

ceelings .- New York Journal. It may not always be that red."

A London merchant advertises that he "special umbrella maker to the Queen," and the Lynn Rem thinks Victoria's long reign has probably been profitable to Consistency is indeed rare. A man will unblushingly comb his back hair over yet expect a grocer to put his smallest

A speaker at a public meeting talked and talked and talked. "How full he is of his subject?" said a friend, "Yes, said an enemy; "but how slow he is to empty himself !"-San Francisco Wasp.

"We thought we'd come in," she said, sweetly smiling. "You see, I taught a term in a district school once myself. population in the South, sixty-four per and-"Certainly," said the master. "I am his injury.

Everybody was certain that the buildrush and hubbub.

had grown almost hysterical, and her at right angles, and arranged upon the brother had borne her out, and called to same movable axis, so that the rudder

There was a general laugh at the novel feature, and then a spreading "Ah!" of She and Malcolm went in, and the onsternation The big bunch had hit the rather rick-He was hardly a spinster! He was a ety lamp on the organ and knocked it to tall, bright-eyed, dark-moustached, inthe floor. There was the expected crash | duced by a flame, created by the burning of breaking glass; but worse, there was a burst of flame. The oil had caught "Come in !" said the schoolmaster,

Of course there was a panic. Even larger pipe, which is attached to the permen, in their first fright, pushed toward the door. Women screamed and children cried.

ing would burn, and there was a general principal features of the air ship.

-the time seemed endless.

home with John and Margaret.

view of directing the serial machine in the desired course. Within the cone is a spiral projection to cause the issuing hot ir to assume a rotary direction. The heating or motive power is proof gasoline contained in eans on the out-side of the hoop. Small pipes running from these receptacles connect with a pendicular pipe running through the centre of the balloon. The flame is increased or decreased by a slight turn of a spiggot, and herein hes one of the

The steering device consists of two But Amy stood still. Her sister-in-law wings, bisecting each other in the center ligious or warlike purposes. The superiority of its architecture, it having outlived all the other structures by which it was surrounded, the numerous small apartments into which it was divided. and the elegance of the interior finish, all point to the conclusion that it was the alace of the king, or chief, who governed the primitive Americans who inhabited Toltec.

The most ancient of the traditions of here where their fathers have lived for The earliest historic records we have of Casa Grande was given by the famous Spanish cavalier and explorer, Cabeza de uc-half cup of butter, two eggs beaten very light, three teaspoonfuls baking powder, flavor with nutmeg or vanilla, and add flour enough to roll out; one cup of sugar; sift over powdered sugar a soon as taken out of the boiling lard.

Rice Pudding-Beat six eggs with twelve tablespoonfuls of sugar, then add gradually two teacupfuls of rice that has these vast domains ages before Astec or been boiled soft, and one tablespoonful of butter. Flavor with grated nutmeg tine, three eggs, one plut of milk, two sups of sugar, juice of one lemon; soak the gelatine one hour in a tea cup of cold water, then add one pint of boiling water and stir until the gelatine is dissolved;

add two-thirds of the sugar and the lemon juice; beat the whites of the eggs to stiff roth, and when the gelatine is quite cold whip it into the whites, a spoonful at :

time; for at least an hour whip steadily and evenly, and when all is stiff pour into a mould previously wet with cold water;

set in a cold place; in four or five hours turn into a glass dish; make a soft cus-

Beefsteak Rolls-Tuke a lean piece of seef entirely free from fat or bone and cut into thin steaks about four inches by six, sprinkle on a little popper, salt and thick with butter, into each piece stick two or three cloves, then roll up each piece of the bread in a piece of steak m tightly as possible, tie it with thread ; roll his early study of the odes of Horace and Cut bread into strips, spread them tard and pour around it.

Lour.

my masters

or lemon. Add last one quart of fresh the Pimas and Papagoes, who yet live milk, pour into a baking diah, and when you put it in the oven cover it so as it centuries, allude to them as "the ruins." may not brown too quickly. Just as soon as it is done remove it from the oven; if allowed to remain in too long it becomes watery, but if taken out as soon as done it will be firm all through.

"Yes," admitted the visitor, when the proud mother exhibited her baby, "he has his father's nose, but don't worry.

bald spot on the top of his head, and apples in the top layer of the box.

cent, of the colored children are reported as attending school. The ex-commissioner is opposed to compulsory education.

cent, is enrolled and fifty-three per to reprisals while French trade is under discussion by the All-American Congress

The statistics furnished by the ex-

United States Commissioner of Education, show very gratifying progress in education. In the country as a whole the increase in school enrollment has been in

The increase is almost wholly from the Southern States. Of the white school advance of the increase in population. talk just the same.

at Washington.

All of the American nations, excepting San Domingo, accepted the invitation to attend the All-American conference. San Domingo declined on the ground that the United States Senate refused to ratify a treaty negotiated with her several years ago. Evidently, observes the San Francisco Chronicle, the motto of the San Domingans is the whole hog or none. A few years ago they were anxious to be at- three in my school." tached to the United States; now they have refused to be present at a congress of American nations because they assume that this country will take the leadership in the affair.

Our neighbor. Gautemala, seems to be a particularly prosperous little commonwealth. Within the past two years the the average value per acre of its agricultural land has been more than doubled, while the area under tillage has at the same time been increased in about equal ratio. Next year, it is estimated. the coffee crop will amount to a million quintals, worth $11,500,000. The revenue is increasing at the rate of about $300,000 a year and the general finances of the nation are in a healthful condition. pretty laughter and a blush. Altogether it is just the sort of State between which and this country closer commercial relations might be cultivated to the advantage of both parties.

A tramp knows what it is to be logweary, says the Witness, a farm laborer to be body-weary, a literary man to be brain-weary, and a sorrowing man to be soul-weary. The sick are often weary, even of life itself. Weariness is a physical or sniritsal "ebb-tide" which time and patience will convert into a "flow." alarm It is never well to whip or spur a wornout horse, except in the direct straits. If a half old. he mends his pace in obedience to the stimulous, every stop is a spark subtracted from his vital energy. Idleness is not one of the faults of the present a bright laugh. age; weariness is one of its commonest experiences. The checks which many a man draws on his physical resources are turning aside her smilling face. innumerable; and as these resources are stictly limited, like any other ordinary banking account, it is very easy to being about a balance on the wrong side. Adequate rest is one kind of repayment to the bank, sound sleep is another, regular gating and good digestion another.

always glad to have Amy to follow my school is out." He hastened forward to meet her, and walked back down the aisle with her. "I'd have been glad to see it," said Amy-net very regretfully, however. "See, Malcolm, dear, that rat on the valiantly smothering the flames.

teacher rose from the desk.

"Oh !" Amy faltered.

though they were in.

disputably good-looking young man.

Amy mustered her courage. It was embarrassing, but after all it didn't alter the case. She would have her congenial blackboard. "Yes, I illustrate their lessons for my orimer children," said the teacher, laugh ing. "They like my pictorial efforts. What a pleasant laugh he had, and what a clearness and galety in his eyes!

Amy's heart beat a little faster. "It's such work, isn't it, teaching babies" she said. "I had an infant of

"Oh, I draw the line there! But have them as small as this young man. He pinched Malcoim's fat check. "Malcolm is five," said Amy. "Have you many pupils? I had only sixteen. "Oh, I can beat that ! I have forty. "And you do it all?" said Amy, he admiring eyes raised to his. "I'm afraid I'm presumptuous to try to have a congenial talk," she laughed, ambiguously. "You see, I taught only one term. was spending the summer at Hinton, and the teacher was taken sick the first of take you home. the term, and I taught it for her. But I'm afraid I did it for fun." "I shall rank you among the pedagogues, all the same," the young school-master declared, gally. "You've taught a school, and the insincerity of your motive doesn't matter. I don't know why we can't have a congenial talk." "Perhaps we can," said Amy, with

They had it. Malcolm, sitting close to his pretty

He told me to come, but I-" "Your brother!" said Mr. Oakes. aunt on the bench, listened round-eyed, interested if not comprehending. Amy wondered afterward how ever ·Yes

'And your sister-in-law!" they drifted from school methods and Why, yes. monthly examinations to the prettiness of "But I haven't seen them!" he ex-Gloster's rambles and the the pleasantstulated. ness of the Clarks' front porch, where almost glad.

Amy boarded, and the excellence of their retorted, shyly. croquet ground. But they did; and they 'And I thought you were here alone. were honestly amazed when the clock or the wall gave its "tchick" for half-past he declared.

"But I'm not," she replied, wonder-They looked at each other in flushed

The schoolmaster stopped short and faced her. Their sequaintance was an hour and "Is it possible," he said, solemniy .--

"Tve hindered you!" Amy cried. "You've got lessons to make out, or nophew?

something. "I haven't," retorted the teacher, with Amy cried. *I was going home.

live beyond the Clarks', and I hope Phil Oakes, almost inaudiably. you'll let me go with you. thought you were a widow. "Come, Malcolm, dear," said Amy,

"I don't suppose you will care for my until she was weak. commencement," said the schoolmaster, at the Clarks' gate. 'It's day after to-mor-row evening. I call it commencement in some irony-its the more stepping off of my higher class. Only its something plied, in a soft scream. of a celebration, here, you know. "And the little ! Everybody comes, and the school-board may be placed in any desired position to But she did not. She stood mouton less and watched one figure on the plat-Mr. Fest has made a balloon contain-Mr. Fest has made a balloon contain-But she did not. She stood motion- assist in directing the course of the

A widow !" she gasped.

Phil Oakes had snatched up the carpet ing the above devices which he has from the temporary platform, and was named "The Phonix." It is constructed diantly smothering the flames. Amy waited. She had done it! If he ameter, When inflated it will conwas badly burned-if he was smothered tain 523 cubic feet of hot air. would be her fault-hers! And is the intention of the inventor how differently she had meant it! She to set it free the first evening that had been foolish, but surely she did not the weather is comparatively mild. His deserve that her foolishness should be to name and address is printed on the cans and woodwork of the ballon in several The time she stood miserably waiting places, so that if any one secures the air waiting till he should see and come to ship after it descends the inventor can be her, as she knew he would (for he must notified of its location. The inventor, now feeling confident know from whom that bouquet had come) that he has accomplished the object of When he came, white faced but smiling, his life, which was secured only by great perseverance, patience and the loss of over $7000 in the way of experiments on made me do it? You are burned---both his hobby, will make preparations to send up his hammoth air-ship "Susanna Elizabeth," named after his wife, which nothing " said the schoolmaster, looking is expected to cross the ocean in thirty-

An Astonishing Thirst.

One of the stoutest men in New England some time ago was 'Squire Ball, who weighed 300 pounds. The 'squire had one peculiarity, and that was a remarkable thirst, of a still larger proportion than his body. He could not pass a pump, well or spring without stopping and partaking copiously. Once wher out driving in his buggy, he met a country friend opposite a well where eams were accustomed to stop for water. His friend, at his request, filled a rather dilapidated bucket, which stood at hand, and passed it up to him. The seams of the bucket was a little leaky, but the 'Squire was very thirsty, so he took it engerly and set to work drinking. As pint after pint of the liquid disap-peared the friend stared open-syed, but still the 'squire drank on until, with a hearty sigh of satisfaction, he handed it back empty. The friend, who either thought that a man who could drink such an immense amount at one time must have an unlimited capacity, or else misinterproted the sigh, said urgently : "Have 'nother pailful, 'squire? You the Bollingers a didn't git more'n half on't into yer." the same origin. is it possible that that child is your Boston Advertiser.

A man who made murder a stduy and "I thought he was your-son," said deliberately engaged in the business of dustry, and Fish, Fisher and Fisherman, il Oakes, almost inaudiably. "I slaughtering his fellow-creatures for gain doubtless had their origin in the occuwas recently executed in Hungary. He pation the men who first assumed these was an intelligent and fine looking young names, of which fact there is abundant man, but shed blood without any appar-record. It is quite possible also, as Max cut computction. His favorite weapon Muller suggests, that men may have Baca, who discovered it during h Ragout - Pickle-Two gallons of ney across the continent about 1537. A chopped cabbage, two gallons of green years later the famous explorer, Don Francisco de Coronado, Governor of New tomatoes, twelve large onions, chopped Galicia, who led an expedition into New or sliced thin, one gallon best cider vin gar, one pound brown sugar, one table Mexico, describes the ruins as being four stories high, with walls six feet in thick- spoonful ground black pepper, hait ance tumeric powder, one ounce celery ness. As a proof of its great antiquity he says the Pima Indians then, 350 years seed, one tablespoonful ground allspice. one teaspoonful ground cloves, halt ago, had no knowledge of the origin or round white mustard seed, one gill of history of the town which had existed sait, Boil cabbage, onions, tomatoes, there. It had always been a ruin to them vinegar, salt and sugar together until th and to their ancestors.

Fathers King and Mange, who visited vegetables are perfectly tender, then take the place in 1694, found the remains of from the fire and add the spices. Put the great edifice. They also gave an acinto glass or stone jars, and cover tightly. count of twelve other ruins in the vi-Carrot Ginger-Take fresh young carcinity. Father Pedro Fout, in 1777, ots, wash well and scrape them, leaving found them in much the same condition. all the eves, as this gives more the rue. He describes the main building as an ged appearance of real ginger; cut them oblong square facing the cardinal points of the compass. The exterior walls exinto pieces about the length and thickness of the real article, lay them in a tended from north to south 420 feet sieve or a frying basket, stand this in and from cast to west 260 feet. "We stewpan of boiling water and parboil thus see," says Mr. Morrison, "what them. Let them drain and stand over have the storms of 110 years have till the next day; then, without break made and the necessity for immediate ing, just them into a preserving pan with action to save the remnant from com-plete destruction." The ruins are retheir own weight of syrup or ginger, and let them simmer very gently for three parded as one of the most interesting rehours. Fill empty ginger jars or premains of the prehistoric age to be found serve pots, allowing plenty of syrup, and on this continent. cover closely as for jam. Snow Custard-One-half box of gela-

Decendants of Bread Makers.

Our Bakers, says an English paper, peaking of family names, may be readily turned back to their floury-handed ancesters, but the Baxters must be followed generations before we find they were of the same family; being the decendants of the Bagsters, who were the offspring of the Bagesters, who acknowledged that they were the children of the Bakesters, who were femenine bakers. Of the bread making tribe were also the Preaders and the Whitbreds, the latter perhaps once priding themselves on the color of their stock in trade, while nearly related to them were Mills, the Millers and the Mealers.

The large and respectable family of Boulangers came from the French bakers, who carried on their trade in England during the age when family names were growing, while Mr. Lowe suggests that the Bollingers and the Bulliners are of Few points in Great Britain are more them in some flour, and fry a light brown in butter. Then put them in a stew pan than a hundred miles from the sea, and sbred a small onion fine and add. If the in all ages fish has formed one of the butter they were fried in is not burned staple articles of British diet. Catching add that, if it is melt some more better the fish was, therefore, an important in with browned flour and season with a lit. tie cayenne and salt. Cover with boiling water, occasionally stirring, and adding afficient flour to thicken, and stew until a fork will easily penetrate them.

was a heavy walking stick and a hatchet, made a specialty of taking or of selling a "You had on a black dress, you those having been recommended to him particular kind of fish, and thus Salmon, by another successful murderer. The from Robert is Salmonser; Hering, from cold-blooded assassin had a mother and John le Heringer; and Trouter, from wife of whom he was very fond, and Roger le Trowter, may have arisen with whom he supported by his bloody trade. | out violence to the laws of philology.

Now pick out the biggest of pumpkins; The daintiest apple and penr; The reddest tomato; The reddest tomato. The finest potato: And bring them along to the fair. —Datasville Breeze.

The inventors who have grown tired f the perpetual motion problem might turn their attention to discovering some method by which a dog's skin could be tanned with his own bark .- Merchant Teaceler Englishmen propose to buy up the gas lants of Chicago and furnish fuel at wenty-five cents a thousand feet. They won't make much money if the feet are of the regulation kind in that city .- New York Neurs.

"What prompted you to rob this asked the judge of the man's till?" prisoner. "My family physician, sir," as the reply; "he told me it was absolutely necessary that I should have a little change.

"The Empress of Austria sits alternately on either side of her horse," says as article on "Horsemanship for Women. Everybody will be glad to hear that she sits that way alternately and not simul-taneously .- Terre Haute Express.

Constituent (to newly-elected Conressman .- You're a pretty big man now, chi" Congressman-"Er-well, I don't know. I did lay that flattering unction to my soul until I saw my mother-in-law scorafully sizing me up."- New York Journal.

"How does it happen that the couple cer the way live so happily together? They have been married now tweaty-two years and have never yet had a dispute. No wonder; she goes out teaching music all day long away from home and he is a night editor on a daily paper."

Housemaid-"There is a gentleman downstairs, m'm, who is almost pulling the bell out, and says he wants the key to the fire alarm box." Mistress (rushing to the mirror)-"Ask him to send up his card, and tell him I will be down in a few minutes."-Burlington Free Press.

Manufacture of Cow-Hells.

There are four establishments in this ountry devoted exclusively to the nanufacture of cow-bells, two being in Collinsville, Il). One hundred and fifty dozen are turned out daily, and thousands of them dangle from the necks of cows all over the prairies of North and South America. The manufacture of cow-bells is entirely different from that of other bells. Instead of being molded, the metal is rolled into sheets, cut into symmetrical polygons, which, when In a recent interview Tennyson said folded, are pressed into their well-known that he attributed his success as a post to form. After being riveted they are packed in cisy and brought to a white the works of John Kents, or, to use his heat. When suddenly cooled these steel own words; "Kents and Horace were bells are found to be not only tempered. but beautifully bronzed.

"Of course! What clse could he bef" A Professional Murderer. There was a silence of some minutes. She leaned against a fence and laughed 'I was sure you were a widow," he

"With vellow hows on it !" she reith you."

the tears rushed to her anxious eyes. "I was such a goose !" she said, "What your hands-and I did it!" "No, no! A small burn or twohandsome as he bent toward her. "Don't six hours. think it! I have your flowers, and they # were worth it! Are you alone? Let me

She took his arm. He was not much hurt, and he held her flowers tightly in his hand, and they were going out into the cool night together, and she was For otherwise she would be going "My sister-in-law was hystorical with tright," said Amy, laughing and half-crying together, and almost hysterical her-"And my brother took her home. "But you haven'f called on me, " Amy