Decoration Day.

Another Memorial Day has been inscribed on the pages of the past. At 8:30 a. m. the people of East and West Hickories were in line, en route to the beautiful cemetery at East Hickory.

The Sunday Schools of both places were largely represented in the line, with their banners, and perfect loads of flowers for the occasion.

The Post Band was on hands and in the best of spirits. Post Commander D. S. Knox, of your town, was Marshal of the Day, and he has the thanks of all for the work he did on the occasion.

On arriving at the cemetery the services were opened by prayer by our young Pastor, J. M. Weaver. The prayer was a sympathetic and eloquent one, and elicited comments of approval from the G. A. R.

After decorating the comrades' graves, the people set to work and decorated every grave in the cemetery, after which the assembly was sounded, and all congregated together for further business.

The orator of the day, Rev. C. R. Thompson, was now introduced and came to the front, and for fifteen or twenty minutes greeted the old boys and all present with words of cheer and comfort.

Time would not permit the speaker to occupy but a limited period, but he assured that those few moments were crowded full with patriotic eloquence. During the hour the business of the place was suspended, or nearly so, and our worthy merchants handed out their best cigars to the boys freely.

Every grave in the cemetery was beautifully covered with flowers. The people now fully understand and appreciate the services of Memorial Day as being set apart for all.

We now took up the line of march up the mountain side, en route to Church Hill. The band boys were under the care of J. C. Church during the day, as Comrade Copeland, on account of his continued and severe illness, was unable to take the boys.

On arriving at Church Hill we found the patriotic people in waiting for us. Owing to shortness of time our work was abbreviated. Rev. J. M. Weaver gave a fine talk which was highly appreciated by all who heard him.

At this juncture we were apprised of the fact that the friends of Church Hill had made provision for our body strengthening, a good dinner being in readiness for us at the school house.

To only say we did justice in this particular would be putting the truth in a mild form. The patriots of Church Hill covered themselves with laurels, and deserve no little praise for the great interest they took in the comfort of the boys in blue.

May they all live long to enjoy the thanks of the boys for their kind welcome and hospitality to the G. A. R. and its interests. We now "took through the woods," over almost impassable roads, to German Hill, where we arrived a little late, owing to the condition of the traveling.

ZUENDEL. The program was completed here with oration by Rev. Henry Rhodes; after which Bartholomew Cemetery was visited, where speeches and addresses were made by Comrade Irwin and others, closing with oration by Rev. C. R. Thompson and benediction by Rev. Rhodes.

TIONESTA.

Here the Post was met at the Hall by the Silver Cornet Band and a delegation of Washington Camp, 420, P. O. S. of A., in full regalia, and immediately took up the line of march to the cemetery, headed by the band. At the Presbyterian Church they were joined by the M. E. and Presbyterian Sabbath Schools, in charge of their respective Superintendents, J. H. Dingman and A. B. Kelly. The march to the cemetery was made more impressive by the sweet strains of music discoursed by the band whose services were donated on this occasion.

At the cemetery the beautiful ceremony of the G. A. R. was carried out to the letter. After decorating the graves of fallen heroes—and here we are sadly reminded that they are steadily growing in numbers—the orator of the day, Rev. Thompson, was called out, and in a short address held the close attention of the large assemblage to the very last word of his most fitly spoken remarks.

Eloquently he spoke of the condition of the country at the breaking out of the late war—the call for troops—the home-leaving—the battle field—thoughts of home and loved ones. The battle of Gettysburg, where God helped the Union army—the surrender of Lee—the assassination of President Lincoln, and of very many other scenes and incidents that drew tears to the eyes of many. He closed by speaking of the Great Muster Roll that is being made up which will contain all our names from Adam to the last heir. Of Jesus Christ, the Great Captain—the Army—the conflict—the Victory. Of the Grand Commander's call for troops to join the Grand Army on the other shore.

After a solemn dirge by the band, Rev. Weaver, the talented young pastor of the Evangelical Church at Hickory, was called out and for fifteen minutes the people were regaled with an address which called forth many very flattering compliments by those who heard it.

After another selection by the band the audience was dismissed with the benediction by Chaplain Rhodes, but not until the Post had returned its heartfelt thanks to all who in any way had assisted in making the day's exercises a success, and especially to Misses Minnie and Nettie Hunter for the gift of some sixty odd beautiful bouquets of flowers for the occasion.

NEWSY NOTES.

A contracting driller of Emlenton was home recently to engage six experienced drillers and two rig builders to go to India to bore for oil. The oldest oil fountains in the world, those of Burmah, are located in India, having been operated continuously from a period that antedates the Christian era.—Franklin News.

LEGAL NOTICE.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF FOREST COUNTY, No. 1, MAY TERM, A. D. 1890, SITTING IN EQUITY.

BETWEEN ELLA S. JOY, Plaintiff, AND ISRAEL S. SPENCER et al, Defendants.

Bill in equity filed by said Ella S. Joy, a tenant in common for the partition of a certain tract or piece of land situated in the Township of Harmony, County of Forest, State of Pennsylvania, containing 250 acres more or less, and being all the land mentioned and described in deed from J. B. Agnew, Sheriff, to Allen Monroe, recorded in Sheriff's deed book No. 1, at page 25, in the Prothonotary's office of said county, between plaintiff and defendants, or such of them as are interested therein, so that each shall enjoy his or her share in severalty; and if the same cannot be divided without prejudice to, or spoiling the whole, that the same be sold and the proceeds distributed among the several persons entitled thereto.

ORDER OF COURT.

And now, May 19th, 1890, it appearing to the satisfaction of this Court, from the affidavit and return to order of service of April 14th, 1890, filed, that the defendants, Israel S. Spencer, Frank Hiseock, William P. Gere, John G. K. Trauir, Frederick Morrell, Charles Tucker, E. L. Talmadge, Orrin Bullard, Frederick T. Hage, James Fuller, W. D. Wells, W. E. Wells and Iram C. Russ, cannot, upon diligent inquiry, be found so as to be personally served with the bill and said order; it is therefore ordered and decreed that the said defendants in this order named are hereby notified and required to cause an appearance to be entered for them respectively in the Court of common Pleas of Forest County, to the Bill of complaint of the said Ella S. Joy, and to answer what the said Court shall direct. Such appearance to be entered on or before the twenty-first day of June, 1890; and on failure to comply with this order, defendants in default will be liable to have the bill taken pro confesso, and a decree made against them in their absence.

PER CUIUSAM: Forest County, ss: I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true extract from the record. Witness my hand and the seal of said Court this 19th day of May, 1890.

CALVIN M. ARNER, Prothonotary.

Sager's Anodyne Liniment is one of the very best internal and external remedies ever used for cramps, inflammation, rheumatism, more richly bruises, sprains, dysentery, indigestion, etc. It is kept for sale at Tionesta, Hickory, Whig Hill, Marietta and Newmansville, and written for on application to the publishers. Agents are wanted. apr30-3m.

PIANOS-ORGANS

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made; making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tune.

Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel their rivals in the chief characteristics of any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than these cannot be good. Illustrated catalogues of new styles, introduced this season, sent free.

During a thunder storm a large oak tree in the Masonic graveyard of Salem, Va., was struck by lightning and rent from top to bottom.

While looking at the ruin the next morning Matthew Turner, who had charge of the cemetery, spied an object which had fallen from the cypress trunk.

Picking it up and cutting away the mass of moss, fungus and earth with which it was covered over, he found that it was a large, old fashioned teapot of solid silver.

Opening it, he discovered that it contained the skull of an infant a few days old, and further investigation showed the teapot to bear an inscription: "From D. T. to R. L., 1823."

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY.

Our combination with the Philadelphia Weekly Press affords an opportunity for obtaining an immense amount of reading at a very trifling cost. By this arrangement we are enabled to furnish both the REPUBLICAN and the Weekly Press at the very low price of $1.75. Any person sending us this amount will receive the two papers for one year, an advance of only 25 cents over the price of the REPUBLICAN alone. Old subscribers who pay up all arrearages and $1.75 in advance can have the advantage of this splendid offer.

The Weekly Press is the very best weekly paper in the country, containing 10 pages weekly of the choicest General News, Household and Agricultural reading, Strong Editorials, Young People's Department, a good Continued Story, in short everything that goes to make the most desirable family reading matter.

With these two papers in your family you will be sure of the best service in each department. The REPUBLICAN is the oldest and best of the county papers, supplies you weekly with all the news of interest, such as no city weekly can possibly give, and the Weekly Press provides you with all the world wide news and a mass of general reading such as no local paper can possibly furnish.
