LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 84. Mrs. Nora Seigel does sewing at reasonable prices. Get registered at once, Republicans.

Rooms to let for dwelling or office purposes, in Mrs. Seigel's house, opposite P. O. Ladies curlers, crimpers, and frizzers for sale at C. Russell's. New designs and very nice.

Within the past week the Central House has been handsomely papered, adding greatly to the cheer and comfort of the rooms.

United Presbyterian services will be held in the school house next Sabbath at 11 a. m., and 4:30 p. m., Rev. J. R. May officiating.

Miss Maud Davis has returned from Chautauqua, the Assembly, for which she was engaged as pianist, having closed for the season.

Chairman Seigworth and Mr. J. E. Whitmore of East Hickory, were in town last Thursday, and gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call.

Republicans should remember the importance of being registered at once thus insuring them a vote this fall. Attend to it quick. Sept. 5 is the last day.

Miss Nannie Morrow departed Monday for New Wilmington, Lawrence county, where she will attend the ensuing term of Westminster College.

Miss Millie McCormick of Harrisburg, and Miss Mary L. Spangler of York, Pa., arrived in town last Saturday and are the guests of Misses Lizzie and Vinnie Randall at the Rural House.

David Barnett has just opened a big stock of lumbermen's boots; also a fine line of children's high top school shoes, and marked down to rock bottom prices. Call and inspect them.

Geo. F. Watson's already commodious dwelling is receiving some material improvements at the hands of carpenters George and John Zuendel. An addition 24x24 to the rear is one of the changes making.

F. P. Martin, A. R. Osmer and H. C. Smith drive to Forest county to-morrow, where they propose hunting and fishing for a couple of weeks. W. D. Rider, Jr., expects to join them about the middle of next week.—Franklin News.

Republicans have no time to lose in the matter of getting registered. The time is fast approaching when it will be too late. The committee should see to it in their respective districts, that all the voters are properly registered in time.

The hearing of Dr. Harding, took place before Justice Proper on Wednesday last, it having been postponed one week at the request of the Commonwealth. At the conclusion the Justice held the defendant in the sum of $1,500 bail, which was promptly furnished.

Bills are out announcing a grand ball at the Lawrence House hall on Tuesday evening, Sept. 10, next, to which a general and cordial invitation is extended. Good music will be in attendance, a fine supper will be served, and perfect order will be maintained during the evening.

The Prohibition State Convention was held in Harrisburg last week and was attended by about the usual number of delegates and there were few new faces to be seen in the councils of the party. J. P. Johnston, of Pittsburgh, was nominated for State Treasurer. A. A. Stevens, of Tyrone, was re-elected Chairman.

Since the squirrel season opened on Monday there has been almost a continual bombardment going on from early dawn till dewy eve on the hills surrounding us, and some big strings have been captured. The blacks and greys seem to be unusually plenty in all sections. We hear it said that one man near Raughts, Elk county, caught 21 blacks and greys alive as they were swimming the Clarion river. They seem to be traveling.

Mr. Rowland Cobb came home from his North Carolina location last Wednesday to recuperate for a month or so. He has been suffering from an attack of malaria for two or three weeks past, and is somewhat reduced in avoirdupois in consequence, but is already feeling much better under the soothing influence of his native country air.

The Sires photograph gallery will be open during the entire week of court, and all who wish a sitting for photographs should be on hand at that time. There is no use recommending the work done at this gallery. Its reputation is fully established among our people. Call early, and don't stay away on account of cloudy weather. Bring the babies.

The "old boys" who were engaged in the little scrimmage that took place at Gettysburg 20 years ago last July, are receiving their invitations, in the shape of free transportation, to return and look over the field once more, and many of them will start next Monday. The tickets will be good to return until the 18th of the month. It will be a glorious time for the veterans, and we trust they will make the best of it.

Monday was "Labor Day," and about the only thing to remind one that it was a legal holiday was the notice to that effect at the postoffice, and the failure to hear the school bell ring in the morning. Legal holidays are getting pretty thick in this country, and about the only good they accomplish—or bad, we might say—is to make a fellow hustle around one day earlier if he happens to have a note fall due at the bank on the 1. h. day.

Mr. A. C. Guth, Tionesta's excellent Jeweler, has moved his store into the building formerly occupied by the postoffice, which has been thoroughly refitted for that purpose, and makes a splendid room. Mr. G. is now better than ever prepared to serve his customers, and as he does only first-class work and sells his goods lower than the same can be bought for in larger cities, there is no sense in going elsewhere when in need of anything in his line.

Carlisle D. Graham, the hero (?) who has been shooting the great rapids below Niagara Falls in a barrel boat off and on for some time, has at last accomplished the daring feat of the age, by going over the Falls in his boat. He successfully accomplished this hazardous journey on Sunday last, going over the "horseshoe" about 200 feet from the Canadian shore. He came out alive, and with the exception of some pretty big bruises, is all right. He says this last experience settles that kind of business with him.

Mr. J. M. Mintz is opening up his new store in the large and commodious store room of the Kepler block this week. His line will embrace dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes, hats, caps, and ladies' and gent's furnishing goods, etc., of which he has an immense stock of every variety, and all of the freshest and newest styles. He proposes to sell goods at such low prices as will astonish the people of this section, and asks the public generally to call and see if what he says is not true. Look out for his grand opening advertisement next week.

Prof. P. J. Mahaffy, of Trinity College, Dublin, is reported as saying in a lecture before the Chautauqua Assembly last week that "The Declaration of American Independence, declaring that all men are created free and equal, is false," and that Thomas Jefferson was "all wrong in what he wrote." If Prof. Mahaffy will read the Declaration he will discover that it says "All men are created equal"—not free and equal. This misquotation is frequently made, but should not be perpetrated by a man who comes over three thousand miles to instruct the brethren at Chautauqua.—Franklin Spectator.

"Prof. Willis King," the colored anatomical wonder, graced our town with a visit yesterday. The "professor" has two sets of ribs, several hearts, and a muscle as hard as adamant. He has an extra set of ribs which he throws down into his abdomen at will, and an extra heart which moves into several different positions at his command—even stops beating when he so desires. These assertions seem absurd, but no less than two score of our citizens saw him perform and will vouch for the truth of them. He gave two or three exhibitions, which were witnessed by two of our leading physicians, and the facts can't be disputed. He stopped his heart and pulse from beating for the space of nearly half a minute. He is a "jim dandy" in his way and no mistake.

Last Saturday Jacob Wagner, of Tionesta township, appeared before Justice Proper and made information against Aquilla Mong and his son, Augustus Mong, called "Sic," charging them with complicity in the attempted robbery of his house on the night of May 3d, 1887, for which offense Sheldon Wilson and Thomas Haggerty are now serving out 17-year sentences in the Western penitentiary, and in which affair young McCleary, one of the robbers, was shot and instantly killed. On Monday at 2 o'clock the defendants were taken from the jail, where they are serving out sentences for illegal liquor selling, and brought before the Justice, where they plead not guilty and demanded a hearing. After hearing the testimony of T. F. Ritchey, the Justice bound them over in the sum of $1000 each for their appearance at court.

East Hickory.

"How fresh in my mind are the days of my sickness, When I tossed me in pain, all fevered and sore; The burning, the nausea, the sinking and weakness, And even the old spoon that my medicine bore."

The old silver spoon, the family spoon, The sick-chamber spoon that my medicine bore. How loth were my fever-parched lips to receive it, How nauseous the stuff that it bore to my tongue; And the pain at my inwards, Oh, naught could relieve it, Though tears of disgust from my eye balls it wrung.

The old silver spoon, the medicine spoon, How awful the stuff that it left on my tongue.

There is a corner in the berry crop. T. J. Bowman's family have returned to Jamestown, N. Y.

Miss Blanche Wells is attending school at Jamestown, N. Y.

Peter Lindal and son passed through our city on Monday en route to C. A. Hill's, of Noble.

Collins & Henderson shipped a car load of walking-beams to Gardiner & McCollum, Oil City.

While in the act of loading walking-beams on a car at the siding, Eugene Holmes was struck on the leg by the end of a beam as it slipped back on the skids. He was not seriously injured and is able to be around. He and Mrs. Holmes started to Clarion on Tuesday. They will be gone about two weeks.

W. C. Shirk and wife of Fern City, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Seigworth.

Warren Whitten and family have removed to East Hickory.

Wheeler & Dusenbury will run their mill double time.

Alfred and Will Anderson were at home over Sunday.

East Hickory will be well represented at your town Court week.

Ms. Derby, who has been dangerously ill, is convalescent and will move with her sons to Youngsville, Pa., in a few days.

Since the headquarters of the Republican County Committee have been removed to East Hickory, why not have the Court House and jail brought up this way? It would save this town a good deal of trouble.

Walter Crouch and wife were visiting at the home of Mrs. Crouch's parents on R. R. St., the first part of the week.

Miss Savilla Keister is spending her vacation at home.

The First M. E. Church was formally reopened on Sunday evening, Rev. C. R. Thompson officiating. This church will be reopened shortly after conference, or just before.

Geo. Copeland, W. A. Kribbs' efficient clerk of Kellettsville, was in town over Sunday.

On Saturday the Bark Peolers of Queen, and the Whites of East Hickory, played a match game of ball on the East Hickory ball grounds. Score 8 to 15 in favor of Whites. The East Hickory boys say they will have order hereafter.

Hepler Corners.

Mr. Wm. Harkles of Lickingville, died last Saturday, of dropsy. The funeral service took place on Monday morning at that place, Rev. Brickley officiating.

A few days since some one entered the rig at Lickingville and fell over the sand pump line, after which he took 200 feet of it with him.

Preaching at Washington M. E. church next Wednesday evening by Rev. Frampton. All come than can.

Miss Hattie Smith of Red Brush, was the guest of her sister Lizzie not long since.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Shriver, accompanied by Mr. Mealy and wife of Red Hot, have been visiting friends in York State the past few days.

Mr. J. Dechant and Mr. B. Seigle, both of Strobleton, have taken their departure for Salmon Creek.

Mr. F. Stitzinger and son Isaac, were in Kellettsville one day last week.

Master F. Wolfe of Newmansville, has left for Pitohole, where he intends stopping for a short time.

For Sale. One yoke oxen, seven years old next spring, weigh 28 or 30 hundred. For further information inquire of F. F. Shoup, Tionesta, Pa.

After Forty Years.

The celebration by Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hill, of their fortieth wedding anniversary, at their pleasant home on the Allegheny river, 4 miles above Tionesta, on Monday evening, Sept. 2d, 1889, was one of those rare events that few have the privilege of enjoying in a life-time. On this occasion upward of seventy-five of their friends were present to enjoy the event with them, and to take the word of those who were there we are led to believe that it was one of the pleasantest gatherings that has assembled for a long time. At an early hour the guests began to arrive, and the merry making began at once and continued to a late hour. Refreshments of the most delicious kind were served in greatest abundance; in fact, great pyramids still remained after all had more than satisfied the inner man. When the hour for departure arrived the happy guests were loath to take their leave of the hospitable bride and groom of forty years, and only did so after wishing them very many happy returns of the day. The numerous presents left as pleasant reminders of the happy occasion were both beautiful and useful, a list of which follows:

Silver tea set, J. G. Dale and wife, Joseph Grove and wife, L. J. Hopkins and wife, W. W. Grove and wife, F. R. Lanson and wife, J. P. Grove and wife, G. W. Howard and wife, S. H. Haslet and wife, G. F. Watson and wife, L. Fulton and wife, J. H. Fones and wife, A. M. Douth and wife, Albert Grove; 2 silver dollars, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bowman; pair towels, Jas. and Chas. Davis; table cloth, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis; pair cash towels, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Shriver; one lady's and one gent's gold watch, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Lindal, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Hill, Misses Nettie and Minnie, and Mr. G. T. Hill; album, Walter Dawson, D. D. Shields, Mrs. Covert, Jas. T. York; napkin rings, Mrs. Gunther, and daughter Kate; casket, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. A. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hillard; hanging lamp, Mr. and Mrs. D. Barnett; spring rocking chair, Mrs. James York and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. Grove, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler; lady's gold chain, Mr. W. P. Lindal; 1 doz. tumblers, Mrs. Frank Perry and family; half doz. spoons, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Knox; fruit dish, Mr. R. Huddleston; four silver dollars, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson; cabinet photograph, Mrs. Williams; one silver dollar, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swab.

Forest Co. People in W. T.

From a private letter to Mr. G. W. Bovard, from Mr. I. H. Kiuch, a former Forestonian, but now of Kelson, Washington Territory, we are permitted to make the following extracts of interest to a number of our citizens:

We had plenty of rain during the spring, or up to about the first of May, but since that it has been very dry, and with the exception of about 4 inches of rain during the last week in June, there has not been enough moisture to decently wet a board, until within the last day or two, when we had several good showers. It may continue wet for two weeks, and yet it may not rain another drop for a month; there is, in fact, no telling what it will do in the line of rain out here. I am living back in the woods about nine miles from the river, where T. D. Collins and Aaron Root are logging. My nearest neighbors are Frank Weaver of Forest county, and my brother John. They are located about a mile farther up the mountain, but we are soon to have another neighbor within sight of our house. There is nothing but timber here; some large and some small. John Root, Sam. Levy and Bob. Slagle are about two miles toward the river from here. Charley Johnson, the Swede, of Tionesta, has a claim two miles west from my place. Phillip and George Haslet are 1 1/2 and 1 mile east respectively. Phillip shot a big buck last Friday evening. It was fat as any beef I ever saw, and made very fine eating. We have a very nice climate here.

The sun gets about as hot during the day as in Pa., and although it commences to get cool about 4 o'clock, it don't get cold enough to settle the mosquitoes, and they delight to get in their work in the mornings. This summer was too dry for successful farming; potatoes are a small crop, while hay was about a good Pennsylvania crop. Oats were nothing to brag of, while gardens were generally poor. Wages are good this summer; Collins & Root are paying $40 and $50 per month without board; good ox-teamsters get $75 per month, and some get more. I took my claim of 160 acres by pre-emption. I intend to "homestead" another piece when I get through here, and I also intend to take a timber claim when I sell out here. Up to this time I have been quite busy building me a house, which is made entirely of cedar, all of which I split myself. Best regards to all my friends.

For Sale. 350,000 feet White and Red Oak is a good locality for a mill. Call at once on Eli Berlin or B. F. Winans of Whig Hill. Either will show you the location.

NEWSY NOTES.

James Brown, of New Castle, sent one of his carrier pigeons to Niagara Falls the other day. It was let loose from that place in the evening, and in five hours the pigeon had returned to New Castle carrying a message.—Stoneboro Local.

A timely warning. The Phila. Times says, the deadly nature of the watermelon was probably never better illustrated than in a case which occurred Friday at Fort Smith, Arkansas. A colored murderer by the name of Walker, on the way to the gallows, called for a watermelon and ate all of it with apparent relish. Fifteen minutes later he was a corpse.

The Oil City Blizzard polishes off one species of growler in this superb style: If there is anything we admire more than anything else it is the man who always kicks and lunges about paying a bill—the man who thinks that, because he is a prominent citizen, a dress parade soldier or something of that kind, he should not be charged as much as common folk. These men usually want the best and when the bill is presented they invariably whine, commence telling about how the work did them no good, how they were out just that much and so on. These great men seem to imagine that a newspaper publisher should not charge for anything unless they—the great men—make a good profit out of it. They are a fine class of patrons and the collector always enjoys their company.

Miss Kate Guenther, teacher of Gorman School, makes the following report for the month and term ending Aug. 27, 1889: No. of pupils enrolled during month 13; during term 13.
