the Normal. -Yesterday was moving day; also all fool's day. There wasn't much moving going on in town, but we suppose the usual number of fools were on tap.

-There is nothing wrong with April weather so far, and we could very well stand a daily installment of the same kind for the next two months without a grumble.

-Au item in our last Issue stated that Gov. Beaver had designated the 11th and 25th of April as Arbor Days. It should have read Friday, April 11th, and Friday, May 2d.

-Mr. J. G. Carson has moved to Nebraska, where he will manipulate the lath mill of Collins, Darrah & Co., the coming season. Mrs. Carr has rented and moved into Mr. Carson's house.

-Mr. Robinson is having the rear part of his old house moved to the lot recently occupied by the Scowden & Clark carriage form part of a dwelling house.

-What lovely spring weather, and what lovely goods to fit the weather are now to be seen at H. J. Hopkins & Co.'s. Go and feast your eyes, and buy what you want. The prices are so low that all pocket-books can stand it.

-Many of the seeds may be put into the garden soil quite early, and before the freezes are over-such as peas, lettuce, beets, spinach, cabbage, radish, onions and polatoes. If they get thinned by the frost more can be put in, says the granger editor of the Meadville Gazette.

-If there is a single article of spring goods that cannot now be found at H. J. Hopkins & Co,'s why they'll send Linus right back to New York for it, notwithstanding he has just returned from there, and is all tired out.

-The supervisor of the tenth census district, James B. Mates of this place, has not yet made any appointments. The work of sub-dividing the district is now going on and upon the completion of this work the enumerators for each sub-district will be appointed.—Butler Herald.

-"If the heart of a man is depressed with cares, the mist is dispelled, when a woman appears," The author of these lines had been suffering for some time with an attack of acute rheumatism, and the woman who entered such a timely appearance, brought a bottle of Salvation Oil.

-The great crush at H. J. Hopkins & Co,'s has come, and the boys are about done for. Every available inch taken up with something fine and fancy from the fashionable East. Don't miss the grand layout. Get there quick and get best

-The Auditors of Howe township publish their report this week, which the large list of taxpayers will undoubtedly appreciate, as it shows what has been done with the money collected during the past year. The report is gotten up in nice shape and gives the township a very credstable showing.

-Attention is directed to the new adv. of J. M. Mirtz of the Cut Price Store, in this issue. Having just returned from the East he feels that the fine stock of goods he selected while there will stand some talking about and will bear the scrutiny of buyers, to whom he extends a hearty invitation to call.

A sharper with a new scheme is traveling through some of the neighboring 2878 counties and may also strike this section. He has an improved plowshare which he 5850 1 loans to some influential farmer with the Run last week and called. Sorry we were provision that if it proves satisfactory he 2850 10 not at home. Call again; we are always will recommend it to his neighbors and if at the end of the season he does not wish 2016 19 1 of 100 to keep it, he is to ship it to any address given him. If the unsuspecting farmer agrees to do this, the sharper draws up an article of agreement. This article is written with a peculiarly constructed fountain pen, there being two compartments in the place, and returned home Friday of last holder, which contains two kinds of ink, week. Mr. Brown has given his son a one of which will fade, while the other 2905 43 will remain. With the former he writes the article, and changing the pen he hands it to the farmer, who signs his name with 3186 the latter kind. The result is that the words of the article soon fade and the sharper has a piece of white paper with the farmer's name thereon, and can make 5103 it into a note of any denomination at his leisure, Beware!
