Some frost was reported on the hills this morning, but the corn and buckwheat are considered to be too far along to be much injured by freezes now.

The serious illness of ex-Congressman W. L. Scott, at his home in Erie, is alarming his friends. At last accounts his chances of recovery were small.

Mr. L. J. Hopkins has been in the East for the past ten days selecting the fall and winter stock for his firm, and goods are already beginning to arrive. You are cordially invited to call.

The autumnal equinox occurred on Sunday. The day was cool but times, but not blustery, and the weather since has been all that could well be wished. Good buckwheat weather, in fact.

Mr. J. M. Mintz has left for New York, Boston, Rochester and other eastern ports to lay in his stock of Fall and Winter goods. He wishes to assure the people that they will be surprised at its immensity.

We rejoice with the many Forest county friends of Hon. C. W. Stone to learn of his nomination for Congress in the late Col. Watson's district. The nomination was made without a jar yesterday, and the great popularity of Mr. Stone insures his election to both the long and the short time.

We erred in stating that Rev.
Thompson had been returned to the East Hickory charge. He goes to Polk, Venango county, and we congratulate the people of that charge, while sympathizing with his old friends in East Hickory in the loss of a good citizen and an earnest, zealous worker in the cause of religion.

Don't forget that Lawrence & Smearbaugh are disposing of their entire stock of clothing at cost. 2t.

The fourth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Forest county, begins its session in the M. E. Church of this place at 2 o'clock this afternoon. An attractive program has been arranged, and the meeting promises to be an interesting one. Miss Henrietta Moore will deliver an address this evening.
The convention adjourns sine die tomorrow at 5 o'clock, p. m.

Will S. Clark, eldest son of Capt.
Clark of Tionesta township, and who has been a resident of Kansas for the past ten years, arrived in Tionesta with his family on Monday of this week, and will make Forest county his home once more. Mr. Clark thinks Pennsylvania good enough for him, although many of the features of Kansas life were good as need be. We welcome him back.

The band boys—that is, the old reliables, with instruments varying all the way from a pepper box and waxed string to a dry goods case and scantling—were out last night and paid their respects to Albert Grove, upon his return from his wedding tour. The happy groom handed out the cigars in his usually good-natured style after listening to the soul stirring strains for a reasonable time.

"As the REPUBLICAN predicted," to use an old gag of our big city exchanges, Harry Alvin Hall, of Elk county, secured the district nomination in the Democratic convention at Kane last Wednesday. If ante-election talk goes for one cent then the Democrats have made the weakest nomination that could have been, out of the material at hand. In point of ability and political shrewdness we guess Mr. Hall averages up all right, but his own county is split square in two against him, and the balance of the district will be found very lukewarm in his support. A wise choice by the Republicans is all that is necessary to overcome the rapidly waning majority in the 38th Senatorial district.

Peterson's Magazine for October, is on our table. The steel engraving "Before the Battle," is a handsome picture presenting the portraits of Minnie Irving, the popular poetess and her soldier husband. The fashion-plate and illustrations, present some new and effective fall styles. The needlework designs are varied and effective. The literary part of the number is excellent, and can only be equalled by the highest priced periodicals. This favorite magazine always grows better and better. Terms, two dollars a year. Address, Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The signing of the Anti Lottery bill by President Harrison, Friday, was the death warrant of the Louisiana Lottery Company. The law prevents a lottery company from using newspapers as an advertising medium, for no paper could afford to lose its right to use the mails for the sake of lottery advertising. The person who sends $1 through the mails for the purchase of a lottery ticket is as liable to prosecution as the officer or agent of the company. The penalty for violation of the mails is one year's imprisonment, and the person violating the provisions of the law may be proceeded against either at the place where the unlawful matter is mailed, or to which it is carried by mail for delivery, or at which it is caused to be delivered, or at which it is caused to be delivered by mail to the person to whom it was addressed.

A Clarion correspondent of the Derrick says: Sparks Brothers' circus, while exhibiting at Tylersburg, Tuesday night, got into a row with some of the citizens in that vicinity. Robert McCloskey, a respected citizen of Farmington township, was handled roughly by some of the show people.
On Wednesday he came to this place and made information before Esquire Sweeney against all connected with the circus, except one female, charging them with riot and with having inflicted upon him "grievous bodily harm." Sheriff Mong and Constable Logue arrested a dozen or more of the show people on Wednesday. The most of them were arrested at Shippenville where the circus was billed to exhibit on that day. They were brought to Clarion, and when a hearing was about to be had on Thursday, the prosecutor and showmen came to some kind of an understanding, and no testimony was offered on the part of the prosecution. Esquire Sweeney therefore discharged the defendants and the costs of prosecution were promptly paid by one of the attorneys concerned. One of the showmen was cut severely during the left arm from the elbow during the melee at Tylersburg.

Wedding Bells.

The social event of the season was the marriage, last Wednesday evening, of Lu Emma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sloan, to Dr. F. Thoburn Nason, both of Tionesta, at the M. E.
Church. At 6 o'clock, as the church was well filled with guests, the handsome bridal party arrived, and entered the church in the following order: The groom and brother, Mr. John B.
Nason, of Townville, Pa., and Miss Maud Van Giesen, of Leechburg; Robert K. McCormick, of Edenburg; and Miss Sadie Shoup, of Allegheny; Prof. F. W. Ware, of Tionesta, and Miss Lou Best, of Edenburg. Having taken their positions in front of the altar, the bride entered leaning on the arm of her father, and was met by the groom. Miss Nellie Kepler, officiating at the organ, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the bridal party entered. Rev. Dr. Fradenburg, of Warren, who had been escorted to the pulpit, came forward and pronounced the words which joined the happy couple in holy wedlock, the service being short but very impressive, and at the conclusion the groom led his bride from the church, followed by the bridal party, relatives and guests.
Messrs. James D. and Charles H.
Davis very gracefully performed the delicate office of seating the guests and conducting the ceremonies at the church.

The costumes of the ladies were very beautiful. The bride wore white faulle silk, point lace and diamonds, the dress being cut en train, with the customary bridal veil. Miss Van Giesen wore pale pink China silk, Miss Shoup, pale blue, and Miss Best, pale yellow, making in all a lovely, fairy-like scene.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies a reception lasting till 8 o'clock was held at the bride's home, and was attended by 80 or more guests, who fared sumptuously at the delicious lunch that was prepared. At eight o'clock the Doctor and his bride departed for the train, leaving the house amidst a shower of rice, hearty congratulations and good wishes. Many handsome and valuable presents were left as souvenirs of the joyous occasion, long to be remembered as such by all who were present.

Court Minutes.

The case of Fox vs. Lacy, which was on trial as we went to press last week, was given to the jury on Friday evening. On Saturday morning the jury returned a verdict in favor of the Messrs. Lacy. This is the third trial of the case, it having gone as above twice, the Fox heirs having won once.

Case of Dr. Phillips vs. The Overseers of the Poor of Barnett township was brought on for trial, but before the case had proceeded far the plaintiff was non-suited.

Case of Whitekin vs. Lawrence & Smearbaugh, resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff.

The case of Commonwealth vs.
Charles Harger, on the charge of burglary, was tried on Friday evening, but the evidence did not sustain the charge of burglary, and the defendant was acquitted.

Two new election districts were ordered by the Court, one in Green and one in Jenks townships.

The Andrews Raid.

This grand exhibition of life-size oil paintings, illustrating the famous Andrews' Raid, accompanied by a thrilling lecture by W. J. Knight, the engineer of the expedition, will be given, under the auspices of Geo.
Stow Post, at the Court House, Tionesta, Tuesday evening, Sept. 30th, next. The life-size oil paintings fully and truthfully represent the leading incidents of this wonderful and romantic expedition. The lecture is a plain simple story of 22 Union soldiers, of the 2d, 21st, and 33d Ohio regiments, acting under the orders of Gen. O.
M. Mitchell, capturing a train of cars, in Georgia, in 1862, from the enemy's rebel soldiers. They show the capture of the train, the escape, cutting the telegraph wires, tearing up track and burning bridges, etc., etc. In short this is one of the most daring and romantic adventures ever attempted in the annals of ancient or modern warfare. It takes Mr. Knight about two hours and a half to relate the story.
You can't afford to miss this Lecture.
Admission, 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

This is no suicide! Lawrence & Smearbaugh have determined to dispose of their entire stock of clothing —men's, boys' and children's suits and overcoats, strictly at cost. Our reasons for this positive cut is that we will hereafter carry nothing in the clothing line excepting pants. The stock we offer is strictly first class in every particular, and we only ask an inspection that we may convince our patrons. 2t.

Hopkins & Co. are surprising the people again this week. Go see.

Keep the Issue Straight.

But Chairman Quay and his candidate for Governor should not be permitted to confuse the questions of this campaign. In the elections for members of Congress ample opportunity will be afforded every citizen to express his sentiments on questions of national policy, and in the election for Governor on matters of State policy.
For sake of good government and healthy political development State and Federal affairs should be kept widely apart, in accordance with the spirit of our institutions.

The citizen who shall vote for Mr.
Delamater because he favors the Mc-Kinley bill, or for Pattison because he is a friend of Tariff Reform, must have a very loose notion of the character of this Government. In the office of Governor Mr. Delamater could not help the tariff if he were ever so willing to do so. In the office of Governor Mr. Pattison could not hurt it.—National Democrat.

No! Mr. Pattison could not veto the McKinley bill if he was Governor, as he did the soldiers' burial bill. Yet, that same old dead soldier, that now may be buried at least decently, and his memory not perish, because a Republican Legislature passed the bill over a Democratic Governor's veto, had something to do with "Federal affairs." Mr. Delamater could not, it is true, as Governor help the tariff bill nor Pattison hinder it, because before that either is Governor, the tariff bill will be passed. But as voters to-day Mr. Delamater and Mr. Pattison are helping by influence and words that same tariff bill. Delamater's vote helped to secure that same tariff bill, with all the good it brings to this great protectionist State. Mr. Patti-son's vote and influence did all it could to prevent that result. Delamater stands and has stood for the vital interests of Penn'a. Mr. Pattison has stood the very reverse. Mr.
Delamater's vote and influence and wealth helped to make a Republican Congress, Mr. Pattison's vote went the other way. Mr. Delamater's influence as Governor will go with the Republican administration. Mr. Pattison's will go the reverse. One will aid a Republican Legislature, the other will hamper it, as he did before, and make the taxpayer foot the bill, as he did before. The one, Delamater, stands as a State representative for protection. The other, Pattison, stands as the representative of Free Trade Democracy. The election of one means victory for the protectionist party; the election of the other means a shoot, after that event, that "Democracy has triumphed." If that should occur no whipper would you hear of it being a Mugwump or Independent Republican victory. Not much; with their usual gall the Democracy would hail it as what "we 'uns did," and the Independent Mugwump could go to Salt River with the rest of the gang. No, the war of the Rebellion proved the very reverse of the above, and showed that, "For the sake of good government and healthy political development State and Federal affairs should be kept"—as much in harmony as possible, "in accordance with the spirit of our institutions," and the verdict of '65 and the 25 years that have followed. Right you are in one thing, a "candidate for Governor should not be permitted to confuse the questions of this campaign," and so in this campaign Veto Bob refuses to stand on a Democratic party platform, until after election. Ah!
