Elections in the New States.

Returns from the elections in the four new States held yesterday are quite meagre, but the indications are that the Republicans have carried the two Dakotas and the Democrats Montana. Prohibition is carried in South Dakota. Washington goes Republican and the indications are that woman suffrage is defeated. A midnight dispatch says that Washington has elected a Republican Governor and Congressman by 7,000 majority, and the Republicans probably have 15 majority in the Legislature. A Sioux Falls, South Dakota, dispatch says the Republicans have the Legislature by 150. In Montana the Democrats elected a Democratic Governor and Legislature, and probably a Republican Congressman.

A Correction.

The ten additional cruisers which Secretary Tracy will ask Congress to build would give the country a navy worthy of the name. Not even the Chesapeake oyster pirates could safely defy such a fleet.

Another peculiarity of the Democratic organs is that they are censuring Vice-President Morton because he doesn't talk. It is much as if a flock of parrots were to shriek about the silence of an eagle.

Bishop Turner, of Atlanta, who is himself a negro, declares that four-fifths of the white people of the South are opposed to outrages on the colored men. If that is the fact, it seems as though the four-fifths ought to have some restraining influence upon the other fifth.

During the last campaign the Republican State Committee offered banners to the four Counties showing the greatest comparative increase over the Blaine vote. The Mendeville Tribune says these banners have been awarded to Sullivan, Forest, Cambria and Potter Counties.

The name of Hon. Charles W. Stone, Secretary of the Commonwealth, is very favorably mentioned throughout the State, and especially in the Northwest, in connection with the next Republican candidacy for Governor next year, and the many flattering endorsements which he is receiving at the hands of the press must be a gratification to that brainy statesman even if he has no idea of allowing his name to go before the people as a candidate. The ex-Lieut. Governor has a host of warm personal friends in this county who would take great delight in putting a shoulder to the wheel in his behalf, and there is no disguising the fact that he would carry an immense vote in all this section of the country. The mention of Mr. Stone's name, we understand, is without his authority, but that makes it all the more flattering, and the more binding upon him to enter the race if his friends demand it, and it looks now as though the demand would be made.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular correspondent. WASHINGTON, Sept. 27, 1889. The President and Mrs. Harrison returned this afternoon. This time they have come to stay, and the White House again becomes the center of public interest. The real work of the administration will now begin in earnest. To-morrow a meeting of the cabinet will be held to discuss a number of important matters, not the least of which will be who is to succeed Corporal Tanner as Commissioner of Pensions.

The President already has his message to Congress sketched in outline. The details will, of course, require many consultations with the members of his cabinet and the party leaders. Representative Ben. Butterworth, the popular son of Ohio, who has just returned from a trip to Europe, was given a welcome home-to-night that must have warmed his big heart to its jubermost parts. At least three thousand people took part in the reception which was held in the old skating rink. Hon. S. S. Shellabarger delivered the address of welcome and a number of other gentlemen, including Senator Sherman, made short speeches. The reply of Mr. Butterworth was a gem in its way, and could have been made by few men so well. Mr. Butterworth will take the stump in Ohio for Governor Forsaker in a few days. The reception was held under the auspices of the Ohio Republican Association of this city.

Senator Sherman is urging the appointment of ex representative Brown, of Ohio, as Commissioner of Pensions. He told Secretary Noble that the resignation of Mr. Tanner, owing to the peculiar and somewhat mysterious circumstances attending it, was doing the party much harm in Ohio, and that he thought the appointment of Mr. Brown would be the best means of restoring good feeling among the Ohio veterans.

Almost a quorum of the Senate has been in Washington during this week. The majority of the Senators were only here for a day or two, as they returned from their summer vacations, and had little to say on political matters. At least a dozen of the shrewdest newspaper men in town successively tackled Senator Quay for an interview, but the junior Senator from the Keystone State knocked them out in one, two, three order without the slightest trouble. There are few men in public life harder to interview than Mr. Quay, and yet no man is easier to approach.

Every Congressman who favors some other city as the place for holding the American Exposition in 1892 has Washington for a second choice, which makes it certain that Washington will be selected.

Under the school laws of Pennsylvania the authority of a teacher in directing the conduct of the pupil in his or her charge begins when the child departs from his home for school, and only ends when it returns again to that abode.

The above was printed in our last issue, clipped from a Pennsylvania exchange, but appears to be wrong, as we are handed the following school law:

The jurisdiction and authority of the teacher over the pupil are neither limited by the school house walls, nor the time the school is actually in session. As a general rule, in all matters legitimately connected with the schools and the manners and morals of the scholars, the teacher's jurisdiction, conjointly with that of the parent, commences when the pupil leaves the parental roof and control to go to school, and continues until their return from school. The teacher, however, is not responsible for the misconduct of pupils on the way to and from school, though he has the right to punish such misconduct when brought to his knowledge.

It will be seen that both parent and teacher should act conjointly in the care of the pupil. Both have great responsibility, though the parent's share is the greater. - Warren Mail.

The act of Assembly entitled "An act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2, 1874, provides as follows, viz: "In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an inspector in his place, and in case the person elected Judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy."

I also give official notice to the electors of Forest county, that by an act entitled "An act further supplemental to the act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved Jan. 30, 1874: Sec. 9. All the elections by the citizens shall be by ballot; every ballot voted shall be rolled in a paper which shall be numbered with the number corresponding with the name of the voter. Any elector may write his name upon his ballot, and such name shall be written thereon, and attested by a citizen of the district. In addition to the oath now prescribed by law to be taken and subscribed by election officers, they shall also receive by sworn or affirmed not to disclose how any elector shall have voted, unless required to do so as witnesses in a judicial proceeding. All judges, inspectors, clerks and overseers of the election held under this act, shall, before entering upon their duties, be duly sworn or affirmed in the presence of each other. The judges shall be sworn by the majority inspector, and the inspectors and clerks shall be sworn by the judge. Every person claiming to be an elector, and failing to do so by appearing or affirming shall be duly made out and signed by the officers so sworn, and attested by the officer who administered the oath. If any judge or minority inspector refuses or fails to do so, he shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, the officer or officers so offending shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Sec. 11. It shall be lawful for any qualified elector of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of registered voters, to challenge the vote of such person, whereupon the proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted upon by the election board and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence. Every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for five years in possession of a voter in the district in which he offers to vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted," with the day, month and year; and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of some certificate, except where such are entitled to vote because of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed five hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year. The like punishment shall be inflicted on conviction on the officers of election who shall neglect or refuse to make or cause to be made the endorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate. Sec. 12. If any election officer shall neglect or refuse to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, or laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on this list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote without requiring such proof of his citizenship, as aforesaid shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced for every such offense, to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment of not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

ARTICLE VIII. SUFFRAGE AND ELECTION. Sec. 1. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: First.—He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month. Second.—He shall have resided in this State one year, (or, if having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months,) immediately preceding the election. Third.—He shall have resided in the election district where he offers to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.
