REST REPUBLICAN.

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR. DNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1891.

STATE CAPITAL GOSSIP.

HARRISBURG, JAN. 7, 1891. The Peopsylvania Legislature organized yesterday at noon by the election of its officers and the appointment of its employees. It then passed resolusions relating to rules for the session, and preparations for the inauguration does not embrace all that every Re of the Governor, and adjourned to day publican would like to see in such a until 10 a. m. Thursday, Jan. 15. The | measure, promises to afford speedy refun began on Friday previous, when lief to the money market, without the different candidates for Speaker going to the dangerous extreme of an arrived in the city. There were five over inflation of the currency, and for from the country, viz: Thompson of that reason alone it should speedily Warren, Burdick of McKenn, Finley become a law. But will it? Will the of Washington, Baldwin of Lancas. Democrats, who have been professing ter, Baker of Delaware, and Capp of so much distress on account of the Lebanon, and two city candidates - financial stringency, allow this relief Messrs. Brooks of Philadelphia, and measure to be adopted without unnec-Stewart of Allegbeny. Stewart had essary delay, or will they, true to the not the full support of his delegation past record of their party, attempt to and so could hardly be said "to be in delay or defeat it by offering impractiit," but he got "in the swim" with the cable amendments and by resorting to final victors all the same. Brooks of filibustering? We shall see. Phila., had the full Phila. delegation behind him, and was positive of suc cess. The country gentlemen all had a good following, with Thompson in the lead. The hope of Philadelphia was that the country members would be split up and sooner or later go to Brooks. The "hayseeds," as they got entirely, men of his calibre are too nicknamed, knew their hope was in positive organization and pulling together. It soon became evident that four out of the five must yield or all go to the wall; then Thompson as chief, and Senator Allen of Warren, with Granger Taggart of Montgomery, as "best man" started to try and reconcile all the differences. Captain passing a law providing for the imme-Baker of Delaware, soon declared he diate disarming of every Indian on a was ready to drop out and throw for reservation, and care should be taken Thompson. By Monday all the coun- in framing it to see that it contains a try candidates, with Stewart of Alle- provision to prevent their again acgheny, got together and after counting quiring arms. Feed them, if neces votes decided to unite on Thompson, sary, but do not allow them to possess In two minutes the placards were all rifles, which may at any time be used down, and all "the gentlemen from the to murder white people. Senator Petcountry" in Harrisburg were langhing tigrew, of North Dakota, has introand shaking hands and congratulating duced a bill which seems to just about each other on what they jokingly call cover the ground. ed the "buckwheats' victory." While this was going on, the Phila. delegation sat in solemn council in the Common. Carolina, who was elected by Farmers wealth Hotel and sadly concluded Alliance votes, now says he is a Demthey would have to put crepe on Mr. ocrat first, and that the farmers will Brooks, but would save their reputa. have to look to that party for the legtion by throwing their full vote to a islation they wish. There's a lesson in certain country candidate whose name that remark for old time Republica s was not Thompson. But, alas! for to think over. Phila.; by the time they got up to the Lochiel with that proposition, every himself trying to get Mr. Charles A. country candidate was pledged to Dana elected to the United States Thompson, and the jig was up. The Secate, nor is Mr. Dana staying up next move of Phila. was to make Mr. nights to get Mr. Cleveland nominated Brooks chairman of the caucus, but for President. already nearly all the "hayseeds" had pledged themselves to Baker of Dela-won the foremost place among Pennsylver the calling of the caucus at this its there was some kicking, a few anting it postponed until Thursday, ith. The majority could see no use that as there was, so far as anyone uld discover, only one candidate, at: J. D. Cameron. Those opposed Senator Cameron did not suggest y name, or probable name of any alleman, who was in the field, so the iclusion was that, as there was only a candidate, the business had better one done with. The caucus came in order duly on time, with Senator G. Handy Smith in the chair. Motion for adjournment was voted down by a very large majority. Senator Thompson of Dauphin, nominated J. D. Cameron in a good speech, and Senator Gobin of Lebanon, seconded it in a better one. He said "J. D. Cameron would vote for the Federal Elec."

Senator I have a few and in cost, any contemporary magazine, for the field and resources of such a news paper as The Press make it not only a daily historian, but a daily tribune. Its steadily growing profits authors, as well as the brightest news correspondents, find their largest profits derived from any Pennsylvania audience in Daily, Sunday, and Weekly Press.

In politics The Press is Republican, but it knows no other master than the people whose rights, aspirations, and needs it always instantorial political ambitions to foster or promote, and is subservien to no politician or clique. Faithful to the great body of readers and votors, whom it truly represents, it promotes its own interest and finale never regulators. Its news is always impartial. It has page the working manifely made for the field and resources of such a news paper as The Press make it not only dequal in cost, any contemporary magazine, for the field and resources of such a news paper as The Press make it not only dequal in cost, any contemporary magazine, for the field and resources of such a news paper as The Press make it not only dequal in cost, any content of the field and resources of such a new paper as The Press make it and their largest profits demined to prove the field and r on would vote for the Federal Elec tions bill, all statements to the contrary notwithstanding." Whereupon Mr. Coray of Luzerne, said "Senator Daily (except Sunday), one year, - $6,00 Cameron had been non-committal on the bill and staid so until 'he was smoked out." This caused Dr. Towler of Forest, to remark "that everybody knew that a man with Scotch blood in his veins could not be 'smoked out.'" The House laughed, Cameron, the sole candidate, was duly made the nominee of the Republican for U. S. Senator.

Senator Cameron was called upon by nearly all the members of the Leg islature, and it was very evident that the Senator had no intention of doing anything but what his party and State desired. Even the granger element will be satisfied with his course or evidences go for nothing.

THE Republicar Senators have perfeeted a financial till, which while it

SENATOR INGALLS has gone home to remain until his successor is elected, and every good Republican whether agreeing with Mr. logalls in all things or not, will hope that he may be his own successor. Aside from politics scarce in Congress for the good of country, and for the Kansas legislature to send an unknown nobody to the Senate as the successor to John J. Ingalls would be an act of folly that its members would not fail to regret in the future.

Congress should lose no time in pledged themselves to Baker of Delaware, so it was flopped again. One party remarked, in language more profane than legislative, that "there were more blanked independent country ducks in this Legislature than he had ever seen." So it was, and the country members were so full of "tickle and laugh" that after the caucus thad elected. Thompson the reaction me, and in that reaction Philaboped most of the minor positions om the Slate Committee. After the nnouncements from that committee, and the election of their selections by the House, there was more kicking than after a country primary. How ever, the fact that the country compistely outgeneraled the city on the speakership, helped to soothe many in angry member who was disappointed in not getting "his man in."

Speaker Thompson seemed to catch of from the start to the adjournment oday, when the Republicans of the enate and House went into joint cause for mominations for U.S. Senate. Ver the calling of the caucus at this to there was some kicking, a few auting it postponed until Thursday.
