Get Registered.

The last day upon which a citizen can be registered in order to entitle him to a vote this fall is September 3d, next. Republicans should not loze sight of this fact and see at once that their names are on the list. It is the first imperative duty in the campaign, and should not be neglected a day. Committeemen should see that this matter is promptly attended to.

The wise politician has not yet bewho shall be the nominee in '92. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel and discuss '92.

State are entertained almost daily just now at Chairman Kerr's headquarters. The visitor that is most retained there is a doubt as to whether - Venango Citizen. Delamater's majority will be 40,000 or 60,000.

purchase of bonds which is constantly ing the memory of Grant. going on. How does this tally with the democratic statement that the Treasury is bankrupt?

THE democrats are indulging in their usual amusement of winning elections before they take place, and they should be let alone and left to enjoy themselves and tone their appetites up sufficiently to stand the dish of crow which they will have to eat after the republicans carry this State

In important business matters you do not entrust your affairs to anybody else. You attend to them yourself. Make the matter of being registered a personal one and attend to it at once. Sept. 3d is the last day.

THAT a reciprocity amendment of some sort will be attached to the tariff' bill seems now certain. What its exact terms will be is not yet upparent; but it will prevent the opening of our markets, the finest in the world, to those countries that do not in return give us a market for some of our surplus products upon the same terms. The rapid growth of the popularity of reciprocity with all classes and conditions of people in every section of the country has been phenomenal, and Mr. Blaine would be more than human if he did not feel very proud of having started the ball to rolling placing in nomination for Governor, Charles Miller, of Franklin; Lieut. Governor, Charles E. Hyatt, of Chester; Secretary of Internal Affairs, Wm. T. Dunn, of Allegheny. Of Mr. Miller's likelihood to accept the Franklin News says:

Hon. Chas. Miller arrived home last evening from Chicago, where he has been on business all week. Mr. Miller is up to nis neck in business that has accumulated during the week, and has not yet had time to decide definitely as to his course in regard to the Prohibition nomination for Governor. As is his custom in all important matters, he will reach a decision without unnecessary delay. For the present, it covers the situation to say that he is inclined to accept the nomination.

KEEP it before the people that a Republican legislature increased the appropriation to public schools in the State from one to two million dollars per annum, thereby enabling school districts to reduce taxation, or to increase facilities for educational purposes. The great portion of the money thus appropriated was received from corporations in settlement of gun to lose any sleep worrying over taxes and the Republican party proposes to further lighten the burdens of local taxation by making appropriawin the Congressional election first; tions from the State funds to townafter that will be time enough to ships and boroughs for the purpose of building and maintaining public roads and to counties to aid in maintaining Visitors from various parts of the the indigent poor and insane. Are you in favor of this policy of taxing corporations and applying the proceeds to reduce taxation for local purposes? luctantly yet most frequently enter- If you are, vote the Republican ticket.

The Prince of Peace.

It is not often that we review such a book as "The Prince of Peace, or the Beantiful Life of Jesus"; by Mrs. Isabella M. Alden, whom the world knows and honors as "Pansy." As may be judged from its title, this book deals with a peerless theme. Search the world around and the ages through, and no nobler specimen of manhood can be found than that presented in the man Christ Jesus. This is by no means a partizan judgment, but historically considered, this is a point generally conceded. The title suggests the view made prominent in the book. It is the princely; presenting the royal side. In sketching his beautiful life, Mrs. Alden never loses sight of the loving, lowly, huafter the republicans carry this State by 75,000 and elect the majority of the next House of Representatives.

The Republican conference of the Forest-Warren Judicial District met at Warren last Friday and after they halloted the twelve hundred and fittieth time adjourned to meet at Tionesta on September 2. It is said that Higgins and Irwin will both be in the field in November, and that the Democratic candidate will knock the Noyes out of both of them at the general election.—Venange Spectator, Items like the foregoing are floating around quite profusely in Democratic papers of this section, and it would seem that "our friends, the enemy," are having considerable satisfaction out of the situation. We don't begrudge them their laugh now; they slways take theirs first. The Republicans of this district will elect their Judge and take their laugh after election, and those who think they won't will do well to come in out of the wet.

Republicans, see that your names are on the registry list. Look after their maliter right away.
