvania, says the Franklin News, who is located in Seattle, Washington Territory, writes home as follows: "Do Pennsylvania people out here appear to be doing first class, but my advice to anybody coming out here, is to stay at home, unless they have $1,000 in cash or have a position before they come. This is a first-class place for a man who has money, but a very poor place for a man who has to work days' work for a living. Wages are good, but the purchasing power of money is about one-half of what it is in the east, and besides there are ten men for every job there is in Seattle. If our Pennsylvania moneyed men were as willing as Seattle's to invest their lucre, their towns would be far ahead of this place."
An Erie county exchange says: A recent important decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has caused considerable talk in Erie. Justice Sterrett has decided that all institutions exempt from taxation must be founded, endowed and maintained entirely by public or private charity, otherwise the property shall be taxed the same as private property. At the present time no tax is collected from these institutions in Erie. The Erie Academy has never been assessed, although it is maintained by tuition fees, and the St. Benedict's Academy, on East Tenth street, has also been exempt, though having always come in under the constitutional provision that church property shall not be taxed. Both these institutions at present time charge a tuition fee and are supported thereby. There are several other places in Erie which never paid taxes. Mr. Benjamin Whitman, a member of the Erie Academy, said that if the academy was taxed under the decision it would be quite a burden for the institution, as the academy takes up considerable ground right in the very heart of the city. Parochial schools where any tuition is charged will be taxed under the decision of the Supreme Court. All property now owned by churches, and from which money return is received in any way, will also be taxed. The decision was made in a Philadelphia case, being an appeal by the County Commissioners. The Erie Commissioners will proceed to collect the taxes.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she clung to Castoria,
When she became Man, she said for Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
