ANNOUNCEMENT.
The Republican Conference having adjourned sine die, without making a nomination for the office of President Judge of the 37th Judicial District, and having received the nomination of the Republican party at the primary election in this County, and believing that Forest County is entitled to that office as of right, I will remain in the field as a candidate, and hope to receive the hearty support of the Republicans of Forest County.
SAMUEL D. IRWIN.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 37TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT:
Having received a large majority of the votes cast for President Judge at the Republican Primaries held May 10th, 1890, I wish to say to the voters of this Judicial District that I am a candidate for the election, and desire your hearty co-operation in the Fall campaign. I shall use every honorable means to aid and serve you, and feel confident that we will achieve success. I am,
Yours very truly,
GEO. H. HOIGINS.

County Committee Meeting.

The members of the Republican County Committee of Forest county are hereby notified that a meeting of said committee will be held at the office of Sheriff Sawyer, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 16, court week, at 7:30, at which all are requested to be present, as matters of importance bearing on the pending campaign will be attended to.

J. C. SCOWDEN, Chairman.
Tionesta, Sept. 1, 1890.

Pay Your Taxes.

The time for legal registration having passed, the most important thing now to do in order to insure your vote this fall, is the payment of your State or County tax. If you neglect this vital duty you lose your vote. Republican Committeemen are particularly urged to see that each friend of the party in their respective districts have paid their taxes. October 4th is the last day. But don't put it off till the last day.

HAVE you heard the news from Maine? The State election took place there on Monday and resulted in the largest majority in an off year for the Republicans that has been given for many years. Speaker Tom Reed is re-elected by more than double his former large majority, and all the Republican Congressmen are re-elected. Gov. Burleigh is re-elected by nearly 20,000 majority. The State Senate is all Republican, and the House will stand 125 Republicans to 26 Democrats. Good for Maine!

JOHN L. BUTLER, of Harrisburg, Democratic orator and journalist, is out in an interview denouncing Robert E. Pattison in unmeasured terms for his coldness and duplicity in dealing with the Democracy of Pennsylvania. The statement of Mr. Butler is a fair index of the disaffection in Democratic ranks—disaffection of the genuine variety warranted not to fade or grow rusty until Mr. Pattison is permanently shelved in the political receiving vault prepared for those politicians who pretend one thing while actively engaged in performing quite the contrary behind the closed door. Mr. Butler's defection means much for he is a man of commanding influence as will be fully proven when the votes are counted in Dauphin and surrounding counties next November.

THE New York Graphic this sizes up the smart Aleck of the Times: "The esteemed Col. McClure of the Philadelphia Times, has opened the campaign in Pennsylvania with his usual assurance of Republican disaster unless something happens. Col. McClure predicts that to-day Senator Delamater is defeated, which is very cautious in Col. McClure, because no election is to be held to-day and he is not subject to immediate exposure. If the election were to-day we should have no such prediction from this extravagant political prophet. Senator Delamater will be elected in November, when the voting takes place, just as he would be elected to-day if the were election time. As the mellow autumn days chase each other down the slopes of time Col. McClure will find convenient opportunities to do his customary hedging."

SAMUEL D. IRWIN'S LETTER

Setting Forth his Claim to the Judicial Nomination.

Following is Mr. Irwin's letter, as published in the Warren Mirror of Sept. 4, 1890, setting forth his claim to the Judicial nomination in this district:

To the people of the Thirty-seventh Judicial District:
The Judicial Conference of this district, after numerous sessions and about 1200 ballots, has adjourned without being able to make a nomination.

This unfortunate result makes it proper to explain to the people of the district the part taken by the Forest county representatives in the conference, whose results have been so futile, and to submit to their candid consideration and disinterested judgment, some of the reasons that have determined our course.

I was presented by the vote of Forest county, unanimously expressed at her republican primaries, as her candidate for president judge of this judicial district. As the senior lawyer of the two candidates, as the senior member of the bar of Forest county, as twice her district attorney, and as a veteran of the war of the rebellion, I had at least some personal claims to a fair consideration of any candidacy before the district conference. Our conferees were ever disposed to fairly consider the just claims of the Warren candidate.

On the other hand, the position assumed by the Warren candidate from the start was that his nomination alone was the necessary outcome of the conference. It was given out to the public that, whether nominated or not, he would after a few ballots be a candidate before the people for the election, and at a later stage in the sessions of the conference one of his conferees in debate said in his presence without rebuke or disclaimer, that they did not care what the conference might do, whether nominated or not, he would be a candidate. Early in the campaign his friends sought to deprive me of my right to appoint my conferees; and to appoint conferees in his favor.

After assuming this attitude towards us, that made it difficult if not impossible for us to nominate him with any degree of self respect, we might be justified in refusing his nomination. But we choose to place our action above personal considerations. We have put our claim for the nomination upon the broad ground that Forest county is entitled to it. Her voters have been so steadfast in their allegiance to the party that twice has she been recognized as the banner county of the state. Warren county has been favored with a president judge for the past thirty years. Forest has never had the office. While Forest is the smaller county, that is not a valid reason why she should not be allowed the nomination. Warren has established the right of a smaller county to equal claims for recognition by precedents too many to be disregarded by her. She enforced the claim of the smaller county against her larger neighbor in the person of Judge Johnson and Wetmore, and in the congress for many terms in the persons of Judge Schofield and Col. Watson. She is now a candidate for the office of president judge in asking the re-nomination of Senator Allen, and against the larger counties of Venango and McKean in the candidacy of Secretary Stone for nomination to congress.

After all these examples it is with another poor grace that the claim of Forest county should be ignored on the ground of her being a smaller county. This is the only substantial reason for refusing the nomination of her candidate.

If other reasons were needed to justify our position they might be found in the general opposition to the nomination of the Warren candidate which our conferees observed among republicans of all classes, in Warren county, whose fealty was beyond question, and whose character qualified them to our confidence and esteem.

When it became apparent that the Warren conferees would not nominate me, and that we could not nominate their candidate, our conferees made every reasonable effort to break the deadlock. They offered to submit the determination of which of us should be nominated to the republican members of the bar of the two counties of the district. The force of this offer will be apparent when it is considered that the Forest bar is composed of five republicans, and the Warren bar of twenty-seven republicans. Yet this fair offer was rejected. Our conferees also submitted a plan for breaking the deadlock by the nomination of some candidate outside of the two before the conferees, who would be equally satisfactory to both counties, and by his character and standing would command the respect and support of all republicans.

The plan was also refused without any proposition from the other side. Our people were led to make this latter proposition by the consideration of the high and sacred character of the office they were seeking to fill, and the further consideration that no man should have a mortgage upon the judgeship. If this plan had resulted in the nomination of Secretary C. W. Stone, Judge Wm. D. Brown, Hon. E. L. Davis, or any well qualified person upon whom all could unite, I should have bowed to the result and yielded my claims with entire satisfaction.

While doing everything we honorably could to secure the nomination for our county, we were willing for the sake of the public good and the good of the party to yield our claims in favor of a man whose character, learning and fitness would adorn the bench; we would not sacrifice her claims for any other. We thought and still think, that a nomination should have been made by the conference for the good of the party and the credit of the district. While so thinking, we submit to every candid voter of the district, in either county, that we could not have done more to bring about this happy result than we have done, without an absolute surrender on our part, against our best judgment and a proper respect for the rights of our county, her candidates and conferees.

Although the conference has adjourned, our conferees are still the representatives of Forest county to secure a judicial nomination. As such representatives they are willing to reconvene the judicial conference and make such a nomination as public sentiment may determine will receive unanimous support. The time has come when personal ambition and selfishness should be sunk for the good of the district and the party, and with a decent regard for the propriety of the judicial office. If assured public opinion will make me, if heard I shall be most happy to do what I can to lift the candidacy of the judgeship above the plane where it now is, for I do not intend to leave upon the judicial office. No one can ask me to do more. Until such a result is reached, the adjournment of the conference without making a nomination leaves me with the understanding of my county, and leaves the Warren candidate without any legitimate claim upon any republican voter of Forest county, and without any claim upon any one as a candidate of the district.

With this statement of some of the reasons that have actuated us I confidently submit our course to the deliberate and impartial judgment of the people of this district.
SAMUEL D. IRWIN.
