T. P. RYNDER'S NOBLE WORK.

HIS "FREE SCHOOL BOOK" PLAN RECEIVING ENDORSEMENT ALL OVER THE STATE.

Under the caption of "T. P. Rynder's Noble Work," the Danville Record prints extracts from a number of papers supporting the measure.

How long, think you, are we Pennsylvania going to submit to the barefaced robbery perpetrated on us by the School Book Trust thieves of this State?

We publish today a number of extracts, gathered from different sources, heartily endorsing the work of Hon. Theo. P. Rynder in behalf of the free school book idea in this State.

The Senate Committee on Education have reported Senator Robbins' school bill negatively by a vote of 5 to 4.

The Constitutional Prohibitory Amendment State Committee have issued the following address: HEADQUARTERS CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITORY AMENDMENT STATE COMMITTEE.

Free school books should be the next improvement in our public school system. This would lift the free schools upon a still higher platform of freedom.

school books. Mr. Rynder should have the credit of this good work whether the legislature passes a bill or not.

"Free school books are a necessary part of a really free school system."—Easton Sunday Call.

UNIFORM AND CHEAP BOOKS WANTED.

It would have been a gracious act on the part of the Legislature to have passed a law regulating the public school book question.

Another point in this same connection is the outrageous robbery in the price at which these books are sold.

The above extracts—we could print columns of them if we had room—show how broadly this subject has taken hold all over the state.

We publish today a number of extracts, gathered from different sources, heartily endorsing the work of Hon. Theo. P. Rynder in behalf of the free school book idea in this State.

FOR THE AMENDMENT.

[This column is edited by the Constitutional Amendment Association of Forest County, which has control of the same until the election in June.—Ed.]

The Constitutional Prohibitory Amendment State Committee have issued the following address:

No. 929 Chestnut St., Philada. You stand on the eve of a great battle. It will be as fierce and bitter as any that was ever fought by right against wrong.

We call upon all, of whatever faith in religion, or belief in politics, of whatever race, color or habit, upon all who love their country, their children or their homes, to rally for the conflict. It is non-sectarian, non-partisan, and for the general welfare.

Are you workmen? The wages of labor are lost to the earner when deposited in the saloon.

Are you business men! Seventy-five million of dollars are annually spent in the State for drink.

Are you tax payers? You pay five times as much as you receive from license money to hold criminal courts and support paupers, insane persons and criminals, the product of the saloons.

Are you Christians? The most deadly enemy of your religion, your aspirations and your hopes is the drink traffic.

Are you moderate drinkers? The drunkard of to-morrow is the moderate drinker of to-day, and if you are strong enough to be safe your influence is needed to help weaker men.

Are you total abstainers? If you believe total abstinence to be the best for you, you must also believe it to be best for your fellow men.

Do not refuse to help those who have no power to pass by the open door of temptation. Can you take a ballot from the hands of a saloon keeper and vote to perpetuate his business and keep your pledge to discourage the drink traffic?

Are you habitual drunkards? Help to smite the enemy that has robbed you of health, character and all that makes life worth living.

Are you fathers? If the traffic endures, somebody's boys who are now growing up must be its customers.

Are you men? Then put away cowardly doubts of ability to enforce a law of your own making and strike a blow for purer government, cleaner politics and the everlasting overthrow of the worst business that ever degraded mankind.

Are you women? You need no exhortation to join the grand army of redemption, for on you falls the chief sorrow, the endless misery, the unspeakable degradation wrought by the drink traffic.

Come one, come all, bring every persuasive argument, every moral power, every social, business and friendly influence. Give time and personal work to the great cause, and the 18th of June in this year of grace shall, God willing, ring the death-knell in this Commonwealth of the crown viceroy of the century, and "as Pennsylvania goes, so goes the Union."

HENRY W. PALMER, Chairman.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION proposed to the citizens of this Commonwealth by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for their approval or rejection at a special election to be held June 18, 1888.

SECTION I. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment is proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the Eighteenth Article thereof:

AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said Constitution to be designated as Article XIX, as follows:

ARTICLE XIX. The manufacture, sale, or keeping for sale of intoxicating liquor, to be used as a beverage, is hereby prohibited, and any violation of this prohibition shall be a misdemeanor, punishable as shall be provided by law.

Confirmation Notice. Notice is hereby given that the following notice has been filed in my office and will be presented at next term of Court, beginning on the third Monday of May, 1888, for confirmation.

Final account of J. B. Agnew, Administrator of the Estate of Albert Kinney, deceased.
