NEWSY NOTES.

By the falling in of the wall of a burning building at Indianapolis, Ind., Monday, upward of twenty firemen were buried and horribly burned to death. Many others were more or less seriously injured.

Chas. Benninghoff, one of the oldest members of the Benninghoff family, who removed to Mercer county over twenty ears ago, after having made a fortune out of their farm in Cherrytree township, died on Sunday last at his home in Pymatuning township, aged 64 years. The remains were deposited in the family lot in the cemetery at Greenville,-Franklin News.

James M. Fleming bought a ticket over the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad. It did not allow stop-over privileges. He stopped off, and on attempting to continue his journey was put off the train. He sued 3159 and got a verdict of $1,000. Defendant Evlin Copeland has been sick for some time; he had the grip, and like the rest thinks it grips hard and long.

Wood & Brunston have a new pumper on the Joslyn.

Jim. McIntyre has bought himself a very nice team of horses. Jim. likes good ones.

S. W. and F. S. Stowart have a like for some time; he had the grip, and like the rest that the damages were excessive. Judge Ewing of Pittsburgh, before whom the motion was made, conceded that the award was excessive, and suggested an agreement between the parties to accept a verdict of $500. At the same time he filed an opinion, which is to the effect that the purchaser of a railroad ticket, even without stop-over privileges stipulated, has the right to travel over the distance his ticket calls for in stages as well as in one con-tinuous journey. The decision is of inter-est to travelers,—Franklin News.
