Neighbor White is correct in a gathering just now. The announce this if he is a little off on the fence ment said a "cold lunch will be law, and we apprehend this "model served." Was that a piece of grim legislature" will take little stock in and cruel humor on the part of Secsqueezing out the beneficial orders, retary Whitney, to gather our outgo which are the poor man's means of ing Democratic brethren in melansecuring his family and kindred against want and distress.

A BILL has been introduced in the Legislature at the instance of auditor-General McCamant, providing for the payment of fixed salaries to associate judges not learned in the law, of which there are two each in the counties of Adams, Bedford, Cameron, Carbon, Centre, Clarion, Clinton, Columbia, have failed of re election they met Elk, Forest, Fulton, Green, Huntingdon, Jefferson, Juniata, Lawrence, Lebanon, McKean, Mifflin, Mouroe, Montour, Perry, Pike, Potter, Snyder, Somerset, Sullivan, Union, Washington, Wayne and Wyoming. Under a decision of the late Judge Pearson, these judges are entitled to pay for being present with the law judges when bonds are approved, executions stayed, etc., as well as for attendance at regular sessions of the court. The TIONESTA MARKETS. sixty-two associate judges not learned in the law present bills to the auditorgeneral's department ranging from $300 to $800 each, and the new act fixes their salary at $200 a year. All the other judges in the State are paid fixed salaries, and the purpose of the proposed legislation is to put the associates on the same footing.

A New General Road Bill.

Senator McLain, of Washington County, will introduce a general road law. It provides that at the February election of 1890 three road commissioners shall be elected in each township in each county of the State, to serve one, two and three years respectively. They shall divide the township into road districts and appoint overseers to take charge and work each district on plans furnished by the commissioners. It provides for the election of a county engineer, who shall have general supervision of the improvements and the wages to be Dried Peaches per to - - Dried Peaches pared per & - paid and the number of hours that shall constitute a day's work. The lery for road purposes must not exceed 10 mills on each dollar's valuation, the money to be collected by the County Treasurer and to be disbursed by him through the several boards of road commissioners. It also provides for the laying out of new roads and all at 1 o'clock p. m., the following described things looking to the improvement of real estate, to-wit: country roads, the condemnation of gravel for the roads and other matters relating thereto.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular Correspondent,)

Washington, February 8, 1889. Now that an extra session seems to be inevitable, there is speculation as to what time will be the best for calling the next Congress together. All of the Speakership candidates prefer an early date, as it will shorten the canvass, and no one of them has anything to gain by delay, which might operate to invite new candidates into the field and still further complicate matters.

Judging from the remark of Maj. McKinley it would seem to be the purpose to make the tariff the special object of the session, rather than Territorial legislation, if the Territorial bill now pending should fail. All fear that the Republicans will have trouble in organizing the next House has disappeared, as they have a majority sufficient to hold a quorum for a week or so without much difficulty.

Many new members will come in and Smith's Forms, page 384.

GEO. W. SAWYER, Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office, Tionesta, Pa., January have to serve some time before they acquire the habit of delinquency to be found among the experienced legislators.

But few people care to dispute the asseveration that Mr. James Gillespie Blaine will be the next Secretary of Balance due by Collector subject State, and those who do feel that such will not be the case, appear to have Bonded debt... but little testimosy with which to support their views. All the evidence seems to be on the other side just now, a house in this city for a term of ten years, and evidently intends to spend JAS. T. BRENNAN, Secretary. and the fact that Mr. Blaine has leased a good deal of his time in this city, serves to strengthen the latter belief. The residence he has chosen for himself and his family is a large double house on the east side of Lafayette square, known as the Seward bouse. It is an old-fashioned structure, with an abundance of great hall-like rooms. In the rear of the mansion there is a great deal of unoccupied ground, although the stable is very large. It is NEARLY every Legislature finds one of the historic houses of that some striker who bangs away at co- well known neighborhood. It was the operative insurance. This year is no residence of Secretary Seward, and exception. A member named Kreps until recently was used as the offices from Franklia Co, has incubated a of the commissary general of the bill debarring all beneficial insurance army. The house will be in the hands organizations from operating in this of a force of workmen in a few days, State further than to pay "$300 for and will be extensively repaired and

There was something lugabrious in choly conclave and feed them on cold vittles? Then the weather, not to be inappropriate, turned the coldest it has been this year, and it was a cold day when the brethren gathered around the cold lunch.

A very affecting reunion took place on the floor of the Senate the other day between Senators Bowen and Sabin. For the first time since both each other in the Senate chamber. These two Senators are the only Senators on the Republican side whose terms expire in March, who made a canvass to succeed themselves and were not re elected. This established a bond of sympathy between them and they spent a good part of the afternoon in an exchange of views.
