WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1889.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE. For Treasurer, HENRY K. BOYER, Philadelphia.

COUNTY. For Associate Judge, JOHN H. WHITE. Barnett Township.

For Treasurer, A. M. DOUTT. Tionesta Borough.

For Surveyor, J. F. PROPER, Tionesta Borough.

For Coroner. Dr. A. E. STONECIPHER, Jenks Township.

CHICAGO'S fund for the World's Fair amounts to more than $6,000,000. That is a tolerably long pole. It may reach the persimmons yet.

THIS is an off year in Pennsylvania politics, and for that reason the Republican majority in the State may not exceed 40,000. It will be a shame upon the party, however, if it is allowed to fall below that figure. All of which means, fellow Republicans, that you should brace up.

STEPHEN A. DOUGLASS, JR., thus sarcastically sums up his reasons for being a Republican: "I am a Republican because the Republican party is always for something, while the Demthe Republicans are for and then the Democrats are against it."

THE Democratic hope that Senator Sherman would sulk and remain silent during the Ohio campaign has been rudely dispelled and cruelly disappointed. The Senator's Orrville speech is full of his old energy and aggressiveness, and is a call to party action that will be heard and heeded in every election district in Ohio.

of the United States for conspiracy in bringing the delegates to the International Congress to this country and converting them to the Protective idea by making them see with their own eyes what the tariff policy will do to promote the industrial independence of a nation. In formulating the indictment the Free Traders should not fail to include the great manufacturers of the land as accessories after the fact.

REPUBLICANS throughout the county should begin to close up the ranks for the final assault of the 5th of November, which is not a great ways off. There should be no opportunity lost to make a vote for the ticket wherever it can be honestly accomplished. This is what is called an "off year" in polities, but that is no reason why every Republican should not make it a point to secure every vote possible for the ticket, and help swell the majority. There must be no lagging from this on. We must get out all the votes. and to this end we urge concert in action, and a strong and steady pull till the polls close. Be up and doing. Now is the accepted time.

THE death of Hon. John G. Hall of Ridgway, recently, removes one of the ablest lawyers and most highly esteemed citizens of the State. Mr. Hall had been in delicate health for some time and had sought a voyage to Europe to improve it, but just reached Liverpool, England, when death occurred. He was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1873, and represented this district in the State Senate from 1879 to 1886, during which time he was virtually the leader of the Democratic side of that body, and in debate and parliamentary practice had few equals in the State. Senator Hall's death will be keenly felt by a large portion of the citizens of this county, irrespective of party.

THE Jeffersonian Democrat makes a feeble attempt to detract from the reputation of Hon. Henry K. Boyer, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, by declaring that "Mr. Boyer was nominated because he was subservient to the interests of the bosses, and if elected, will conduct the business to suit them." Mr. Boyer served as speaker of the House of Representatives, a difficult and exacting position, two terms, and at the close of each session every Democratic member joined in a vote of thanks to the presiding officer for fairness and impartiality in his rulings and uniform courteous treatment of the minority, and it was mainly because of his strong personal traits of character, that have made him hosts of friends everywhere, even among his political opponents, that the nomination of State Treasurer came to him without an effort at boss Jos WORK of every description execu-dictation. It was because of his independence and his fairness on all questions that he was admired as a presiding officer of the House, and because of a conviction that he will carry the same principles into the conduct of the affairs of the State Treasury the people will give him their support at the polls.-Brookville Republican.

NEWSY NOTES.

The famous Brooklyn Tabermele, Dr. Talmage's church, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last. Supposed to have been caused by lightning.

James S. McCray, who owned the once famous McCray Farm, on Oil Creek, in the palmy days of that locality, died at his home in Franklin on Monday of this week, at the age of 65 years.

Within the next week the result of the elections in the new States will be sent on to President Harrison, and about the last of the month the President will issue a proclamation declaring the Territories admitted to the Union. The newly elected officers can then qualify.

There must be a lot of rascals in a certain Methodist congregation in Alabama. On a Sunday night eight silver dollars were found in the contribution box, seven of which proved to be counterfeits, but not before the preacher had passed one of them, for which he is under indictment, He is deserving of the sympathy of the Christian world.

The suicide of a Barber Count at Asbury Park and the death of a coal-mining Swedish Baron at Sharon, this State, on Saturday, indicates that the present is a bad year for titled gentlemen impoverished and in exile. If the untitled frauds who occasionally cut a swath in Anglo-maniae society would only die off or kill themselves the world would be better for it,
