LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.
—Oil market closed yesterday 74.
—C. M. Shankey, Esq., of Warren, was in town to-day.

—T. W. Corah of Balltown, was in town over night, Monday.
—Miss Dully Hood is quite ill, and has been so for some time.

—Yesterday's sunshine wiped the sleighing with a great big swipe.
—Miss Mossie Lafferty of Titusville, is making a three week's visit to Miss Hattie Tobey, at Mayburg.

—Will G. Morrow left here Saturday morning last to take charge of the school at the Watson Farm in Howe township.

—Rev. Shoup is holding a revival meeting at the White Church, and Rev. Rhodes is also holding one at the Cropp Hill church.

—Mrs. Sue Sharpe and Miss Artie Robinson are paying a three week's visit to the families of Chas. Bonner and B. W. May, Chicago.

—Struggle toughens the mind, until by and by we do not mind the struggle.
You need not toughen the body by a struggle with a cough when you have Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

—David Barnett has purchased the Acorn lot, and expects to commence the erection of a store building on the site of the one recently burned, as soon as the weather will permit.

—Miss Minnie Shankey has been suffering from a severe attack of lagrippe. For a week past she has been confined to her room but is now able to be up a part of the time.

—Mrs. Wm. Hiebenthal and brother, Mr. Geo. Hood, who were called hither on account of the serious illness of their sister, Miss Dullie Hood, returned to their home in Pittsburgh Saturday.

—Hon. David Emery, one of the prominent figures of the oil country, died at his home in Titusville, last Friday, aged 54 years. He was a brother of Lewis Emery, Jr., of Bradford.

—Mr. S. J. Grove, who has for some time lived on the Sibbald farm, opposite Dawson station, has purchased the property at the mouth of Tubbs Run, and moved into the house which stands on the premises.

—T. F. Ritchey, a prominent attorney of Forest county, is attending court at Clarion this week, interested in a suit from Forest. Mr. Ritchey has a host of friends in this county.— Clarion Jacksonian.

—We understand that Messrs. G.
W. Robinson and N. S. Foreman have purchased the lumber plant of the Salmon Creek Lumber Co., and will operate it to its full capacity with the opening of spring.

—Some of our local sports are having lots of fun chasing foxes on the surrounding hills these days. They have sometimes as high as four or five on the run at once, and occasionally succeed in bagging one.

—Mr. W. S. Shaffer, was up from Emlenton, Monday of this week, and shook hands with many of his old friends here who were glad to see him.
Scott was looking well and reports his town in a flourishing state.

—The protracted meeting at Ne-brauks, under the ministrations of Rev. Rumberger, is still going on, and is one of the most successful ever held in this section, and is nightly increasing in interest. Many sleigh loads from this place have attended during the past week.

—An enthusiastic legislator at Harrisburg has introduced a bill imposing a fine of $1000 on those who manufacture and sell cigarettes, and $5 fine on those who smoke them publicly. That's pretty radical but we don't know but that the country could stand it without much trouble.

—If any person hereabouts is under the impression that the snow so far this winter in this section hasn't been used he should take a walk over around the depot and see the stuff lying around to be loaded, and then inspect the bills showing the amount shipped thus far—all hauled on this winter's snow.

—The Franklin News man has in some way made this important discovery: One of the essentials to a good photograph is a clean face—not a relatively but so absolutely clean one—and it is said that photographers have much trouble because they do not like to make a suggestion which might be resented by their sitters.

—The Ohio authorities, who seemed so clamorous to get hold of John Harger for alleged thefts, failed to put in an appearance, and the prisoner was allowed his freedom on Thursday last.
He lost no time in shaking the snowballs of Tionesta off his feet when he got out. And it is altogether likely that when the Ohioans wait another man picked up they'll have it to do themselves.

—A contemporary calls the attention of its readers to the fact that the Star of Bethlehem, which was visible at the birth of Christ, can be seen every evening after 8 o'clock. It appears just a little south of east and is a very brilliant and beautiful orb. It will be visible only about two months, and those who do not see it this winter will be denied that pleasure, unless they live over three centuries.

—Up to this time no serious coasting accident has happened in this neighborhood, notwithstanding there has scarcely been a day or night that the slide hasn't been first class. Our neighbors, however, don't seem to have been so fortunate, as we scarcely pick up a paper that has not one or two more or less serious accidents to chronicle. We hope the good luck may stay with our boys till way long in marble playing time.

—To-day closes the eighth week of continuous and unsurpassed sleighing, and the "oldest inhabitant" readily admits that he never witnessed a winter in which there has been so much good sleighing with such mild weather and so little snow. This season has beaten the record, and the amount of good that it has done the country in general is incalculable. But unless we get a right smart turn in the weather pretty quick she's a goner for a while at least.

—A lady of this place recently protested against personal notices appearing in the papers. She thought they had no business to chronicle the doings, the coming and going of persons without their consent. She was going to have a "big talk" with one of the town scribes for some of its announcements.
Perhaps the lady is in the right. It has been said, however, that it's pleasant to see one's name in print; and newspapers go upon that principle.— Warren Ledger.

—John Conroe allowed he could haul the biggest load of lumber from Hemlock City to Tidioute of any other man on the job. Last Friday John loaded up with 12,000 feet of hemlock and got ready to start. But W. H.
Holcomb laid on the same sized load and took John's wake. They both came through to Tidioute, but we don't believe either party care to repeat the experiment. The contest drew out a big crowd of interested sight seers.—News.

—Monday of this week the family of Mr. Henry Kiser, of Germantown Hill, were apprised by letter of the serious illness of their daughter's husband, Mr. Oliver Leard, of Allegheny, Pa.
Yesterday members of the family came down to get further news by telegram, when they found a message awaiting them conveying the sad intelligence of his death, a few hours previous. He had been sick but a few days from a cold which developed into pneumonia. Mr. Leard was married to Miss Mary Kiser about five years ago, who survives him, they having no children. He was aged about 30 years, and was respected as a man of sterling integrity and energy, and as such will be mourned by a large circle of friends made during his year or two's residence in this county. His devoted wife will have the heartfelt sympathy of all her many friends here in her great grief.

—Monday forenoon Charlie Blum, of Getzso Hill, met with a painful accident while driving down the Tubbs Run road with a load of ties. The sled "slewed" into a gutter, and Charlie's left leg was caught between the load and the bank at the side of the road, bruising and jamming it quite badly between the knee and ankle, although fortunately breaking no bones.
Dr. Morrow dressed the wounds, and Charlie will likely be around again in a couple of weeks.

—Last Friday afternoon a hearing was had before Judge Noyes in the case of Edward S. Shippee, on a writ of habeas corpus, to determine the question of admitting the defendant to bail till the sitting of court on the fourth Monday of February. Four witnesses were examined on the part of the Commonwealth after which arguments were made by Hon. A. B.
Richardson, of Meadville, on behalf of the defense, and C. Z. Gordon Esq., of Brookville, for the Commonwealth.
At the conclusion of the arguments Judge Noyes gave his decision, which was against admitting the defendant to bail, and remanding him to the custody of the Sheriff for his appearance at court.

—Last week an item appeared in these columns to the effect that a horse had been stolen from a man named Spencer, near Pleasantville. On Friday last Spencer recovered his property. The mare, a five-year old iron grey, is a beauty, and its owner values it at $700. He says that he received word from a Franklin constable that a mare answering the description was at Raymliton. He went out and found it was his animal. It had been left in a barn attached to a hotel stable at that place when all the attaches of the barn were asleep, but the description of the thief, a six-footer and dark complexioned, was obtained from parties living along the road, who noticed the fine breed of the mare and the rough looking driver.

—Many farmers are just now complaining that the law against the killing of rabbits is all wrong. Instead of a law to protect the rabbit there should be a law to protect the farmer and fruit grower against the ravages of the rabbits, they claim. The late mild winters have allowed their numbers to increase to an alarming extent and the damage they are doing to fruit trees and shrubbery this winter is said to be very great.—Ex. The average lawmaker is a model in his way, especially when it comes to making game laws. We notice a day or two ago, that a bill had been introduced in the House to shorten the season for killing squirrels by killing of the month of September. As though squirrels needed any protection anyway. One year there is scarcely one to be seen, and perhaps the very next year they're so plenty as to be a real nuisance. The best law ever placed on the statute books for the protection of small game was knocked colder than a wedge after it had been in operation but two years—the hawk and owl scalp law—and all because a few lunk-headed justices of the peace, living in the border counties, allowed themselves to be duped into issuing certificates for hawks, etc., killed in other States.

—It is curious how few people know the order of succession to the Presidency.
Supposing that both President and Vice-President should die, the Secretary of State would be seated in the Executive Chair. In the event of his demise he would be succeeded by the Secretary of the Treasury, and so on, in order, by the Secretary of War, the Attorney-General, the Postmaster-General, the Secretary of the Navy and the Secretary of the Interior.
But it is true that all these gentlemen are possible Presidents, and it is within the conceivable possibilities that they all might successively administer the Government during the same four-years' term. Should they all die there is no present provision by law for filling Mr.
Harrison's place. This is enough to make one anxious.

The Meadville Gazette, in noting the birth of a new contemporary in that city, says: "It starts out with a confession of weakness in saying that it 'has no friends to reward, no enemies to punish.' A newspaper can never make a go of it in this way. A newspaper may manage to survive without friends, but how on earth it can get along without enemies is what puzzles us. The friend of a newspaper is similar to the friend in need who is described as the fellow who wants to borrow $10. The friend of a newspaper is the man with a very dull axe to grind. The recollection of our boyhood days, when we did the circular work for wood chopping, does not leave us without practical experience in the propulsion of the grindstone. We hope that a little experience in the newspaper business may give the Star enough healthy enemies to insure its success."

An Order of Court.
And now on 23rd J. 1, it is ordered that Section 4 of Rule LVI, be amended as to read as follows: SECTION 4 Applications for license under the Act of May 13, 1887, shall be heard in Forest county on the third Monday in May, and in Warren county on the second Tuesday of June, in each year. License granted shall be for one year from the first Monday in June in Forest County, and the first Monday in July in Warren County, and shall expire in one year from that time without regard to the time when the same were granted.

By the Court,
CHARLES H. NOYES, J. P.
Barnett Notes.

Two new storeroms are in course of erection, and as many more are mentally erected. That's right, "opposition's" the life of trade." Too much may be the death of it.

Mr. James Gray is getting everything in readiness for the erection of a dwelling house in the rear future. The location is a very desirable one; and when completed, will add greatly to the appearance of our town.

Mrs. G. W. Elder who has been ill for some time is now convalescent; and Messrs. Robert Hillard, and Martin Dunkle who received serious injuries while engaged in the handling of lumber, are on the mend.

The plumbers have now finished their work, and Clarington can boast of being heated and lighted by natural gas. Our people all agree that this is much more convenient than the handling of coal and ashes.

Rumor says that one of the school masters of this district is contemplating an early cruise on the sea of mat-
