The following points were made : No one can teach without preparation of heart and of mind; the teacher should be in full sympathy with his class, the lesson, and the spiritual truth to be conveyed by the lesson. In preparing he should make use of the teachers' meeting, lesson helps, and of his bible. He should begin to prepare very early. He ought to be able to teach without the aid of helps when he appears before his class,. Lesson helps are to be used at home. Bibles should be used exclusively by pupils in the recitation of the lesson. It will pay every school to keep up its Teachers' Meeting. army of book agents. That this history of Sherman, the last of the great Generals, will surpass all others in popularity is not to be doubted. The story of this great General's career

The story of this great General's career is of a marvellous march from the moun-tains of time to the sea of eternity. Of the three great war herees, Sherman was by far the most interesting personality. He was the best known to the public and the best lovel for his genial disposition and warm sympathy with the popular heart. He has joined his illustrious compers in his eternal bivonac of the the death. His is a life to study—to emulate—and is a profound inspiration. The forthcoming volume will tell the whole story of his marvellous career, and from the anthor-ship engaged upon it we are assured it will be told in a way that will enthral the interest of every reader from first to last. It is a book every American will want At is a book every American will want and one every American youth should read. It will doubtless be the best life of the great chieffain published, and we predict for it wonderful popularity.

Never there are more children in each place than there are big people. There is no praying in Heaven. It is all praise. The Bible has ten commands to praise God to one command to pray. We ought to think more of Heaven than we do. How do we know there is such a place as Heaven? | ed in the case of road views in sar Just in the same way that we know of any other place; some one who knows tells or confirm the report and to decre us. Jeaus came down from Heaven. John, the beloved disciple, saw Heaven; both these persons tell us of Heaven.

Prof. Sprenkel expects to be in Tionesta some time in November next to hold a Sunday School Institute.

The following delegates were present at he convention :

NOTICE.

Life of General Sherman. No literary announcement of the year is of greater interest to the general public than that of a comprehensive Life of Gen-eral Skerman, which is about to be public lished and sold through agents by the noted house of Hubbard Brothers, of Philadelphia. Admiralde biographies of Grant and Sheridan, complete to the time of their death, are already familiar to the public, but a life of the third great com-mander, to finish the series, has been lacking. The variaus biographies of Sherman hitherto published have neces-sarily been incomplete and even his own memoirs, written in 1875, sald almost muthine of this to the series and almost memoirs, written in 1875, sald almost
