Turn Out to the Primaries.

The Republican Primaries, which take place next Saturday afternoon, promise to be well attended, as they should be. Yet we hope no Republican will absent himself thinking that his vote will not be needed. Every voter should be out and exercise his prerogative of assisting to make the ticket that is to win this fall. Some of the candidates have no opposition for the positions to which they aspire, and to these we hope the compliment of a large vote will be extended at all the voting precincts. Samuel D. Irwin Esq., who has the field to himself for President Judge, is the oldest member of the Forest County Bar, both in point of age and practice, and well deserves the hearty support of his people at the primaries next Saturday, thereby attesting their confidence in him as a lawyer and citizen. Whatever votes he may fail to get, will, we believe, be through carelessness, and we hope no one will forget to give him a vote when he makes up his ticket. Calvin M. Arner, candidate for Prothonotary, is another who has a walk-over for the nomination, conceded to him, evidently as a matter of right and justice for the faithfulness with which he has attended to his duties while filling the office during the past three years. Cal. should, and we believe will, get all the votes cast. He has made a trustworthy, faithful official, and the boys will remember him. Harry R. Wilson Esq., who has already received the unanimous indorsement of his own, Clarion, county for State Senator, asks the instructions of his Forest county Republican friends, not that he wishes to antagonize any one of our own citizens who might have asked it, but in consideration of the fact that Forest did not have a candidate of her own. Mr. Wilson is one of the brilliant young men of his section, and a lawyer of marked ability. He is popular with his own people, and if he should receive the nomination in the district will stand an excellent chance of overcoming the Democratic majority with which we will have to contend.

REPORTS from various parts of the State indicate that the farmers are taking considerable interest in behalf of Secretary Stone as a candidate for Governor. This is not to be wondered at when it is remembered that Mr. Stone was born and brought up on a farm and is largely interested in that pursuit. His farm near Warren, Pa., is described, as in many respects, a model, and the Secretary is very fond of it, spending his vacation and leisure time on it, and taking great interest in its operations. Naturally the farmers feel that he understands and sympathizes with their interests and feelings.—Harrisburg Telegraph.
