Church and Sabbath School.

Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10:00 a. m.
Preaching in M. E. Church every Sabbath evening by Rev. Bumberger.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market closed yesterday 76 1/2.

—Born, Feb. 7, 1891, to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Craig, of the borough, a son.

—David Barnett is ridding up and getting stone on the ground for his new store building on the Accomb lot.

—To-day is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season, which will continue forty days, ending with Easter Sunday, March 29th.

—Miss Aggie Kerr, has been suffering with a severe attack of illness during the past ten days, and her school has in consequence been closed for the present.

—United Presbyterian services will be held in the school house, next Sabbath at 11 a. m., and 3:30 p. m. Rev.
M. M. Brown will officiate. All are cordially invited.

—Ex Judge Arner has excavations about completed for the cellar and foundation of a new house on his lot on May St., north ward. Building will commence soon as weather permits.

—Spring elections next Tuesday.
There is little stir so far, but before the time arrives there'll likely be enough scrambling to "knock somebody out," to make the occasion fairly entertaining.

—"The power of music, all our hearts allow," but there are a few ignorant persons who have not learned yet, that all colds are cured by Dr.
Boll's Cough Syrup. Buy it and try it, 25 cents a bottle.

—W. H. Brace, of the Borough, advertising his handsome chestnut driving horse, aged 9 years, a top buggy, cart and set of single harness for sale to the highest bidder on Tuesday next, at one o'clock p. m.

—"There is a slave, whom we have put in prison." Aye and we'll keep him there, he was a tyrant once, but his reign is over, his sceptre lies in the dust. His name is Pain, and his conqueror is the far-famed and world-renowned Salvation Oil.

—Reece Stitzinger was setting up the cigars to his friends yesterday on the happy event of his marriage, which took place as per announcement among our marriage notices this week.
Best wishes to you and yours, Reece, and "may you live long and prosper."

—A new hotel will be opened up at Sheffield Junction in the near future.
The large building formerly owned by P. Mahoney has been purchased by John J. Green, a merchant of that place. The house will be thoroughly overhauled, refitted and refurnished in the latest style.—Marienville Express.

—Miss Anna Albaugh, teacher of Strightville, Hickory twp., school, makes the following report for month ending Feb. 6, 1891: Number enrolled, males 11, females 12; average at attendance, males 8, females 9. Those present every day during the month are, Lillie Sullinger, May Haslet, Jennie McMurtrie and Edith Stright.

—Ronald Thomson, of Stewart's Run, has been lying dangerously ill at Kane, Pa., for the past two weeks, the trouble being an attack of that dreaded disease, spinal meningitis. Ronald, with his brother James, had gone there to work about two months ago. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson, are with him. Late reports say he is much better.

—Representative Towler has placed with us a number of blank applications for young brook trout, to be furnished by the State hatchery, when properly applied for on these blanks, which explain themselves. Two thousand trout may be had on each application for use in public streams only. There are many excellent streams in this locality, but which have been "fished to death," so to speak, that cold steel replenishing in this way very nicely, and for the mere asking can these fish be had, while the depositing of same in the streams is but a trifling bit of work. We will cheerfully distribute these blanks as long as they hold out to those who call for them. After being filled out they should be forwarded to Dr. Towler, who will see that the goods are properly delivered.

—State Supt. Waller has called a convocation of county, city and borough school superintendents to meet in Philadelphia, Feb. 26 and 27.
Among the subjects to be discussed are: Teachers' Examinations and Certificates, County Institutes, Local Institutes, School Architecture, and Manual Training. The National Convention of School Superintendents hold their annual meeting in the same place Feb. 24-26.

—Percy Shoemaker returned last week from Beverly, West Virginia, where he has been with his grandfather, J. D. Hulings, for several months past. He reports all the Forest county people to that section as well and happy. He brought with him a bevy of live quail which he intended to liberate near here when the weather got warmer, but by some unaccountable means the box was opened Monday night and the little fellows escaped.
It is hoped no one will have the hardi-hood to kill any of them should they be seen.

—Wm. Lawrence, at his farm across the creek, will sell a number of articles at public sale on Tuesday next, 17th, election day. In the lot there is:
A new road wagon, of Scowden & Clark's make; one new family buggy, with reversible seats; one buck board wagon; one single wagon; one set new double work harness; one set single buggy harness; one set old single harness; one new saddle and bridle; two fresh cows, young stock; two 2-year-old Alderney heifers; one yearling heifer. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock a. m. Terms easy, with approved security.

Marriage Bells.

One of the pleasantest society events that has taken place in the quiet little village of East Hickory in many years was the marriage of Miss Emma, the accomplished daughter of our old friend Henry W. Ledebur, to Mr.
Martin Vockroth, one of the popular young men of that place on Monday evening last. Promptly at 1:30 p. m. the organ, presided over by Miss Emma Klinesiver, pealed forth the wedding march, and the bride and groom, to be, entered, preceded by Mr. Amos Ledebur and Miss Mary Vockroth, and Mr. M. E. Abbott and Miss Marie Ledebur, groomsmen and bridesmaids, respectively, and took their place under a tastefully arranged wreath of evergreens bedecked with natural roses, where they were met by the Rev. G.
Wenning, who spoke the words which joined the happy pair in holy wedlock, employing the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Lutheran Church.

A shower of congratulations next followed, and then all sat down to a most sumptuous wedding dinner. During the remainder of the afternoon the company of fifty or more happy guests, all young people, passed the time in pleasant social chat, until supper was announced, when all again partook of the delicious viands set before them.
At 10 o'clock dancing commenced and was kept up till the wee, wee sma' hours, and still the guests were loth to depart from so happy a scene. But there must be an end to all good things, and so after the best of wishes to the newly wedded pair, and to the genial host and hostess, all departed feeling that they had enjoyed the pleasure of participating in an affair that would long be remembered as one of the happiest of their lives. The presents are said to have been a beautiful sightly, costly, numerous and useful.

The bride and groom departed yesterday on the noon train for a two days' wedding tour.
THE REPUBLICAN throws in its congratulations along with the numerous friends of Mr. and Vockroth on this auspicious occasion and wishes them a long life of unalloyed happiness and prosperity.

Newmansville.
Miss Mary Bell Lucart has a severe attack of scarlet fever. We wish her a speedy recovery.
Teamsters of the surrounding community are busily engaged in hauling bill stuff from the mill near here.
An accident occurred here last week which might have proved fatal.
While Edward, son of Robert Young, was attempting to board Jerry Hepper's wagon he accidentally got his leg between the hind wheel and the sand-bolster. His leg was badly bruised but no bones were broken.
Will Greenley, of Warren, who was visiting in this section returned home a short time ago.
The protracted meetings which are being carried on at Nebraska are still in progress, and much good is being done.
Robert Young is at present engaged in clerking for Andrew Wolf.
An infant child of Mr. and Mrs.
Wm. Hopkins died on Friday, the 6th inst.

were in Oil City Thursday.—The Free Methodists have over 30 converts at their revival meeting in Beaver Valley.—S. C. Whitmore and Emery Witherall attended the G. A. R.
Post meeting at Tionesta, on Wednesday evening.—Rev. Mr. Torrey is holding a protracted meeting at Fagundus.—George Warden has been unable to leave the house for a week, having caught cold in his jaws, from which he had 29 teeth extracted.— Charles Hall has bought some nice oak on Whig Hill, and will move his mill to Beaver Valley to cut it.

—Miss Savilla Kiester, who has been teaching a class in music at Ball-town for the past month, was home over Sunday.—Smith Sutley went to Poverty Hill on Monday to rig up a well ready to drill.—Charles Ash-baugh has sued Hickory township for $500 bounty, which he claims is due him, as he served the township to fill the quorum drafted upon it, for which services he claims the above amount.
This township was then a part of Ve-naugus county and did pay some men $500, but when Ashbaugh enlisted the price was $100, which he received.

Mrs. Hulings' Lecture.

Many of our readers will be interested to learn something of the success of Mrs. Eva, wife of W. W.
Hulings, formerly of Louisville, Ky., in her lecture tour, and so we reproduce the following from a Denver, Col., paper of recent date:
Mrs. Eva Hulings spoke on last evening at Plummer hall, Charles block, corner Fifteenth and Curtis streets. Her presence illuminated the room with love and good will to all men and each one who heard her went away with a much lighter heart than when they entered the room. She said: "Read your Bible and see what good things it says to you and as you come into the realization of the truth lead others gently by love that they too may learn of the true science and philosophy of life. Don't flash, as it were, a great headlight in their faces, but first take them into the arms of love and then gently give them just as much of these beautiful truths as they can comprehend. Don't stand upon sillits and proclaim yourselves a great teacher, but be one with them looking through their window of understanding first, and after let them look through your window all the while, gently twining the arms of love around them.
Love is absolute; love is God, therefore love is power and will guide you correctly. Also, thought is power, therefore hold those you would teach in the thought of this love and your teaching will not fail to bear good fruit." Mrs. Hulings meets the teachers of the city on Saturday, November 22, at the same hall. These lectures are free.

NEWSY NOTES.
John McKeown, the widely-known and very wealthy oil producer, died at his home in Washington, Pa., on Sunday last, after a prolonged illness. He was 53 years of age. He leaves a wife and six children.
Rev. John Ponte, now Presiding Elder of the New Castle district, is about completing the largest telescope glass or re-fracting mirror in the United States, and the second largest in the world. The disk is 30 inches in diameter, 5 1/2 inches thick, and weighs over 300 pounds.
The Franklin News makes this vicious stab at its poor and offending neighbor: It is proposed to change the name of North East to Grape City. Don't do it.
The present name is a good one. Adding "city" to the name of a town or village betittles the place. It never gets electric lights or street railways. It is not loved when it is old nor pitied when it's dead.
Look at Oil City." Hands off that North East name.
At the skating races for the amateur championship of America at Newburg, N. Y., on the 7th inst., some big records were made. Joe, Donoghue won the quarter-mile race, Time 37 4-5 seconds.
The five-mile race, Joe. Donoghue won in 15 minutes and 37 seconds, with Simpson
