

THE COON IS THERE!

FOR FOREST COUNTY! AND OHIO!

At this writing, Wednesday afternoon, returns are not sufficiently complete to indicate to a certainty whether the Republicans have lost the State or not, but it looks that way by considerable, although the Republican State Committee claims that it will require the official count to decide, so closely has the contest narrowed itself down.

Forest County, although somewhat shaken by the explosion, is still true to her colors, and has elected the Republican ticket from top to bottom, and will give the State ticket a majority of 100 to 125. This, with the great disaffection all through the State, and which affected more or less, every county within her borders, is certainly a very gratifying showing, and is a matter for hearty congratulation to those who stood loyally up to the work. Such cutting and slashing in every conceivable direction has not been witnessed for many years, but through it all the noble band of Republicans in our county come out in excellent style. A most determined effort was made to defeat Dr. Towler, the fight of the Democrats being centered on the Assembly question which they seemed confident of carrying. The Doctor's phenomenal majority in his own township of Jenks put a squelcher on the thing, however, and elected him by a safe majority.

The President Judgeship contest was spirited, as was also the effort to defeat Mr. Ledebur for County Commissioner, but from best figures obtainable it would seem he has been re-elected. From the way it looks the board elected will be Messrs. McIntyre, Ledebur and Emert. We had expected to be able to publish a tabulated vote this week, but the returns have come in so slowly and disjointedly that we will have to defer that until next week. Suffice it to say for the present the ticket has been elected by majorities ranging from 29 to upward of 451.

It's good enough anyway, and in a year like this seems to have been we ought to be satisfied that it's no worse. All who worked at all did so with a will and hard. Chairman Scowden did his work manfully and conscientiously, and has good reason to feel elated over the victory won.

LATEST FIGURES. Wednesday night all the figures from the county were in. The totals are as follows:

- Governor—Delamater 857, Pattison 757, Gill 50.
Lieut. Governor—Watres 891, Black 712, Hyatt 56.
Secretary of Internal Affairs—Stewart 901, Barclay 702, Dunn 56.
President Judge—Higgins 797, Noyes 780, Irwin 104.
Associate Judge—Clark 945, Berlin 685, Loudon 26.
Congress—Oyster 931, Kribbas 666, Hayden 35.
Senate—Boyd 992, Hall 637.
Assembly—Towler 829, Herman 800, Allison 23.
Prothonotary—Arner 1030, Winans 579.
Sheriff—Osgood 907, Siverling 650.
County Commissioners—McIntyre 846, Ledebur 802, Emert 806, Youngk 726.

By the above it will be seen that Stewart, on whom there was the least cutting on the State ticket, has 199, which is the best indicator of the Republican majority in the county. Delamater's majority is an even hundred.

PATTISON ELECTED. PITTSBURG, Oct. 5.—Pattison has 16,000 plurality. Watres and Stewart are undoubtedly elected. The Democrats gain three Congressmen. Both branches of the Legislature are Republican and have 64 majority on joint ballot.

IT IS JUDGE NOYES.

Indications are that Mr. Noyes will have from 800 to 1000 majority in his county for President Judge over Mr. Higgins, who will have a small majority in this county. And so it is Judge Noyes.

Major McKinley Elected.

Major McKinley, whom the Democrats tried to gerrymander out of Congress by placing him in a district that normally gives 3000 Democratic majority, has been elected by 500 majority. This is one of the most remarkable victories ever achieved, and is cause for great rejoicing.

Congress, however, seems to have been carried by the Democrats, and the majority is estimated all the way from 10 to 70.

LATEST—Maj. McKinley admits his defeat by 200. He made a gallant fight.

Daring Robbery in Meadville.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Nov. 2.—One of the boldest robberies perpetrated in this city for many years occurred at 10:30 last evening at the office of the Wells-Fargo Express. The agent, C. P. Moore, was alone in the office, which is situated the width of the street from the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio passenger depot and in a locality where scores of people are continually passing. He was counting the contents of his cash drawer, preparatory to balancing his cash account, when a rap on the door drew his attention. He placed the money in the drawer, stepped outside of the office railing, opened the door and admitted two strangers. Upon entering they bade him good evening, when one leveled a revolver at his head and cautioned him not to move or make an outcry on pain of instant death. He was then bound and gagged and laid upon the floor. The robbers then proceeded to open the large safe which was unlocked, and tore open and appropriated the money packages valued at from $5,000 to $15,000, after which they made their escape. Mr. Moore was so securely tied that it was fully half an hour after they left before he was liberated and made an outcry for assistance. He describes his assailants as follows: One large, middle-aged man, wearing a flowing beard, evidently false, and the other a young sandy-complexioned man, about 20 years old. Fortunately for the company, the money the agent was counting when he was interrupted in his work, amounting to several hundred dollars, was untouched by the robbers. When the safe had been ransacked the robbers searched Mr. Moore, but evidently were disgusted with the value of his watch and the contents of his wallet, for they returned the same to him with the remark that they could do better. The police are now searching the city for the perpetrators of the outrage, but thus far have not been able to discover the slightest clue.
