Oil market closed yesterday 78 1/2.

Nelson Greenlund, Warren's furniture dealer, has a new ad. in this issue. Read it.

We have lots of tax receipts on hand now, and Collectors can be supplied by calling or writing.

Chas. Morgan came up from Oil City this morning, and reports things pretty much flooded down there.

Mrs. G. W. Smith, with her two children, of Austin, Pa., is paying a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brownell.

Trains on the W. N. Y. & P. road although somewhat delayed, are all running this morning, notwithstanding the great floods.

We have no more blank applications for trout, the supply having been very limited, and the demand for them prompt and vigorous.

A twelve-year-old son of Christian Curb, of Tionesta township, died Monday night, of inflammation of the bowels. He will be buried to day.

Protracted meetings are in progress in both the M. E. and F. M. Churches, under the pastorate of Rev. Rumberger and Rev. Shoup, respectively.

Miss Aggie Kerr is improving slowly from her illness, and her friends, especially her little scholars, hope she may soon be able to resume her place in the school room.

Next to getting married, probably the most important duty the ordinary man has to perform in a life time is to run for a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup when the baby has the croup.

The Blizzard's philosopher is not, we hope, giving his personal experience in the following soliloquy: "A man may not be able to catch a train after it has a fair start, but he can make quite an ass of himself in the attempt."

I cheerfully recommend Salvation Oil for chilblains and sprains. We have tested it at home for these troubles, and three applications gave us relief in each case. It's the boss liniment. J. J. Norfolk, (of J. J. Norfolk & Bro.) 60 S. Charles St., Baltimore, Md.

Messrs. Kirchartz & Whiteman have discontinued the retail cigar trade, and will hereafter manufacture only for the wholesale trade. Their cigars are of a nice quality, and their customers have increased so rapidly that they are considerably behind with orders, which speaks well for the goods they turn out.

David J. Mohney, late a resident of Guitonville, Green township, but who for some months past has lived at Marienville, died at his home in that place Feb. 11th, 1891, aged 54 years, 5 months and 28 days. Mr. Mohney was a good citizen and neighbor, and will be missed by a large circle of friends by whom he was much esteemed.

Recorder J. R. Clark, of Forest Lodge, A. O. U. W., had the pleasure, on Monday of this week, of handing to Mrs. M. Andrews, widow of the late R. R. Andrews, a draft from the Grand Lodge of this jurisdiction for $2,000, the amount due on his beneficiary certificate as a member of that order. This is the fourth payment of similar amounts that has passed through Forest Lodge to the widows or orphans of deceased brothers of that lodge. There is no solider beneficial order in existence than the United Workman.

We devote a good deal of space this week to a very complete summary of the proposed new road law, which is just now claiming a large share of interest in the minds of the people of the Commonwealth, and which will doubtless have its supporters and opponents in all sections. To get a general law, suitable to all classes would be a human impossibility, but that this measure, with a few amendments here and there, comes pretty near fitting the case is believed by a great many who have given the matter much thought. The cash payment of all road taxes, and the failure to provide for some compensation to Supervisors, seem to be the most objectionable features of the bill. Read it.

—Owing to the inclement weather and high water, which claimed his attention to other matters, Mr. Lawrence postponed his sale, which was to have taken place yesterday, until a future time. In the meantime should any one want anything in the line which he had advertised on the bills, they can secure good bargains at private sale by calling on Mr. Lawrence.

—Miss Blanche M. Pease, teacher of Starr School, makes the following report for the month ending Feb. 10, 1891: Percentage of attendance, males 91, females 85, total 88. Those present every day during the month, Maude Weller, Rosa Burhen, Anna Zundel, Archie Heath, Willie Ehlers, Albert Behrens, Asa Heath, Conrad Ledebur. Those missing only one day, Dora Lohmeyer, Minnie Ledebur, Sophia Ledebur, Henry Bush, John Dice, George Burhen, Henry Lohmeyer.

GREATEST FLOOD SINCE 1865.

The Allegheny river was the highest last night, it has been at this place, on a natural rise, for twenty-six years, or since the memorable flood of the spring of 1865, when the lowlands were swept from its source to the mouth. Tionesta creek also yesterday reached its highest point since that great flood. The heavy and almost incessant rain from Sunday night till last night, with the large body of snow and ice still left in the big woods, could scarcely be expected to produce any other result. Strange to say, in this region, or as far as can be ascertained, the damages done by the flood have been comparatively small considering the magnitude of the rise. The water is now backed up into the lower portion of the town, and some of the residents along Water St., "moved back" last night as a precaution against possible danger, although all could have remained in their domiciles without danger, as about midnight the water had reached its limit of height and immediately began to recede. The principal losses have been by lumbermen and jobbers along Tionesta creek, and the "drift" has been mostly saw-logs, with some railroad ties mixed in. According to old residents the river still lacked between two and three feet of reaching the high-water mark of 1865.

Yesterday morning between nine and ten o'clock a horse was seen floating down the creek and passed out into the river. Something resembling a pair of thills seemed to be hitched to the animal, but those who saw the horse could not get near enough to distinguish whether it was that or driftwood. A dispatch from Sheffield last night throws some light on the subject: "Two parties named Dalton and McBride, of Portkey, lost a horse and buggy while driving along the creek road and narrowly escaped with their lives." Other news from the head of the creek says, that the dam at Martin's Station gave way, letting between 3,000 and 4,000 logs loose. They must have lodged along the creek, as no such amount passed here, unless during last night, although at times yesterday the "algereneing" was quite profitable.

RIVERS AT PITTSBURGH.

At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon both the Monongahela and Allegheny showed 26 feet and still rising at the rate of 6 inches per hour. The Allegheny is higher than at any time since 1883, when it reached 32 feet, and it was thought at 1 o'clock this morning, that the flood would equal that. The greatest flood is in the Allegheny, which has backed up the Monongahela for miles. Should the river raise much more, which seems probable, great damage is looked for.

Clarington.

As me and my companion air a visitin and takin in the sites and sounds of Clarington and vicinity, I thout I would rite and tell you sumthin to put in your paper, that weve bin a sein and a herin.

In the first place they are a bildin too new stoves, one is an old skule house they moved down. It will be a gude thing for Clarington; as I've allus heard it said, complication waze the life uv trade.

Clarington is a purty little town; and they hev the best side walks; you could find thru most any time and break your neck. They tell me there is a gude deal uv people sick; Im glad of that, not that the people are sick, but the Doctors 'll git sumthin to do to make money. I allus pity doctors.

I see Mr. Nosey is in town this winter, and I here people hereabout a sain other peoples bizness will be well tended to.

Me and Jonathan tended an institute sum time ago. They had a rale nice time but I wuz most interested in sein the fellus clinin over the benches to go with the gurils.

I dont see Sally Scrubbins in the paper. I guess he must hev had the grip. I say he cause anybody nose no female woman rote that piece.

Hopin to hear from Sally, and the rest uv your correspondents quite often, ex I dont expect to rite agin, I'll bid all good-bye. Yours truly, JERUSAH JANE.

SPRING ELECTIONS.

The elections in this borough and township yesterday were the quietest and most inanimate that have taken place in a long time. The citizens of the borough held a well-attended caucus at the Court House, Monday evening, which was rather lively for a time, and the following ticket was placed in nomination, which was elected yesterday, the turnout at the caucus being greater than at the polls:

BOROUGH.

Burgess, A. E. Wenk. Councilmen, A. H. Dale, W. A. Grove, High Constable, Wm. Hamler, Judge of Elections, R. B. Crawford, Inspector of Elections, H. O. Davis, J. J. Landers, School Directors, J. T. Brennan, D. S. Knox, Collector, S. S. Canfield, Overseer of the Poor, F. R. Lanson, Assistant Assessors, H. O. Davis, Justis Shawkey.

THE TOWNSHIP.

held a caucus on Saturday preceding election and nominated a ticket which was elected, as follows:

Judge of Elections, John B. Eden, Inspector of Elections, Frank Monday, Selden McCray, Assistant Assessors, Wm. Mealy, Henry Sibble, Tax Collector, W. H. Wolf, Auditor, John B. Eden, Town Clerk, Curtis Rhodes, School Directors, John Passaner, John Wolf, A. W. Stroup, John Wilos, Road Commissioner, George Monday, Overseer of the Poor, Ernest Sibble.

STATE CAPITAL GOSSIP.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 16, 1891.

The principal interest this week has centered in the Burdick oil bill and the medical bills. Large delegations from the oil country being present and heard on the former and almost as large delegations of doctors listened to on the latter. The Burdick oil bill has been "cussed" and discussed by both sides vigorously in committee. The bill is before the Judiciary General committee of the Senate and the Corporation committee of the House. The same delegations appear before these committees at different times, so a double dose of the same medicine is given to mutual listeners. One night the audience and delegations before the Senate committee were so large that they adjourned to the Senate chamber, and opened the doors. Ex-Senator Lee opened for the bill and Miller of Franklin, against it. Lee had the best of the argument, though Miller made some good points. The passage of this bill is somewhat complicated by the opposition of the independent refiner, much to the surprise of the reasons so far assigned seem to your correspondent to be sufficient to account for it, except one. That is this, that the Standard people have of late let the independent refiner alone and he is making money, if the bill passes, it encourages more independent refineries, and thus brings more competition into the business, that bears against the present independent refiner, as well as the Standard Oil Company. Hence the independent refiner now in business opposes it for the same selfish reason that the Standard does. Another position taken is, that as long as matters are in statu quo the Standard Oil Company will let the present outside refiner alone, but if the bill passes, it will open its batteries on the outside man and down him as usual. Be that as it may, the fact remains that the independent refiner is opposing the bill. The expressions and information given in these letters are not intended as a tribute to the right and are large, round and legible. The writing is strikingly attractive when written by one accustomed to it, but remarkably funny and crazy-looking when written by a novice. However, a little patience will be rewarded by as saw-saw an effect as one would wish.

TIMBER LAND.

300 acres of first class timber land in Somerset County, will be sold at public sale on Friday, February 20th, 1891, at the Court House, Somerset, Pa. Inquire of M. F. Lenson, Master in Chancery, Kittanning, Pa., for further particulars.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. P. M. Shront, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mount, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 20 lbs. in weight. For Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at Proper & Douth's Drugstore. Regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.

Spectacles Given.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuritis and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite all away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters for Consumption, and the sore healed. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg. Doctors said he would incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Proper & Douth's Drugstore.

How often we hear middle aged people say regarding their reliable old though remedy, N. H. Down's Elixir: "Why, my mother gave it to me when I was a child, and I use it in my family; it always cures." It is always guaranteed to cure or money refunded. For sale at Bovard's.

Costiveness can be permanently cured by the use of Baxter's Mandrake Bitters. For sale at Bovard's.

NEW RELIGIOUS CYCLOPEDIA.—Wanted an intelligent lady or gentleman to introduce our new "Concise Cyclopaedia of Religious Knowledge" to the attention of the Christian people of Tionesta and vicinity. Nearly 1000 pages. Over 5000 titles. Grandest religious reference book ever published. Sells splendidly. For terms address A. J. Fetter, Manager, 3 East 14th St., New York.

NEWSY NOTES.

Many years practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., Solicitors of Patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of invention. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents.

The girls of a neighboring town have formed a sort of an organization and have pledged themselves that not one of them will ever marry a man who is not intelligent, honest, industrious, good natured, cleanly in person and apparel, healthy, sober, a church member and a total abstainer from liquor, tobacco and profanity. We are afraid some of these maidens are certain to live and die old maids, for only newspaper men possess all these qualifications and there is not enough to supply all.

The skunk has the heaviest fur of any animal in the country, and is consequently valuable and salable, although when dressed it is very small. About 80 percent of all the skins taken in the United States go to Europe. C. M. Lanson has a great sale in London three times a year, one of which has just closed. At this sale there were disposed of, among other skins, 175,000 coon, 700,000 muskrat, 105,000 skunk, 85,000 opossum, 55,000 mink, and 7,500 gray fox, all of which were shipped from the United States.

The Grand Army of the Republic of the United States will ask that there be a week set apart during the World's Fair, Chicago, to be known as "Grand Army Week" during which it is designed to have a grand re-union of the old armies of the Potomac, the James, the Tennessee and Cumberland, with all the other departments, to join in a grand parade and review. It will also be proposed that the President and Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic review the great parade of 250,000 of the old veterans of the war, who are to be formed in divisions and army corps as they served in the army, commanded by the senior officer of each army living.

A lady fashion writer says in the Pittsburgh Dispatch: "To be stylish nowadays one must write a very peculiar hand, which originated with some of the leading lights of the professional stage as so many fashions do. In describing it I would say that it is a see-saw chronography, a "now-you're-up-now-down" design. The first letter is on the line, the next ascends a degree or so, while the third returns to the original line, and so throughout the word. The characters are inclined only a trifle to the right, and are large, round and legible. The writing is strikingly attractive when written by one accustomed to it, but remarkably funny and crazy-looking when written by a novice. However, a little patience will be rewarded by as saw-saw an effect as one would wish."
