THE election of Nathan F. Dixon by the Rhode Island Legislature on the 10th inst. to the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Chace completes the roll of that body as it will probably stand during the present Congress. Mr. Dixon belongs to a family that has been prominent for three generations in the politics of Rhode Island, a prominence gained more by worth than by wealth. He has already had much legislative experience, although he will be next to the youngest member of the Senate. His selection was a wise one, as it will tend to harmonize and strengthen the Republican party in his state. Rhode Island is often cited as a field where money always wirs in politics, but with two such clean, able men as Aldrich and Dixon in the Senateneither of whom is blessed with any too large a share of this world's goods -- that stigma will have to be removed from the state.
