LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.
—Oil market closed yesterday 1.06 1/2.
—The schools will be closed tomorrow.
—John Grubbs is drilling a water well for David Barnett.

—Frank Grove of South Oil City, is visiting relatives in this place.
—Mr. W. C. Allan of West Hickory, was a visitor to town yesterday.

—Some nice Thanksgiving reading will be found on our first page this week.

—Mr. Jas. M. Mills was appointed postmaster at Elulalia, this county, on the 20th inst.

—W. E. Rice Esq., of Warren, was in town on legal business Monday and Tuesday of this week.

—Charlie Carlson of West Hickory, was in town Saturday and gave the REPUBLICAN a friendly call.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Steubenville, Ohio, are paying a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Dr. Siggins.

—Andy Carr gashed his left foot with an ax one day last week, and is now keeping Will Hunter company on crutches.

—There will be union thanksgiving services in East Hickory M. E. Church tomorrow (Thursday) evening. Everybody invited.

—The Oil City Fuel Supply Co. is piping gas into Brookville and will keep the people of that town warm the coming winter.

—Tomorrow at 10:30 a. m., union Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. Church. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

—Mr. Allan Gordon of Elkhart, Indiana, and his sister, Miss Addie, are paying a visit to their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Haelet.

—United Presbyterian services will be held in the school house next Sabbath at 11 a. m., and 4 p. m., Rev. A. S. Stewart, officiating. All are cordially invited.

—Ben Butler has done a great good in the Tewkesbury Alms-house, but his work will not be complete till he orders a good supply of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the people's remedy.

—Mr. Collins, the genial partner of our good natured friend Hardison, in the oil business, is here keeping an eye on the well across the river, which is getting to the interesting point.

—The State Normal School of Clarion has the public schools of the town for model schools, and the members of the senior class in the Normal are paid for teaching in the model schools.

—The trial of Daniel Walters and Win. Mong charged with the assault made on Mrs. Margaret Knapp near Newmansville, some weeks ago, came up in the Clarion courts on Saturday last, and at last accounts was still on trial, with Judge Neale of Kittanning, on the bench.

—Mr. J. C. Millen, whom many of our people will remember as having preached for the United Presbyterian congregation here last winter, died of typhoid fever on the 17th inst. He was a student in Allegheny Theological Seminary, and gave promise of becoming a brilliant minister.

—The Ancient Order of United Workmen is a man—that is has attained its majority. The first lodge of the order was instituted in Meadville, on the evening of October 27, 1868. It was a healthy boy and a promising youth, and now that it has reached manhood's estate, its future is none the less promising. The membership in the United States and Canada is now about 225,000 and is being added to continuously.

—Supt. Kerr has secured the following array of talent for the institute, which begins on the 30th proximo: Col. L. F. Copeland, two night lectures; Prof. Geo. E. Little, one night lecture, and daily instructions in drawing; Supt. Pearsall of Cameron county, and L. L. Himes of Clarion Normal, will be in attendance all week; Prof. Wheeler will again have charge of the music department, which means success in that line.

—Not strictly as a matter of news, but more as a fact for future reference, we remark that the rains of the past week or two have put the roads in a deplorable condition, and hauling has been practically suspended. Besides the item helps to fill up, and illustrates better than we could describe how scarce news is, &c.

—I will hear your song sublime, some other time, he said, pulling away suddenly and leaving his coat button in my hands. But he didn't get far as he was detained by rheumatism in his left knee. I pressed into his hand a small package. The next day he ran to meet me and said "Wonderful this Salvation Oil, ain't it?"

—Thanksgiving comes tomorrow, and we hope all our good, paid-up subscribers have a nice fat turkey ready for the oven, with cranberry sauce and celery and pumpkin pie and all the other good things that go far toward making one thankful. The other fellows can do as we have had to do,—lay in a hunk of beef, and what's left over from dinner, chop it into hash for supper.

—Mr. Robinson did not get eating his Thanksgiving turkey in his new house, but will not have long to wait now, as the carpenter hopes to turn it over to him by the latter part of next week. It is among the finest and most convenient residences in town—some think it takes the lead—and the crew of carpenters have done a good job throughout, while Jas. Carson, who has bossed the work, has done himself proud as a skillful mechanic, demonstrating fully that there is no need of going out of town for anything in this line, be it ever so extensive or fancy.

—The damage occasioned by the Americanite and glycerine explosion near Titusville early Saturday morning is estimated by Mr. Bartlett at $700. According to the World an Oil City gentleman who was at the Grand Valley Hotel on Friday night said that the explosion shook the hotel building, and that all the inmates were awakened. The proprietor went down stairs under the supposition that there had been an explosion of gas in his kitchen. Grand Valley is fully ten miles distant.—Blizard. Tionesta is fifteen miles from the scene of the explosion, and the shock was very plainly felt by many of our citizens.

—Last Saturday morning about 3:00 o'clock a number of our citizens experienced what was supposed to be an earthquake. The doors and windows rattled as though struck by a sudden gust of wind, while buildings seemed to sway quite perceptibly. Of course these sensations were noticed only by those who were not too soundly asleep. The cause, it has since been ascertained, was the explosion of a magazine located between Titusville and Shambug, in which was stored about 400 pounds of Americanite, the new explosive which is fast taking the place of nitro glycerine. No one was injured, and the explosion is believed to have been caused by the building catching fire.

—Mr. S. J. Wolcott who is doing a good deal of operating in the vicinity of Little Hickory, informs us that he has just completed a well about three-fourths of a mile up that stream, which he estimates will produce from 3 to 5 barrels. He has located another well a little farther south, but before drilling it, will sink another well on the Powell farm. I. N. Patterson expected to start the drill in his well on the Pareus Copeland farm this week. The Hardison well, opposite Tionesta, is very near the spot where they expect to find the sand, in the neighborhood of 1400 feet, and will likely come in to-day some time. The Randall & Kelly well on the Osten farm, Harmony township, went through the regular sand yesterday, but failed to respond with the crude. We believe it is the intention to drill it deeper.

East Hickory.

An Early Morning Blaze.

About one o'clock on Friday morning last the citizens of our borough were aroused from their slumbers by an alarm of fire, and were not long in locating the conflagration, which proved to be the building recently purchased of Capt. Knox by Mrs. W. T. Clark, situated just north of District Attorney Clark's dwelling, on Elm St. Mrs. Clark had shortly before opened a millinery store there, and at the time of the fire was living in the building, her sister, Miss Reily, being her only companion, her husband having been called away on business the day before. The ladies were awakened by the smoke which had become almost stifling in their room, and the fire had gained such headway that it was with difficulty they made their escape. When the people arrived it was found impossible to save the building, the whole inside being enveloped in flame, and they applied their energies toward the saving of the District Attorney's house, and did so only by the most persistent effort, but not until the side next the fire had been pretty badly scorched and blackened.

The burned building was of no great value and its loss is a comparative light one, the heaviest loss being the goods and household effects of the occupants, which is estimated to be between $200 and $300, with no insurance. The origin of the fire is not exactly known, but is supposed to have been caused by a lamp, which either exploded, or had been left burning when it came in contact with the wood-work.

The fire extinguisher was promptly on hand, and again got in its work in fine style, it being the means of saving Mr. Clark's residence. What we need is another machine just like it and then our town will be pretty well prepared to fight fire. The loss of time in re-charging the machine, although perhaps not three minutes, is still sufficient to give the fire a fresh start, and with two machines a steady stream could be thrown, thereby preventing the blaze under control and keeping its spread to adjacent buildings. The one we now have is paid for itself five times over, in fact did so at the first fire we had after its purchase. The taxpayers of the borough could not lay out their money in a more beneficial way at this time, as there is no telling where the next blaze will issue from, and no reasonable man will object to the outlay.

Government Officers Make a Haul in Forest County.
Last Sabbath morning Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, Charles R. Galbraith of Franklin; Principal Deputy A. B. Mason, of the U. S. Commissioner of Revenue Office, and S. F. Hooton, Special Agent of same office, arrived in town, having been up in Janks township, ostensibly on a deer hunting expedition, but really on the hunt of a suspected moonshiner distillery. Arriving at Byrontown on Friday last, they stopped all night at the hotel of Charles Murphy, and where they got several valuable pointers on where the best hunting was, as well as some other pointers more in line with the nature and purpose of their visit. After getting what evidence was that was lying around loose they informed Mr. Murphy, next morning, of the real nature of their errand, and at the same time placed him under arrest for selling liquor without a revenue license. They likewise placed his son, Jerry, under arrest, and started for home on the noon train. Arriving at Marienville, Charles was sent on to Franklin in charge of Officer Henratty, while the balance of the party, with Jerry, came overland for the purpose of securing an illicit still, which was supposed to be located in the woods somewhere on the headwaters of Bear Creek, and to which their prisoner was to pilot them. This he did, and the whole "kittle of fish" was found, confiscated and brought to this place, and was shipped to Collector Warneate at Pittsburgh, where it will be used as evidence against the accused.

The Derrick this morning says in relation to the case: "At Franklin yesterday, United States Commissioner Chadwick held Jerry Murphy in $500 bail for his appearance in the United States District Court at Erie, to answer to the charge of operating an illicit still in Forest county. Deputy Collector Galbraith testified that when arrested Murphy conducted his captors to the still. There was not even a smell of liquor about it, and Murphy said he never operated it. Deputy Marshal Henratty testified that Murphy told him he had bought the still last Spring. Young Murphy's father will have a hearing to-day for selling liquor without a United States license."

—A single trial of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will convince any one troubled with constipation, torpid liver or any kindred diseases, of their curative properties. They only cost 25 cents per bottle. For sale by D. Barnett.

West Hickory.

Yet mud is hub deep, the lumbermen of this place are doing a large business. It seems the bull-wheel shaft has the most money in it, as some two car loads are shipped daily. George Stiger, who has been home for some time, has returned. The West Hickory Lyceum met on Thursday evening, and after two hours' debate on "Which is the most useful to man, the cow or the horse," the Judges decided in favor of the cow. Miss Lizzie Holmes, of Greenville, who has been visiting her brother 'Gene for the last four months, returned on Saturday. Mr. Frank Burrows, one of Hickory's young men, has rented and furnished the Whitcomb house and has gone for his bride. The Latin class postpones for rain, but the painting class goes, rain or shine. The currying shop started again on Monday. Nov. 25. Jir.

East Hickory.
Mr. Frank Sutley of Bradford, was the guest of his mother Mrs. H. Sutley, of this place. Mrs. D. Stover who has been sick is convalescent. Burt and Smith Sutley have returned from Washington Co. No mud in Hickory, Oh, no! Mrs. Nellie Robinson who has been visiting at Enterprise for the past two months, has returned home. Prof. Wheeler's singing class is progressing finely. Sunday was such a disagreeable day that not many of our people attended church. Prof. Boyle of Irvineton, was the guest of Mr. Stoughton last week. Mrs. Baldwin of West Hickory, has moved into the Bloomfield house. Hickory will soon have a new barber shop. T. J. Bowman, who was kicked by a horse, is able to be around once more. Shooting matches are all the rage now.

Miss Harrison of Nebraska, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Lusher. Preaching next Sunday evening at the F. M. Church. Miss Lizzie Holmes of Meadville, was the guest of her brother 'Eugene Holmes of this place. Charley Stuart was called to his home in Mercer county to attend his father's funeral. Why can not we have a side walk? Nov. 25. DENNIS.

Hepler Corners.
Matthew Deitz of Strobleton, had the misfortune of getting his barn and all its contents burned one day last week; it is believed that some miscreant kindled the flames. Solomon Sigworth of Lickingville, is confined to his bed with heart disease. We wish him a speedy convalescence. Mr. J. Dechant of Strobleton, who was stopping at his home for a few days, has returned to Kellettsville again. Protracted meetings are still in progress, conducted by Rev. Carl Zinsmeister, of Fryburg. J. E. Stitinger of this proximity, was the guest of Mr. Wm. Lilly not long since. Nov. 25. ABEYS.

Novel and Useful.
Retail grocers, and other retail dealers doing a credit business are adopting a plan that is at once novel and decidedly useful. They issue to their customers, Coupon Books, (patented), similar to Mileage Books for Railways, but instead of the coupons being one mile, they are for one cent each; the value of the books varying from two to twenty dollars. These coupons are good for their face value in groceries or other merchandise at the store of the firm issuing them. When the books are issued, the dealer charges his customer with the value of the book. When pay-day comes the customer pays this amount, and meantime uses the coupons for the purchase of supplies, same as paying cash, thus avoiding all disputed accounts and saving valuable time to both the dealer and his customer. Every retail dealer doing a credit business should adopt this plan, and should write the publishers for information, and if every customer would insist upon his dealer using them, there would be much less occasion for the disputing of accounts. Manufactured by The Historical Publishing Co., of Dayton, Ohio, to whom all inquiries for specimens and particulars should be sent.

NEWSY NOTES.
Seven oil drillers from the vicinity of Eldenburg, Clarion county, are to go to India for an English corporation to bore for oil or whatever they can strike. There are springs in India that have produced oil for thousands of years. Take a look at the cake! That's the new idea at some weddings. It is devoured by the eyes only in its whole state. It has been suggested that the cake is hired for the occasion, and some people have said that the white frosting hides stuffed cotton. Joe Howard, the New York Press philosophical paragrapher, deliberately declares: "All history shows that, as nations grow in power they grow in wealth, and as they grow in wealth they lapse into habits of luxury, effeminacy, disre-
