The State Convention.

The Republican State Convention meets at Harrisburg next Wednesday, at 10 o'clock a. m., to nominate candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Secretary of Internal Affairs.

Ex-Senator WALLACE says the outlook is encouraging. Mr. Wallace is as cheerful as a ship-wrecked sailor.

It will take $3,075,000 to pay for the taking of the census, and some of the enumerators will feel as if they had earned that entire sum when they get through with their districts.

KEMMLER's last hope is gone. He must be electrocuted, for the United States District Court at Syracuse has dismissed the writ of habeas corpus.

A NATIONAL election law is opposed by the Southern newspapers because it will provide that every citizen shall cast his vote unmolested.

HON. WILLIAM L. SCOTT's voice is heard less frequently in piloting the Pattison boom just now than it was earlier in the season.

Of course Grover Cleveland will send a nice letter on tariff reform to the Pennsylvania Democratic State Convention, even if he doesn't attend personally.

This thing of "holding up" trains in the far west is getting a trifle monotonous. It seems to us that the railroad companies ought to provide against a recurrence of these affairs.

The latest mine horror is reported from Dunbar, Fayette county, Pa., on Monday of this week, where thirty-three miners are entombed, while the mine is on fire and gradually working its way to where the men are supposed to be.

WALLACE is smiling and confident while Pattison is confident and smiling, but Cousin Chauncey Black judiciously refuses to place either his smile or his confidence on exhibition.

GENIAL ROGER Q. MILLS, of Texas, has counted a quorum of himself and solemnly resolved that he will not accept the place on the House Committee on Rules made vacant by Mr. Carlisle's election to the Senate.

THE decision of a Common Pleas Judge in Armstrong County in this State that the original package decision of the Federal Supreme Court gave the right to sell imported beer in kegs, half barrels and barrels in Pennsylvania without a license has created some sensation in the Western part of the State.

"THE States," says the Record, "have the power to prescribe their own method of choosing Representatives, and they should not consent to its surrender or abatement."
