Messrs. Proper & Doult, at their drug store, have "steamed up" the milk shake for the season, and the business opens up well notwithstanding the high price of ice.

At the recent meeting in DuBois of the Presbytery of Clarion, of which the church here is a part, the question of Revision was voted on and rejected by a vote of 18 to 13.

Samuel Conard died at his home at Beaver Valley, Hickory township, this county, April 30th, 1890, aged 76 years, 5 months, and 14 days. The deceased was born in Berks county, Pa.

David Mintz, finding his mercantile business at Marienville increasing so rapidly that he is obliged to give it his undivided attention, has taken his family there and settled down for good.

One of the finest trout thus far reported, was caught in Tionesta creek, a few rods above the mouth of Ross Run, on Saturday last, by the eight-year-old son of Chris. Zuendel. It measured 13 inches in length and 3 1/2 inches in width.

During the past week Andrew McCoy, of Faguodus, was granted an increase of pension. Among the reissues the name of Wm. Albaugh of East Hickory, appears. Uncle Sam is doing well by the old boys these days, and we're all glad of it, too.

J. M. Mintz has just opened up a new line of cigars, tobacco, confectionery, crockery, tinware, &c., and invites the public to call and examine the same. All marked down to the lowest notch, and guaranteed to be strictly first class in all particulars.

A number of our young people are now at Clarion attending the State Normal School, and others are planning to enter next term. The boys and girls can do no better thing than to acquire an education, and the school at Clarion is one of the best in the state.

Yesterday was a great day for the Kerr boys. While George was receiving a unanimous re-election for School Superintendent of this county at an advanced salary, his brother Willis was receiving the endorsement of the Republican convention at Clarion for County Commissioner, which is equivalent to election, as the Republicans nominate only one candidate in that county.

School Directors' Convention—Supt. Kerr Unanimously Re-elected.

The School Directors of Forest County met at the Court House yesterday afternoon, in pursuance of the proclamation of Supt. Kerr, for the purpose of electing a Superintendent of Schools for the ensuing term. The convention organized promptly at 2 o'clock p. m. by the election of D. W. Clark as President, and M. E. The Boro Council at its regular meeting last Monday evening, passed a resolution requiring all property-holders to clear away immediately all rubbish from the front of their respective properties and to keep the same cleaned hereafter under penalty of having the work done for them at their individual expense.

The project to organize and conduct a good base ball nine here this summer has assumed tangible form in the shape of a subscription paper that was passed around one day last week and received many signatures. The boys have already enough pledged to insure them a good ground and give them a good start toward success.

A new line of the freshest and best groceries to be had in the market just received at Lawrence & Smearbaugh's. New sugar, Oolong tea, dried peaches, canned goods, extracts, &c. We are right at the front in these goods and don't propose to be behind as regards excellence in quality or cheapness in price. Mind that. 2t.

Mr. Kerr, of the firm of Vandresser & Kerr, dealers in granite and marble monuments and headstones, Oil City, was up last week and set a new stone over the grave of the late Mrs. Lewis Arner, which is very much admired by all who have examined it, the workmanship being strictly first class, and the design a handsome one. This firm expects to do considerable work in this community, and will always be pleased to show specimens of their work, and give estimates on prices to any who contemplate purchasing. They ask you to consult them before purchasing elsewhere.

The Lawrence House, under Landlord Shawkey's supervision, has for the past two weeks been in the hands of the carpenter, the painter and the paper-hanger, and has received one of the most thorough overhauls since its erection. It is now in apple-pie order, good as new, and once more open to the public. Mr. Shawkey will conduct a strictly first class house, and will see that his guests receive every comfort that could be wished, sparing neither pains nor expense to accomplish that end. All he asks in exchange for his trouble is a fair share of the public patronage.

Editor Patrick of the Clarion Rep-Gazette, and who is Clarion's postmaster, gives this gratuitous information: All stamped envelopes which are spoiled by mistakes committed in superscribing, will be redeemed by the postoffice department at their stamp value. Postage stamps damaged by sticking together in warm or damp weather, or for other causes before using, may be returned to the department, and their value repaid to the purchaser or exchanged for new stamps. All redeemed envelopes and stamps are sent by postmasters who redeem them to the department and records of the same are kept. These regulations are, we think, not generally known at large, and their publication may be beneficial to a large number of people.

Resolutions.

At the regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Marienville, held April 30th, 1890, the following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, It has pleased our Father in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst, our sister Mrs. J. M. Edwards, therefore,

Resolved, That, by her death our Union has lost an earnest worker, and her family bereft of her companionship, her care and her wise counsel.

Resolved, That we tender to them our heartfelt and sincere sympathy in the trying ordeal through which they are passing; and trust that they may be upheld and strengthened by Him who controls all things, knowing that "all things work together for good to those who love the Lord," and that with her "It is well."

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy sent to the family, and that they be published in our county papers.

NEWSY NOTES.

An instrument has been invented for registering the "pulse beat." An exchange thinks that what is wanted more is one that will register the "dead beat" without littering up the books of the merchant and newspaper publisher.

Weather prophets are again at work. Some of them predict a coming cold summer, and say that as the mild winter of 1816 and 1817, and again in 1888 and 1889, were followed by cold summers, therefore the mild winter of 1889 and 1890 will be followed by an abnormally cold summer.

Of beef blood, door-knobs are made; of wood pulp, doors; of paper, blinds; sawdust is used in preparing plaster; slag from the blast furnace helps to make houses fire-proof; chips of granite from the stone cutter's yard are molded into ornaments at one-tenth the cost of cut stone. These are some modern uses of waste materials.

Died, at Vowinkle, Clarion county, Pa., April 25, 1890, Mrs. Kaufman, wife of Frank Kaufman, a leading business man of the place. Deceased was a long sufferer from cancer, finally terminating in consumption. She leaves three bright children to mourn the loss of a good mother. Her remains were taken to Altoona for interment.—Clarion Jacksonian.

A prominent medical man says, "The cigarette has proved itself as fatal as 'Rough on Rats' in many instances. It seems to be especially dangerous to immature boys. Smoking cigars seems to have few or no harmful effects on mature persons, but case after case of cigarette poisoning is reported. Perhaps moderate use would not prove so harmful, but one of the evils of the cigarette habit seems to be an uncontrollable tendency to run into excesses." Look out, boys.

The Board of Pardons has granted a pardon in the case of Charles Larabee, who was convicted of murder in this county several years ago and his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life. It will be remembered that Larabee shot a colored man named Williams while they were out hunting in the woods near Oil City, Larabee claiming that the darkey wanted to commit suicide and implored him to shoot him, and that they were both under the influence of liquor. His good behavior since went far towards granting the pardon with the Board.—Franklin News.

At the hatchery of the State Fish Commission at Erie they recently received 20,000 yellow pike eggs, which are hatched by this time. They are to be deposited in the lake and in the streams and smaller lakes of this part of Pennsylvania. This will give farmers and others living along the streams an increased interest in fish culture. If the water courses are kept pure, they will be able to have every stream in the State stocked inside of five years. The yellow pike is one of the best food fish in fresh water, is very hardy and grows to a large size. In the lake it is one of the choicest of fish, and in the streams it becomes as game as trout.

1893. The Turf, Field and Farm was established in 1865, and the directing spirit is the same. Twenty-five years of work and twenty-five years of success! No other journal of its class in this country has such a record. It was at the birth of the National Trotting Association, and it gave shape to the movement which culminated in the foundation of Jockey Clubs in all the principal cities of the United States. It was the first journal to make a business of collecting and verifying pedigrees, and it originated the 230 classification. It has seen Kentucky and California become nests of breeding farms, and it has labored with success to build up breeding enterprises in other grazing States. The kernel interest was a very small one when the Turf, Field and Farm was established. Through the inauguration of bench shows, field trials and gun trials by us, and by the dissemination of knowledge in all these departments the kernel interest was developed to its present vast proportions. Veterinary schools have made great strides since 1865, and the Turf, Field and Farm has labored continually for the promotion of such educational enterprises. We have always opposed quackery of every kind. In breeding, in trotting, in racing, in field sports, in kennel affairs, in education and athletics and aquatic, we have fought shams and industriously sifted chaff from the wheat. No humbug statements find their way into our columns, and no cheap sensational stuff obtains a market with us. The paper is the leader of its class in America, and its carefully measured words arrest national attention week after week. The paper is active in the collection of authentic news, is vigorous in the expression of intelligent thought, and its opinions are not on sale. Now is the time to subscribe. The best is always the cheapest, and the universal verdict of thoughtful people is that the Turf, Field and Farm is the best. Subscription, $5.00 per year. Remit by express money order, P. O. money order or draft on New York. Turf, Field and Farm Association, 251 Broadway, New York.

Signs for Candidates.

If you notice a diamond shaped figure on your gate post or on the walk in front of your residence, it signifies to the first tramp that comes along that some one of his numerous brethren was provided with a "regular dog feed" the last time he called. If the mark resembles two slopes of the letter A, it simply says that you can be depended upon for a small bite. But when the mark is a simple triangle, in the tramp's language you are "no good" and he will not be in a hurry to make a second appeal to your generosity.—Ez.

The foregoing suggests the thought that if the phalax of candidates in the field for nomination had held a convention when the campaign was young and agreed upon a system of signs for mutual convenience and benefit, they might have aggregated a large saving of time, patience and expense. Such a system could easily be expressed either with a jack knife or pencil—or its signs could be printed and circulated in the form of stickers. Let us conceive a few symbols which might have been artistically and at the same time mysteriously posted in the vicinity of various voters:

(*) Don't fool away your time with this man. Have learned that he hasn't attended a primary for twenty years.

() Good place here to stop for dinner. O. K. grub and positively no charge. Very fond of their kid. Give it a nickel.

(!!!) Keep off the grass. Man on the road and away from home most of the time. Wife and large dog keep house.

(???) Mum's the word here in reference to candidate No. 46. Relative.

(???) Likes his oil. (& & &) Needn't go out to see old codger in back field. Democrat.

(---) Make this fellow hot and get him to work against you. Everybody down on him and will turn in and lick anyone he supports.

(++++) Don't go up road to the right. House vacant. Have to let down fence to turn around.

($$$$) This chap would swindle his mother. Makes a business of bleeding candidates, promises to get out the vote for each of them and rarely supports any.

Ten minutes' conversation on the subject with any of the candidates will show that symbolic pointers after the style of the above might be multiplied indefinitely. But the campaign is so far along now it is hardly likely such a system will be adopted before the primaries.—Oil City Blizzard.
