Brennnt as . as attorney, THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS has be foremeat place among Pennsyl-newspapers by the liberality, enter-and fairness with which it conducts incess, reports great events, and the teness with which it records, day .ay, the life of the city, State and .untry. Its field is world-wide, and its staff, its special correspondents, so many and well organized, its source of news so numerous, that it appeals to a wider con-stituency than any other newspaper ever published in Pennsylvania. "The Press," said one of the managers ' the Western Union Telegraph Com-'ty, "new receives more telegraphic 's than all the other Philadelphia news-rs combined." This statement is an-ative and conclusive, and The Press THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS has
