He sat in his door at noonday, lonely and glum and said; the flies were buzzing about him, led by a blue-winged gad. Not a customer darkened his portal, not a sign of business was there; but the flies kept on buzzing around the old man's hair. At last in misery he shouted: "Great Scott! I'm covered with flies;" and the zephyr that toyed with his whiskers said: "Why don't you advertise?"—Ez.

As heretofore noted, Saturday, October 5th, is the last day for the payment of taxes. To be qualified to vote, each elector, if twenty-two years old and upwards, must have paid a State or County tax within two years, and at least one month prior to election. Republican Committeemen are urged to see that young men who voted last year on age are assessed with a tax for the first time, shall pay the same before October 5th. Unless they pay before that date they cannot vote at the November election.

J. M. Mintz's store will close to-day, (Wednesday) at noon, on account of Jewish New Year, and remain closed until next Monday morning Sept. 30.

A genuine American bald eagle, "the emblem of this blasted country," as Johnny Bull would put it, was captured by Mr. Wm. Bradish on Friday morning last, near his place on Hunter Run. The bird was on the ground and as he passed near it, it gave a slight scream, and so near was he that he could reach it with a stick he was carrying, which stunned it, and another blow finished it. He brought it to town and left it with Dr. Siggins, who will have it set up. The bird measures 5 feet 6 inches from tip to tip, and is handsomely feathered out. Mr. Bradish says he saw this same eagle 23 years ago near the same spot, and nearly succeeded in getting it then.

Last Thursday afternoon Judge Cook, who had been attending court, started for home, driving a span of spirited, though not vicious, horses. He was accompanied by Mr. Joseph Hall of Barnett township. When near the creek bridge they overtook a threshing machine, and were driving around to pass it. They had almost passed when the horses took fright and made a sudden spring forward and sidewise, throwing the Judge and Mr. Hall out of the buggy and over the embankment a distance of several feet. Mr. Hall escaped with only a severe shaking up, but the Judge was unable for a few moments to raise himself up. He was brought back to the Lawrence House, and Drs. Morrow and Towler were summoned. They discovered that the Judge's right shoulder was dislocated. After a hard struggle they succeeded in putting the shoulder back in place, and getting their patient in a comfortable state. He was able to go home on Sunday last. The team ran nearly to the top of Tylersburg road hill, where it was caught and returned uninjured.

The editor of the Clearfield Journal has evidently taken a day off and gone hunting, and thus draws a picture of the situation, which all hunters will recognize at a glance: In hunting there are few things more exciting than to chase a black or a gray squirrel over the trees. There he goes, so fast that he seems to be flying! From twig to twig he skips so nimbly that he seems to touch only the leaves; now he makes a flying leap to the next tree and away he goes over its top; another flying leap and he takes to the ground, and like a race horse makes for a well-known hollow tree. While all this has been going on did you notice the excited snarled? He grips his old cannon tightly in both hands with eyes upturned rushes blindly forward as though his life was in peril; stumbles over logs, pokes sticks in his eyes, scratches his hands and face, and mayhap falls sprawling upon the ground. He gathers himself up and dashes on and just within easy shot sees his game stop to look around before leaping into his refuge. Bang! goes the gun and down rattles the bark, and the squirrel—has peacefully crowded into his nest to laugh over the fun and remain until—well, until nimrod's patience is exhausted and he goes in search of another victim.

"The Housekeeper's Friend," is the title of a work we have received from the ladies of the Presbyterian Church of Tidoute, Pa. It contains nearly 200 pages of recipes for cooking and household hints arranged in such manner that the ingredients of any cake or dessert can be seen at a glance. It is substantially bound in full leather and in such a way that it will lie open at any page while in use. That the recipes are "right" is proved by the individual endorsement by name of many of the housekeepers of that thriving Boro. There are cook-books and cook-books, but in contents, arrangement and binding we believe that this one "takes the cake," while its directions properly followed will pleasurable fill the "long felt want."

We advise our housekeepers who want something new, dainty, original and reliable to assist in appeasing the demands of hungry mankind, to remit $1.25 by money order or postal note to Mrs. E. B. Grandio, Tidoute, Pa., and receive a copy of this book, carriage paid.

"Peterson" for October, with a handsome new cover, is one of the best and most attractive numbers of this magazine issued during the year. It is filled to overflowing with good things, and no household should be without a copy. The steel engraving, "A Coming Storm," and the full-page wood-illustration, "In the Days of the Empire," are beautiful pictures, and the mammoth fashion-plate is artistic and attractive. The fashion department contains numerous illustrations with descriptions of the newest and prettiest fall fashions. Send for a sample-copy with full club-terms for 1890. The Republican County Committee Meets.

Pursuant to call of Chairman Sigworth the Republican County Committee met at ex-Chairman Sawyer's office on Wednesday evening last. All the townships were represented, either by the regularly elected committeemen or their proxies. Sickness in the family of Mr. Sigworth made it impossible for him to be present, and J. E. Wenk was selected to preside at the meeting. The first matter to be called up was the selection of a candidate for County Surveyor, to take the place on the ticket made vacant by the declination of Judge Irwin to accept the candidacy. Two names were proposed, H. C. Whittekin and J. F. Proper. A ballot was had and resulted, 6 for Proper and 5 for Whittekin, whereupon Mr. Proper was declared the nominee of the party. The matter of the selection of a Secretary of the County Committee was left with the Chairman.

The outlook for the fall campaign was touched upon, and from the talk of those present it was found that the party will be in first class fighting trim when the ball opens, and that another victory will be placed to its credit when the election comes around. The Committee adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

German Hill.

Rev. R. J. Graetz has returned from an extended visit through West Virginia, Ohio, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan. He has been gone some three months and we welcome his return.

Miss Eva Kieser is on the sick list but we did not learn whether serious or not.

Mr. Jacob Cropp, who for some time has been very low with typhoid fever, is now able to be about again.

Quite a number of the boys attended Barnum's great show at Oil City last Thursday.

There is talk of a match hunt here soon, but a great many want to exclude the black and gray squirrels from count in the so-called ring hunts, and count nothing in the line of squirrels except red and ground squirrels. We think they are right. The law should forbid such killing of our game, the same as it forbids the trapping of pigeons.

There will be a debating club organized next Saturday evening at the Tubbs Run school house; there should be a good attendance.

Hepler Corners.

A valuable organ has been furnished by the congregation for the Amity Church, near Newmansville.

Samuel Hepler of this proximity gave friends of German Hill a flying visit one day last week.

Mr. W. Kinch of Strobleton, had the misfortune of breaking one his wagon wheels while endeavoring to haul some lumber from J. G. C. Sigworth's to the oil region.

Master Lewis Sigworth of Lickingville, gave this locality a call last week.

Mr. H. Perry and wife, of Oil City, were rusticated in this vicinity a few days ago.

Mr. Brownell of Tionesta, gave this community a flying visit one day last week.

NEWSY NOTES.

An exchange says that all wounds, such as running a rusty nail into the foot or stepping on sharp instruments can be healed and avert all danger of lockjaw by a simple remedy. Smoke such wounds with burning wool or wooled cloth. Twenty minutes application of smoke from wool will take inflammation out of the worst wounds.

John Martz, one of the most well-to-do farmers of Richland township, has on his farm an apple tree which we think hard to beat. The tree is of the Spitzenburg variety and measures ten inches in diameter at the butt and the limbs spread 36 feet in diameter. Six years ago there were 53 bushels of apples taken from it and four years ago 59 bushels. Two years ago about 40 bushels were taken from it, and this year it is full and, from its appearance, will measure bushels than any previous year.—Emlenton News.

Notice to Settle.

As I am about quitting the peddling business, and will quit the road after this month, I wish all parties having accounts with me to settle the same at their earliest convenience. Those who wish can remit to me at Titusville, Pa. About the first of October I will be located with a first class general store, at Marienville, Forest county, Pa., where all my old customers are cordially invited to call and continue their patronage which will be duly appreciated. AQUILLA AND "SIC" MONG.

home. We were invited in and sat down. Sic Mong came home soon after we went in. I used to know Quill Mong, it was a good many years ago. He came soon after we got there, he told us that Wagner had a great deal of money, from $7,000 to $11,000, we had had no dinner when we came to Mong's, he took us to Clark's, we got dinner about 3 or 4 o'clock, we stayed at Clark's peddling some patent something or out in the yard. Sunday morning Wilson and I walked up past Mong's, Quill Mong and McCleary followed us soon after we went into the woods and sat down and talked over the matter of the burglary. Quill Mong was to start on Monday morning and come down to Wagner's and look around to see how everything was, we went to the bridge, he told us how to go, to come to Tionesta, to cross the bridge, to go up the hill, to come to the school house, to turn to the right and go on to Little Tionesta. After that he told us to go to Clark's, stayed that night at Clark's, met after dark to make final arrangements—there was Quill Mong, Wilson, William McCleary, and myself. Monday morning we started for Tionesta, Sic Mong, Quill Mong came down and said Quill Mong and McCleary had overstepped themselves and hadn't gone, we left Clark's and walked down to the bridge, Sic Mong came after us and talked with us about the burglary, he came with us to the end of the bridge, he was to go back to see Quill Mong and McCleary, they all were to come down on Monday, we were to meet at bridge at Little Tionesta, Wilson and I came down on the train to Tionesta, got dinner in Tionesta, after dinner went out to Little Tionesta to meet the others, Quill Mong, Sic Mong and McCleary, they told us that Quill Mong and McCleary had come on a float together, and Sic on a float alone, I was to bring some fish lines and fished some at Little Tionesta. About 10 o'clock when Sic came to the bridge, Quill Mong and McCleary came after, Quill Mong had a small satchel, I think he said he was peddling some patent something to be used about a wagon, while we were there a man passed who Mong said was Mr. Wagner, stayed at school house in forks of road that night—Wilson, McCleary, Sic Mong and I kept there, Quill Mong said he would go and get grub, I think it was at the school house he left us, we did not know where he went, next morning before daylight went back to bridge on Little Tionesta, Quill Mong met us there with grub about 10 o'clock, in the afternoon Quill Mong and McCleary went out to Wagner's, Sic and I stayed in the vicinity of the bridge, Wilson and McCleary didn't come back to us, Quill Mong came to us there, he said it was not necessary he should go with us, it was a soft job, Wagner's had no guns, they might have a shot gun, he had been seen, he'd go home so he would be safe to go, we went to the school house, I started to go to Wagner's, we went to cross-roads, turned to the left and went through the woods to Wagner's field where we found Wilson and McCleary looking through the fence, they were out cutting fence back of barn left our coats and hats, made masks of our handkerchiefs, it was quite dark when we started for the house, we do not know where we came near, a woman standing on the right, Wilson said to catch her, Sic Mong caught her—she was the soft part of the job—the only soft part there was Wilson got into the house first, McCleary next, I next, after we were put out I saw Mr. Wagner with the gun, the gun looked dangerous, after we were put out he went to the house, I was willing to quit and go away, but I could not leave my partner—Wilson—in there, I went back, shot in the door to scare, got in finally, it was dark, couldn't see, heard a man in a back room, it was Wilson, I shot in the house once or twice, when I saw Wilson go out I started after him, there was a terrible fusillade of chairs, the contents of the furniture seemed to be an hindrance to his free use, we were struck all over and very often, it was a regular beehive, go to door and opened it, some one hit me with chair, got out as quick as I could, had to get away, when I got out I saw Wilson and Sic Mong, Wilson was swearing, said he was shot, Sic said McCleary was killed, Wilson said he had a hole in his head, he was killed by this time," Sic, Wilson and I went up through field back of Wagner's into woods, Wilson was losing blood, Sic and I left him and came to cross-roads, Sic left me to go to get a horse, he said he would use Sic afterwards. (Then follows account of his and Wilson's escape.)

Cross-examined.—Saw Quill Mong first in connection with the burglary at school house at East Hickory, had known him previously, but had not seen him for 20 or 25 years before this—maybe longer—may be taken over Sic's story in a graveyard, Quill Mong was to meet us at Little Tionesta bridge Monday afternoon or evening, Sic Mong and McCleary came there about 4 o'clock p. m., and Quill Mong later, left there before dark and went to school house where we stayed all night—Wilson, McCleary, Sic and I, Quill Mong left us after at Little Tionesta or school house, he didn't stay long there, Quill came to us at Little Tionesta on Tuesday at about 11 o'clock, in the afternoon Quill Mong, Wilson and McCleary went to Wagner's to reconnoiter, Sic and I stayed at the bridge, saw Quill in afternoon again when he came back, Sic and I started for Wagner's, got there before dark, kept road as far as cross-roads, there we were, Wilson got in ahead of me, did not hear Wilson call me, went in to take him out, wouldn't have gone in again, I wouldn't had been in, the gun looked dangerous, when he got out I followed quickly—got help to go, had no use for $7,000 or $11,000 or any other sum just at that particular time.

J. W. Linker, sworn.—Live on west side of the river, near City of East Hickory, Quill Mong stopped at my place in February, '87, said he had come from Turkey City, spoke of McCleary's in connection with the burglary at school house.

L. B. Whittekin of East Hickory, sworn.—Saw McCleary with Quill Mong near Henry Church's half a mile from East Hickory on Saturday evening before the robbery.

W. H. Hall, sworn.—Saw Quill and Sic Mong and Haggerty and Wilson sitting on a log or old tree near Clark's, at mouth of Little Tionesta creek, on Friday evening before robbery, saw Quill Mong, Haggerty and Wilson together on Sunday down along river opposite Hickory depot, sitting on a log.

Judson Clark, sworn.—Kept boarding house at East Hickory May '87, Haggerty and Wilson came to my house Saturday before burglary about 2:30 p. m., and stayed till Monday morning till 8 o'clock.

Jonathan Albaugh, sworn.—Saw Wilson Haggerty and Sic Mong Monday morning before robbery, going down from East Hickory towards the bridge on a path through Church's pasture Monday morning before robbery.

A. W. Albaugh, sworn.—Crossed the bridge from Wagner's saw Quill Mong and his son William building a float just below the bridge, I wanted to ride with him on the float, he said it would only hold two and he had a passenger down along the river, was a man—a stranger—on the shore, afterward saw Quill Mong and this stranger go by mouth of Little Hickory on float.

Charles Hunter, of Tionesta, sworn.—Saw Sic Mong going through under Tionesta river bridge on float, on Monday or Tuesday previous to robbery, think there was a man with him, I went down to see him, he was with him, he was after dinner.

George Sausberger, sworn.—Live on Tylersburg road 3 miles from Boro—130 rods from school house in forks of road—about 1 mile from Little Tionesta bridge. Quill Mong stayed at my house Monday night before robbery, came about dark, left next morning before breakfast, came from toward school house.

John Walters, sworn.—Live at Newmansville, on Tuesday morning before robbery at Newmansville, he came from towards Tionesta, wanted a chew of tobacco, I had none and he went towards Mimim's store, saw him go out about a mile from bridge, he told me he had gone up to Clark's, stayed that night at Clark's, met after dark to make final arrangements—there was Quill Mong, Wilson, William McCleary, and myself. Monday morning we started for Tionesta, Sic Mong, Quill Mong came down and said Quill Mong and McCleary had overstepped themselves and hadn't gone, we left Clark's and walked down to the bridge, Sic Mong came after us and talked with us about the burglary, he came with us to the end of the bridge, he was to go back to see Quill Mong and McCleary, they all were to come down on Monday, we were to meet at bridge at Little Tionesta, Wilson and I came down on the train to Tionesta, got dinner in Tionesta, after dinner went out to Little Tionesta to meet the others, Quill Mong, Sic Mong and McCleary, they told us that Quill Mong and McCleary had come on a float together, and Sic on a float alone, I was to bring some fish lines and fished some at Little Tionesta. About 10 o'clock when Sic came to the bridge, Quill Mong and McCleary came after, Quill Mong had a small satchel, I think he said he was peddling some patent something to be used about a wagon, while we were there a man passed who Mong said was Mr. Wagner, stayed at school house in forks of road that night—Wilson, McCleary, Sic Mong and I kept there, Quill Mong said he would go and get grub, I think it was at the school house he left us, we did not know where he went, next morning before daylight went back to bridge on Little Tionesta, Quill Mong met us there with grub about 10 o'clock, in the afternoon Quill Mong and McCleary went out to Wagner's, Sic and I stayed in the vicinity of the bridge, Wilson and McCleary didn't come back to us, Quill Mong came to us there, he said it was not necessary he should go with us, it was a soft job, Wagner's had no guns, they might have a shot gun, he had been seen, he'd go home so he would be safe to go, we went to the school house, I started to go to Wagner's, we went to cross-roads, turned to the left and went through the woods to Wagner's field where we found Wilson and McCleary looking through the fence, they were out cutting fence back of barn left our coats and hats, made masks of our handkerchiefs, it was quite dark when we started for the house, we do not know where we came near, a woman standing on the right, Wilson said to catch her, Sic Mong caught her—she was the soft part of the job—the only soft part there was Wilson got into the house first, McCleary next, I next, after we were put out I saw Mr. Wagner with the gun, the gun looked dangerous, after we were put out he went to the house, I was willing to quit and go away, but I could not leave my partner—Wilson—in there, I went back, shot in the door to scare, got in finally, it was dark, couldn't see, heard a man in a back room, it was Wilson, I shot in the house once or twice, when I saw Wilson go out I started after him, there was a terrible fusillade of chairs, the contents of the furniture seemed to be an hindrance to his free use, we were struck all over and very often, it was a regular beehive, go to door and opened it, some one hit me with chair, got out as quick as I could, had to get away, when I got out I saw Wilson and Sic Mong, Wilson was swearing, said he was shot, Sic said McCleary was killed, Wilson said he had a hole in his head, he was killed by this time," Sic, Wilson and I went up through field back of Wagner's into woods, Wilson was losing blood, Sic and I left him and came to cross-roads, Sic left me to go to get a horse, he said he would use Sic afterwards. (Then follows account of his and Wilson's escape.)

Jefferson Spencer sworn.—On Saturday before the robbery Sic Mong and me were going to the bridge, of dynamite, we were to break and catch some fish; when I saw Haggerty peeping over the bank I thought he wanted to arrest me, so I put the shot in my pocket and went away. I told Sic to come down Monday and we would get our fish. To the best of my knowledge we went back Tuesday evening and dynamited fish. Next time I came to town I heard of the robbery and they blamed the Mong Mong, I said, well, Sic wasn't in it for he was with me dynamiting fish, Tuesday evening.

Henry Miller, of Hickory twp., sworn.—I came to the robbery, but got no money left there for him, and thought it was Monday or Tuesday evening but could not definitely fix the date, had seen Sic Mong at that time in the afternoon, Augustus (Sic) Mong, sworn.—First hearing of the Wagner robbery Wednesday morning about 7 o'clock, was in Hill's blacksmith shop, was home nearly all day Tuesday of the robbery, in the afternoon went to salt up a deer lick, at about five o'clock in the evening went to Hickory, met Mr. Spencer there, he said "let us go and get our dynamite," we went to the place that I went up in the woods where I had a keg of whiskey, filled up about a dozen bottles, and drank some, and sold some, went home about 9 o'clock, had nothing to do with the robbery, I don't know whether I knew nothing of it till after it happened.

Mrs. Judson Clark, testified as to the date when Henry Miller called there for the money left in the robbery, she said that on Tuesday afternoon because she had washed on Monday and was ironing Tuesday when he came.

At about 20 minutes of 1 o'clock on Saturday, Judge Brown finished his charge to the jury, which was clear, able and impartial. After remaining out about two hours and a half the jury returned a verdict of guilty. It being nearly train time the Judge had departed and the Associates, after receiving the verdict, adjourned court till 2 o'clock p. m., Monday. A message was received stating that Judge Brown could not be here at that time, and the Associates called court and adjourned again until 2 o'clock to-day (Wednesday) when it is expected the convicted parties will get their sentences.

The prosecution was conducted by District Attorney Clark and T. P. Ritchey Esq., assisted by Col. Moore of Pittsburgh. To the tenacity and persistence of Mr. Ritchey in sticking to and hunting out the evidence in the case, and the watchful care of Mr. Clark, belongs the credit of these convictions. The defense was conducted by E. L. Davis Esq., of this place, and John W. Reed of Clarion, and they fought the battle of their clients at every step, and got out all there was in the case. Mr. Ritchey for the prosecution, and Mr. Reed for the defense, made the pleas to the jury.

THE SENTENCES.—Judge Brown to-day sentenced the prisoners Aquilla Mong was sentenced to 8 years, and his son Augustus, to 10 years in the Penitentiary.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. E. I. Walton, charged with larceny of a yoke of oxen was called, but the accused failed to appear, whereupon a bench warrant was issued for him:

GRAND JURY'S FINDING.

Following is the grand jurors report for September Court, 1889: That they acted upon twenty-three bills of indictment, of which sixteen were true bills and seven returned not true bills.

We beg leave further to report that we have visited and inspected the County Jail and find everything in the best of order and cleanliness. No complaints from the prisoners as to food or care. We are very grateful and think all citizens should be in the zeal and earnestness, the Sheriff has shown and used in the re-capture of those prisoners that lately escaped from jail. We also inspected the court house grounds, etc., and find them all well kept and in good repair.

We would recommend a light to be placed at the North of the court house so as to light the walks from the street to the jail. We would respectfully recommend that the East side of the bridge across Tionesta creek near its mouth be boarded up a sufficient height so as to retain the snow during the winter months. The bridge across the pond at Nebraska is in an unsafe and dangerous condition. We would recommend the proper authorities be notified to repair the same at once. Complaint is made as to the condition of the sewers or ditches in Tionesta borough along Elm St., to Walnut street from May St., and on Walnut St., East of Elm. At certain times they are a nuisance. We recommend the proper authorities have them put in good condition at once.

We respectfully tender our thanks to the Honorable Judges and District Attorney, for their uniform courtesy and assistance rendered us during our deliberations. All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. W. CLARK, Foreman. Tionesta, Pa., Sept. 19, 1889.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade as G. W. Bovard's Drug Store at their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints.
