LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 88 1/2. The sweet trailing arbutus is now in full bloom.

Harold Sharpe is home on a two-week vacation from his school at Pottstown, Montgomery county.

Mr. L. A. Forbush, well known to many of our readers, has purchased the Phillips hotel at Cassadaga, N. Y.

Mr. Jere Blase has moved into Thos. Hassey's house, and is now one of the industrious citizens of our borough.

Mayor Bleakley, wife and family, of Franklin, were the guests of Mrs. Col. Thomas during the latter part of last week.

Miss Artie Robinson returned to her school at Chambersburg, Mouday, after a pleasant visit of two weeks with parents and friends.

Mr. G. G. Butterfield is in New Bethlehem this week attending the meeting of Presbytery as a delegate from the Church of this place.

Several members of Camp 420, P. O. S. of A. of this place, went to Tylersburg last Thursday evening to assist in the organization of a new Camp at that place.

Mr. J. H. Digman's intelligent spaniel dog dropped over and died very suddenly Monday evening. The cause is a mystery and Mr. D. thinks the canine was poisoned.

The Franklin News says the residence of Rev. R. W. Hawkins, of Olean, N. Y., was badly damaged by fire on Friday night. Spontaneous combustion or incendiarianism caused it. The building was insured for $500; no insurance on contents.

Messrs. J. S. McCloskey and R. R. Dunbar, of the extensive lumbering firm of Dunbar & Co., Howe township, were in town yesterday to consummate the purchase of a thousand-acre tract of timber land in the vicinity of their establishment.

Adam Ruth, the man who beat and robbed Jacob Adamo, near Oil City, three months ago, and was arrested at this place by Sheriff Sawyer, had his trial in Franklin this week. He plead guilty of the charges, when Judge Taylor sentenced him to a fine of $500 and ten years in the penitentiary.

Mr. J. H. Pearsall of Guiltonville, gave us a pleasant call yesterday morning. As will be observed in another column, he offers his farm, a fine piece of property, for sale on easy terms. We are sorry to learn that Mr. Pearsall contemplates making Washington Territory his home in the near future.

Representative Randall came up from Harrisburg last Saturday to spend Easter with his family. He was accompanied by Hon. John Blair, Greene county's popular and influential Member of the House, who is serving his second term this winter. Mrs. Randall accompanied her husband on his return Monday and will remain a week or ten days.

The Derriek of this morning has the following: Wallace & Welsh shot their well laid net on the Thompson & Darr lot at the mouth of Coleman run, Forest county, with 80 quarts. She filled up 250 feet, with an excellent quality of oil. The sand was struck at about 1,880 feet. They are going to drill more wells on this same lot.

—On the day that the trout season opened, no less than 2,500 of the maculated beauties were pulled from a stream near Newmansville, Forest county. Such at least is the story, and we're not in a position to disprove it, even if so disposed.—Franklin News.

This is a fact. Since it's got out, we'll acknowledge the corn. It was us who caught them. No use denying it any longer.

—Next Tuesday will be the 100th anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington as President of the United States, and the event has not only been made a National holiday, but will be generally observed throughout the nation by celebrations of greater or less magnitude. The demonstration in New York will be one of the grandest in the history of that great city.

—The new oil field at Lucinda seems to be 'busted into as many small parcels as a good, big, fresh boom could well be expected to do the work. Four handsome, straight and symmetrical holes, but dry as powder-horns, had entered the jail to go through the usual routine of cleaning up and straightening things around. During the night he has been keeping the prisoners locked in separate cells. He had unlocked the cells and allowed them to enter the corridor of the prison, and when he stepped into one of the front cells to take a pail of water, one of the prisoners jerked the door and locked the Sheriff in, when the three made a rush for liberty. It seems that Mrs. Sawyer, who was busy preparing the breakfast, had neglected to lock the corridor from the outside at the moment her husband entered, and as she went to do so the prisoners met her, and before she could get the door locked they pulled it open and rushing out fled to the woods back of the jail. The Sheriff was released as quickly as possible, but the prisoners had already put too much distance between themselves and him to make a running chase successful, although he is out with deputies in pursuit of his men at this writing.

Jail Birds Fly Away.

Aquila Moug, Sic. Moug and John Carbaugh, made good their escape from the county jail this morning about seven o'clock. Sheriff Sawyer had entered the jail to go through the usual routine of cleaning up and straightening things around. During the night he has been keeping the prisoners locked in separate cells. He had unlocked the cells and allowed them to enter the corridor of the prison, and when he stepped into one of the front cells to take a pail of water, one of the prisoners jerked the door and locked the Sheriff in, when the three made a rush for liberty. It seems that Mrs. Sawyer, who was busy preparing the breakfast, had neglected to lock the corridor from the outside at the moment her husband entered, and as she went to do so the prisoners met her, and before she could get the door locked they pulled it open and rushing out fled to the woods back of the jail. The Sheriff was released as quickly as possible, but the prisoners had already put too much distance between themselves and him to make a running chase successful, although he is out with deputies in pursuit of his men at this writing.

The Lumber Trade.

We understand that the Pittsburgh lumber dealers have been making a systematic effort to impress upon those going to the markets with square timber that the output this season is enormously large, and consequently the market is over-stocked. It has been the practice with the Pittsburgh merchants for a number of years to make a careful estimate of the amount of timber that would reach their city by way of the Allegheny river, and they have been in position to take advantage of the lumbermen from this section on account of the knowledge they had as to the source of supply, while the lumbermen themselves know little or nothing as to what the output for the season would be. Those who were the first to reach the city markets this spring were met with the same story of no demand and an over stock, and some were induced to sell at low prices rather than run the risk of a later market, but those who held on were successful in obtaining better prices, in fact a fair price for their timber.

In order to ascertain the facts concerning the output for this season, representatives of the lumbermen have made a careful estimate of the amount of timber put in from the headwaters to the mouth of the Clarion river, and the result of their investigation shows a shortage in hemlock of 600,000 feet cubic from last season's stock, while in pine the amount is less than one-half of that marketed last season; and reliable information places the output along the other streams in this section at even a greater decrease from last season's stock.

Inasmuch as the manufacturers in this section find a ready market for their entire production at an increase over last season's prices, the city merchants being very anxious to make contracts covering the whole season's shipments, it is safe to anticipate an active season in the lumber trade, and the same old song of a dull market should be taken with a great deal of allowance by our lumbermen when they reach the city market with the product of their winter's work.—Brookville Republican.

Good Farm For Sale.
The undersigned will sell, at a reasonable figure and on easy terms, his farm of 100 acres at Guiltonville, Kingsley township, Forest Co., Pa. Thirty acres improved and in good state of cultivation, while the whole is tillable; well watered, with good dwelling house and small barn. Spring crops now growing on place. Inquire at this office, or address me as above.
JAS. H. PEARSALL.

—Do you want a Spring Hat, or Shoes, or Bulk Garden Seeds, go to Snearbaugh & Co. 2t

—Said a noted man of 60 years, "My mother gave me Down's Elixir for coughs and colds when I was a boy." For sale by D. Barnett.

—Hon. J. B. Agnew is in Washington this week in answer to a telegram from a member of the President's Cabinet informing him that a first class appointment awaited his acceptance. We see that his name has been prominently mentioned in connection with the office of Commissioner of Customs, although we are not aware that he has made any special effort to secure the place, notwithstanding he has many very flattering endorsements from the most prominent men of the State, from the Governor down. It would gratify Mr. Agnew's many Republican friends all over the North-west to know that his past services to the party had been rewarded by this or any other appointment as good, which we dare say it would have to be in order to compensate him in giving up his private business here.

West Hickory.

Derriek Correspondence.) Mrs. Dr. Kenble, of Tidoute, visited friends and relatives here last week.

Mr. Hall, of Steubenville, O., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Orion Siggins.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kemble, of Tidoute, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Warden.

John Elder and J. A. Turner brought in over 100 fine trout, one day this week, which they caught up Queen.

The section men here are doing their spring cleaning, and everything around the depot and in the yard looks very neat.

If there could be a wholesale slaughter of dogs here, it would no doubt suit the majority of our citizens. The town is overrun with useless curs that are dangerous during hot weather and a nuisance at all times.

The Country Week for Poor Children.

During the summer of 1888 a "Christian Endeavor Society," of Buffalo, N. Y., initiated that noble charity, "The Country Week for Children" living in crowded tenements, on the low flats, or in deadly haunts along the banks of the canals.

The "Fresh Air Mission" was generously supported, money being gladly given to pay the necessary expenses of sending the children, while the country homes were as generously opened to the little waifs. To the good people in the country the Fresh Air Mission again appeals. Open your doors to His name and let the children in! They are wretchedly poor, scantily clothed, but clean and free from disease. Every child will undergo a rigid examination by physician and chairman for any signs of disease and vermin before a card of invitation will be given.

It is the hope of the Mission that clergymen will interest themselves in this work for God and humanity, and will help in the cause by receiving and sending to the Chairman, 220 Hudson St., Buffalo, N. Y., the names and addresses of those who will entertain children for two weeks of July or August next.

HERE AND THERE.

A woman is not compelled to take the name of the man she marries if she does not wish to do so. That is only a matter of custom, says an exchange.

Joseph Young and a boy named Caldwell were drowned near Lumber City, Clearfield County, Tuesday last week by the breaking of a raft in going over Mectie's dam.

Friday morning Charlie Rice, living in Sugarcreek township, near Franklin, sought relief from asthma by rubbing kerosene on his breast, and while thus engaged fire was communicated to the can he was using from the stove. The can exploded, throwing the burning oil over Rice and burning him so badly that he will die. The house was entirely destroyed. Mrs. Rice and the children escaping in their night clothes.—Blizzard.

In boring the oil well on the Frampton farm, in the extreme south-east end of the oil field, at the depth of sixty feet a four foot vein of fine coal was struck, then eight feet of slate and then another vein of coal, of the best quality, six feet thick. As this farm and the adjoining Stone House farm, for miles in an easterly direction is very elevated, the coal can be easily mined by drifting from the south and west.—Clarion Jackdaw.

Possibly everybody does not know that soaps, especially in hotels, become frequently a source of disease. About one man in every fifty has some sort of contagious skin disease. Soaps and towels in hotels and public institutions are often a means of communicating maladies not by any means easy to eradicate. Better go with dirty hands and face than to run the risk of contracting a distressing or offensive malady.—Health Journal.
