

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE. Governor, GEORGE W. DELAMATER, Crawford County. Lieutenant Governor, LOUIS A. WATHES, Lackawanna County. Secretary of Internal Affairs, THOMAS J. STEWART, Montgomery County.

JUDICIARY. President Judge, SAMUEL D. IRWIN, (Subject to decision of District Conference.) Associate Judge, C. W. CLARK, Tionesta Township.

COUNTY. State Senate, HARRY H. WILSON, Clarion. (Subject to decision of District Conference.) Assembly, S. S. TOWLER, Jenks.

Prothonotary, CALVIN M. ARNER, Tionesta Borough. Sheriff, JOHN R. OSGOOD, Kingsley.

County Commissioner, JAMES MCINTYRE, Harmony. C. F. LEDEBUR, Green.

County Auditor, T. B. COBB, Tionesta Borough. W. W. THOMAS, Tionesta Township. Jury Commissioner, J. N. HEATH, Kingsley.

EX-SENATOR WALLACE has sailed for Europe to help Pattison for Governor. The ex-Senator will be out of politics this summer.

CHAIRMAN KERR insists that Candidate Pattison must conciliate the corporations. It is strange that he doesn't leave that part of the work to Scott.

It is said that ex-Senator Emery will stump the State for Pattison. This means the loss of one vote for Delamater that he wouldn't have received anyhow.

Two swallows do not make a Summer. By analogy we may reach the conclusion that one Wharton Barker does not make a great Independent Republican Movement.

CONGRESSMAN KERR is a good man who, as Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, will bend all his energies to keeping the Republican majority below 100,000.

SENATOR SAWYER's bill to establish a postal telegraph comes a little late in the session, but it is well meant, and may serve as a basis for operations in the future. The postal telegraph is bound to come, but the easy-going policy of the Senate will prevent it from coming with any lightning-like rapidity.

CHAIRMAN ANDREWS is doing the correct thing in establishing a headquarters in Pittsburgh. When Russell Errett was chairman he did the same thing, and the beneficial results were apparent in the increased Republican vote and majority in that section. The result of Chairman Andrews wise move will be seen in November.

IV Superintendent Porter can get the census returns ready in time, and he says he can, it is believed that the present Congress will, before adjournment, pass a bill making the new Congressional apportionment under the eleventh census. Then the House to be voted for next November could be elected under it.

The talk of bolting the Republican gubernatorial ticket has grown so infinitesimally small and far between, in this section that an ear trumpet is necessary to catch the faintest sound thereof. If Chairman Kerr succeeds in keeping Delamater's majority below 75,000 his party will be unkind indeed if it don't tender him a big vote of thanks.

A no meeting was held in Chicago recently in the interest of the preservation of the sanctity of the Sabbath, at which a resolution was adopted requesting the Illinois Legislature, at the special session called to legislate for the World's Columbian Exposition, to provide for the closing of the great show on Sunday. The fact was pointed out that at the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia in 1876 and at the World's Fair in Paris in 1889, there were no exhibitions on Sunday, and that the good example there set should be followed at Chicago in 1893. There is little doubt that the public sentiment of the country would be overwhelmingly opposed to keeping the fair open on the Sabbath, and unless the Illinois Assembly is of peculiar composition it will respect that sentiment.

Non-Partisan View.

The New York Financier, reflecting the sentiment of business classes, is more than pleased with Mr. Blaine's reciprocity scheme. It regards Mr. Blaine's attitude in the matter as "strictly non-partisan," and a "bid for the support of both parties," and the question as one that "directly applies to the commercial interests of this country, and immediately concerns the welfare of everybody connected with iron manufactures as much if not more, than all else." The Financier goes to the core of the question when he says:

"The question of reciprocity in general is one thing, and the question of reciprocity with these particular South American countries is another; this distinction must be borne in mind, for upon it rests an enormous export trade; which if the reciprocity was with France, for instance, would amount to little in our favor, but with countries that do not produce what we have for sale, it is entirely another matter."

The Financier continues as follows: "The field for developing a South American market is of enormous magnitude; far beyond anything they now purchase; as we begin to sell them more freely, and get personally acquainted through agents sent there for the purpose, great opportunities in a thousand directions will be noticed that only await just such an advantage as Mr. Blaine is proposing to give us, in order that they may be utilized."

The scare about a deficit of revenues seems to be totally unfounded. Senator Allison says that the total expenditures will be $411,000,000, and the estimated revenues $470,000,000, leaving a surplus of $59,000,000, which is a tidy little sum for Uncle Sam to have laying around loose in his vaults ready for a rainy day. The deficit "scarcers" will have to try their hand again at figures.

Of course the meeting of the iron workers in Sheffield, England, to protest against the passage of the McKinley bill, ought to be followed by free trade meetings in the United States endorsing the protest of these English workmen. The English workmen and the American free trader have an interest in common. They are both anxious to have the work for America done on the British side of the Atlantic.

CHEEK! Brazen cheek; cheek of the most unadulterated and concentrated character! That is what the Democrats of Pennsylvania display when they say anything about ballot reform so long as they oppose ballot reform in other States. Ballot reform in Pennsylvania, forsooth! In what State of this Union, where the Democrats are in power, are the elections so free from fraud, force or trickery, as they are in this State controlled by Republicans?

The pegs upon which the Democrats hung their hopes of electing Pattison this fall have about fallen out. The thousands of kickers and bolters of whom so much was heard before and immediately after the nomination of Delamater have dwindled to a corporal's guard. Defections from the Republican ranks will be more than offset by the votes of Democrats who will take revenge for the defeat of the Democrat, Wallace, by refusing to support the Mugwump, Pattison.—Kittanning Free Press.

The present state campaign appears to have been early relieved of the personalities which at the outset seemed likely to be dropped into the canvass. A mud-slinging campaign could profit the Democratic party nothing, and the fact has already been realized. The Republican party has a clean and upright candidate, and personalities directed at him fall short of the mark and injure only his would-be assailants. This is a campaign in which party questions and party issues become particularly conspicuous. Upon them the contest of this year must be conducted.—West Chester Republican.

NOTWITHSTANDING his age and feeble condition, the death Gen. John C. Fremont, the "American Pathfinder," caused a shock to his great army of friends everywhere. He was a member of the celebrated Kit Carson Post, G. A. R., of Washington, D. C., which enjoys the proud distinction of having more distinguished names upon its roster than any other single post in the country. By special direction of the President the flags on all the public buildings were half-masted in honor of his memory. Already bills have been introduced in both House and Senate to give his widow a pension. His services to his country were many and important, and it is as little as Congress can do to provide the money to make his widow independent and comfortable during the rest of her life; she is poor, and this should be considered a debt of honor which the United States Government owes the estate of her deceased husband.
