LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-Oil market closed yesterday 68. -Lawrence & Smearbaugh keep a complete line of school books always

-Chicken pox is making a good many of the little ones of our borough cross and uneasy.

-Rev. Rumberger will preach a Thanksgiving sermon at Nebraska, to-morrow morning at half past ten

-There is no dearth in the turkey market hereabouts this season. They seem to be unusually plenty, and command good prices.

-There will be Thanksgiving Services in the Presbyterian Church tomorrow forenoon at 10:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

-If you want anything in the line of foot wear, from the finest to the conrecet, just call and see the fine assortment at Lawrence & Smearbaugh's. They can't be best in prices or quality.

-N. S. Foreman's new tenement bouse in the north ward is about enclosed and will be ready for occupancy vet before snow flies to any great extent, unless cold weather gets a hump

-A strictly first class operator is again in charge of the Sires photograph gallery, Tionesta, and those wishing anything in that line should call early. No day too cloudy to make a good picture by our process.

-The literature on dress during the last 10 years, would form an imposing collection. Equally curious and imposing also would be the collection of all the empty bottles used in the last ten years for Dr. Boll's Cough Syrup.

-- On Saturday next, Nov. 29, at Golinza Mills, Green township, there will be a public sale of 19 pairs of lumber sleds, and one pair road sleds: also a quantity of hard coal. Those wishing to invest should bear in mind

-Thanksgiving to-morrow. Busi ness will be practically suspended in this place as usual, most likely, and the REPUBLICAN hopes all its friends may spend the day pleasantly and profitably, and that all may find something to be thankful for.

-Don't! If a dealer offers you a bottle of Salvation Oil without wranper or labels, or in a mutilated condition, don't touch it-don't buy it at any price, there is something wrongit may be a dangerous or worthless counterfeit. Insist upon getting a perfect, unbroken, genuine package.

-Those of our older citizens who still remember Mr. Harvey M. Munsell, of New York City, many years ago a resident of this county, will sympathize with him in the loss of his music. wife, who died at Clifton Springs, N. Y., on the 13th inst. The interment took place from her late residence in New York, on the 17th.

-The prospectus of the Harrisburg Telegraph appears in this issue and the attention of our readers is asked to the same. The Telegraph always interesting and especially bright, is particularly so during the sitting of the Legislature, and those who want the winter should not be slow to subscribe

-A new schedule went into effect on the River Division of the W. N. Y. & P. R. R. on Monday of this week, and trains are now due at Tionesta station as follows: Up river, 8:41 a. m., 4:17 and 7:17 p. m. Down river, 9:38 a. m., 12:09, 4:17 and 8:23 p. m. These are rather important changes, and should be borne in mind by those contemplating a trip by rail.

-All our citizens will join in sympathy with Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Wheeler of Tidioute, in the loss of their bright little daughter, from diphtheria, on Wednesday of last week, after an illness of only five days duration. The ing 20 barrels from the Quinn sand, the family of our deceased Brother in News says: The death of Mary Atkins natural. The manner of payment of the old time one dollar notes is not specified; and in the case of silver certificates the payment is specified to be in silver. A vignette portrait of ex-Secretary of War, Edwin M. Stanton, graces the new notes, and on their backs the word "One" is printed in letters about one and a half inches long. Money handlers have already raised an objection to the new issue of notes on the ground that the figure "1," in this instance in the right hand upper corner of the notes is much too small for fast handling. -A beautiful flag now floats over our handsome school building, the gift of Washington Camp, No. 420, P. O. S. of A., of Tionesta. The presentation ceremonies took place in the Assembly room of the school house on Friday afternoon last, where quite a goodly number of our citizens had gathered, and at which all the school Jr., on the charge of complicity in the children were present.
