DON'T EXPERIMENT. You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at G. W. Bovard's Drug Store.

German Hill. Mr. H. E. Lovel and wife are visiting friends in Butler county.

Mrs. Taylor, nee Miss Mary Heath, of Riceville, Crawford Co., is paying a few weeks visit to her parents.

Miss May Weller has returned from her visit to friends at Emlenton.

Carlos Heath is on the sick list at this writing, but we hope it will not become serious.

Mr. Winker is about ready to emigrate with his family, from his old house into his new one.

What is the reason Martin is not seen on the hill as often now as formerly? Who will answer?

What is the demon that haunts the lonely mansion that stands by the road which leads us to Nebraska? We hear some one tell of those hideous midnight yells, while the thing of bloodshed walks the roof of the shanty, and awakens George from his peaceful slumbers by its hollering, "coom-er-oot! coom-er-oot!" But George does not come out until both chambers of his double-barreled shot gun are filled to the muzzle, and then with a "Betty and I killed the bear" attitude he waits for this carnivorous being to appear, and aided by the light of the moon he sees it spread its wings and sail through the sombre forest. George blazes away, but, O! the reaction of a well loaded shot gun causes him to glomerate; nevertheless that miserable owl will disturb his pleasant dreams no more.

Oct. 7. I. Hepler Corners. Mr. E. E. Stitzinger and wife, of this proximity, have moved into the H. Myers house, Lickingville.

Married—Mr. B. Perrie of Oil City, and Miss Fannie Myers of this locality, one day last week, at Lickingville. Rev. Brickley performed the ceremony.

There is a sensible agitation afoot in favor of the issue of fractional paper currency. The transmission by mail of small amounts in postage stamps has become a nuisance to both sender and receiver, and the postal note, while having no advantage whatever over fractional currency, is inconvenient and costs the sender both money and trouble.

Spirits of ammonia is the best thing to clean hair-bristles with, as it does not soften the bristles like soap or soda. If a teaspoonful of ammonia is mixed with a quart of water, the brush need only be dipped in the solution for a moment and all grease is removed.

It is unquestionably a crime. Why should the crime be condoned? Why should the drunkard be coddled? Half of the drunkenness that makes thousands of homes a hell is the dreadful fruit of misdirected leniency.

Fully half the girls and women don't know how to walk. They twist, roll, shuffle, teeter, bob, jerk or waddle. This is the result of carelessness or want of physical training.

The following law passed by the English parliament in 1770, if in force at the present day, would raise quite a commotion among the fair sex. It provided "that all women, of whatever age, rank or profession, whether virgins, maids or widows, who shall, after this act, impose upon, seduce and betray into matrimony any of his Master's subjects, by virtue of scents, paints, cosmetics, washes, artificial teeth, Spanish wool, iron stays, bolstered hips or high-heeled shoes, shall incur the penalty of the law now in force against witchcraft and like misdemeanors, and the marriage under such circumstances, upon conviction of the offending party, shall be null and void."

A new fish—at least new to the waters of the Allegheny River—is said to have lately become plentiful in that stream, and the only theory as to where they came from, is that the bursting of the Conemaugh dam emptied its contents of fish into and stocked the Allegheny with one of the finest varieties of fish known.

They are very gamey and evidently of the pike or muscalonge family. Fish of this kind were never known to have been caught in the Allegheny before, though Conemaugh lake was stocked with them. The strange fish takes the minnow or spoon bait, and it is said that some have been taken from the river ranging from six to ten pounds.—Pleasantville Record.

The above answers first rate for the regulation fish story, but it's a poor yarn to spin on the people living on the Allegheny, who have never heard of, much less seen, any of the new variety.

Costiveness is the cause of the intolerable "bad breath" of multitudes. Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters remove the cause and prevent the evil, and cost only 25 cents. For sale by D. Barnett.

A Sound Legal Opinion. E. Balmbridge Munday Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. An afflicted Electric Bitters saved his life." Mr. D. L. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters. This grand remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c and $1.00 at G. W. Bovard's Drug Store.
