an old-time Camp Meeting at Whig Hill, Hickory Charge, Franklin Dis trict, to be held about the first of August. Extensive repairs are being made on the grounds, and every effort is being put forth to make the meeting a success. Talented Ministerial help from the District, as well as from other Districts; also the assistance of experienced singers will be in attendance during the season. A beautiful Church, with bell attached, is on the ground. Two stores within a minutes walk, where a full line of supplies can de had. Fresh meat, milk and butter can be procured on the grounds at a nominal cost. Good water on the ground. The boarding hall will be run in much the same manner as last year. The nearest R. R. station is Hickory on the W. N. Y. & P. Railroad. Hacks will run from the station to the grounds and return. With no gate fees, and no excursions, a good time is expected. Let every Ministerand Layman with their families make arrangements to be present throughout the season. It will be a week well spent both for time and eternity. The object of the meeting is not for money getting, but for the salvation of precious souls, and the stimulating of believers. Tents can be rented at from $1.50 to $3.00 for the season. Those wishing to board at Hall need only bring necessary lodging furniture. Straw for beds furnished free. Parties wishing to rent or build tents; also all who expect to be with us will please address the writer, C. R. Thompson, East Hickory, Pa.

The women know a good thing and will have it, and the men ought to.

It preserves the leather and gives a brilliant polish. Water and snow slip off it as surely as out a duck's back. Men's shoes require dressing ONCE A WEEK—women's once a mouth, that's all. Worth trying, in'tif! It is also the best dressing for harners, on which it least THREE MONTHS.
