LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 72 1/2.

Miss Bradford Pease is visiting relatives at Bradford this week.

Garden seeds are on tap, with little onions occupying the top shelf, and labeled 25c. pr. qt., or a little less than a cent a one.

Suckers are "dead ripe" now, and the small boy has discovered it by a large majority, if the strings brought in can be so construed.

Hon. S. Newton Pettis, of Meadville, was a visitor to Tionesta last Saturday and gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call.

Forty-four license applications had been filed in Warren county up to last Saturday. They will be heard on the second Monday in April.

Last Saturday was the first day of Spring, according to the almanac, and every cold day from this hence may be said to be a "lingering of winter in the lap of spring."

The REPUBLICAN acknowledges a pleasant call from Judge and Mrs. J. H. White, of Barnett, accompanied by Mesdames Fitzgerald and Morrow, of the Borough, on Wednesday of last week.

Jesse, the bright little boy of B. F. Wiggins, of Kellottville, Pa., died yesterday morning, of scarlet fever. The child was aged 4 years.

David Barnett's new store building will soon be looming upward; the lumber is nearly all on the ground, and Mason Joyce will have the walls completed in a few days now, if the weather remains fair.

The trout season opens next Wednesday, one week from to-day, legally; that it has been opened illegally ere this scarcely admits of doubt. 'T would be a breach of the rule if it hadn't been.

I have tried Salvation Oil in my own case for neuralgia and experienced much benefit from its use. It is very penetrating and always gives relief.

Rev. McAulinch entertained a large party of the Presbyterian Sabbath school at the residence of Dr. Siggins last evening. The exercises were specially designed for the younger portion of the school, and were quite entertaining.

J. M. Kepler is making preparations to build at least one, and perhaps two, dwelling houses on the site of the store building lately consumed. And this is the "burnt district" of Tionesta rising from its ashes in more substantial manner than ever.

Squire Setley did a loud-office business in weddings yesterday at the Prothonotary's office, as will be seen by a glance at our marriage notices. The marriage of father and two daughters at the same hour is rather an unusual, though by no means an unpleasant occurrence, we should say.

It is the opinion of the Oil City Bazaar that considerable grape vine planting will be done this season along the river hills and there should be more of it done. There is no good reason why miles of the hills along the Allegheny should not be transformed into continuous and profitable vineyards.

Next Sunday will be Easter Sunday, and already the hen-fruit is tightening up materially, it being a difficult matter to get any at this early stage of the proceedings. The M. E. Sabbath School has in preparation an appropriate service for Sunday evening to take the place of the regular preaching. We believe the other churches are making no special preparations this year.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Daniel Walters yesterday morning, the contracting parties being Mr. John Walter and Miss Mary Dotterer, two estimable young people, well and favorably known to many of our readers, Rev. McAulinch, of the Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony, which was witnessed by a few of the intimate friends of the bride and groom. The REPUBLICAN joins their friends in best wishes to the happy young couple.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL.

A special meeting of the Borough Council will be held in the school house basement on next Monday evening, March 30, at 7 o'clock. Amongst other business that may be transacted, the question of the purchase of a Stone Croser will be discussed, and all taxpayers of the borough who feel interested in the matter are invited to be present. J. E. WENK, Burgess. Tionesta, Pa., March 25, '91.

A FRANKLIN HORROR.

Franklin has another fearful tragedy on her hands, the second within three weeks. On Sunday morning last, between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock, the dwelling house of N. P. Tobin, a well-known merchant tailor of that city, was discovered to be on fire. Before a stream of water could be got to play on the building it was too far gone to be saved and it was almost totally destroyed. Before the fire was entirely over the horrible discovery was made that Mr. Tobin had been in the building, and his charred remains were taken from the ruins. All the surrounding circumstances indicate that there was foul play, and that the unfortunate victim had been first murdered, and the house fired to cover up the crime. Some of the details we call from the News:

"On the top of the head was found a long scalp wound, which was pronounced to be the source of the blood found on the carpet. A careful examination of the brain, however, revealed no injury to that organ, thus indicating that, if a wound was inflicted on the head, it may have stunned the victim but was not of a fatal nature. In the region of the throat were found evidences of violence. There were prints, as of a thumb and fingers, on the exterior of the throat. The upper part of the wind pipe was considerably ruptured, the lungs congested, and the tongue was forced out between the teeth. These facts are thought to give color to a theory that the deceased had first been stunned by a blow and then choked to death."

At first it was thought to have been the dastardly work of tramps which had been seen in the vicinity the day or evening before. This theory, however, has since been exploded, and to day the authorities are as much at sea as to the perpetrators of the crime or the motive which inspired it as ever, although they have been diligently at work ever since in trying to ferret out the mystery. Two men were seen running away from the building by a young man named Deets, who was the first to get to the fire.

Mrs. Tobin and two little children had gone on a visit Saturday evening intending to remain over Sunday. This left Mr. Tobin the only occupant of the house on the fatal night. All in all the mystery is a deep one and will likely require some superior detective work in its solution.

WANTED FOR PERJURY.

John Wilt, who had been shantying and keeping bachelor's hall in the northern outskirts of the city, and who is wanted on the charge of perjury by H. H. Wilson, has disappeared from the city and nothing has yet been learned as to his whereabouts. The fact will be remembered that after the Everhart murder, H. H. Wilson, of Towntown, Crawford county, was arrested on suspicion and held for several months in the Clarion county jail. One of the persons on whose testimony he was detained was a Mrs. Carter, of the Clapp Farm. He subsequently had her arrested on the charge of perjury, proved clearly that she had sworn falsely and the result was that she was convicted and sent to the Penitentiary. John Wilt was another individual who testified against Wilson. The latter proceeded to secure evidence to convict Wilt of perjury. Finally, considering his case complete, he had a warrant sworn out about three weeks ago for the arrest of Wilt. The Clarion county Constable who came here with the warrant says that when he served it upon Wilt, near his shanty, the latter went into a store and refused to come out. The Constable was either unable to bring him out or lacked the requisite nerve to exercise his ability. At any rate, he did not bring him out, but came down town for police assistance. Officer Hall went up with him, but before their arrival Wilt had changed his mind about leaving the store. He had gone, but whether he journeyed has not since been ascertained. It is claimed that he has a wife and family in Baltimore, and it is supposed that he either went there or to some place in Virginia.—Oil City Herald.

Forest County's Issues.

Commissioners of Forest County.—The condition of the patients under your charge in this Hospital is as follows:

John Clary is much disordered in mind but not so much excited as he was.

Sarah Shoupe is much deranged, rather sullen and surly.

Isaac Reed is disturbed in mind but has been quiet for some time.

William Barnhart is very much deranged and generally quiet.

Samuel Hawthorne is much confused in mind and rather dull.

Olive Noble is very quiet and pleasant except when she has the fits.

Peter Guenther has been much excited for some weeks past.

Very Respectfully Yours, JOHN CURWEN.

Forest County's Population by Towns.

By the courtesy of the office of the Superintendent of the Census we are now able to give Forest County's official population by enumerator's districts as follows:

Tionesta Borough and Township, 1,284

Harmony and Hickory Townships, 1,024

Green and Barnett Townships, 2,055

Kingsley and Howe Townships, 1,752

Jenks Township, 1,707

Total, 8,482

Total in 1880, 4,385

Increase, 4,097

If we do as well in the next ten years, and we believe our rate of increase will be greater, Forest county will be up amongst the rest of 'em. We have already forged ahead of one county, and we expect to outstrip some others in the coming decade.

Clarington.

The lumbermen are feeling good to see the spring come again.

Clarington is quite a business place at present time and is bound to rise.

Mr. Harry Bailey gave us a flying visit one evening last week.

Edward Maze, of Clarington, met with a bad accident on the 9th of this month. He fell when at work on Braden's mill, a distance of 16 1/2 feet, breaking his left arm, and injured his body otherwise. He is improving as fast as can be expected.

Mr. J. O. Lewis is staying in Clarington at present.

J. E. Cossgrove is death on kingsfishers.

J. B. Mays is thinking of going to the Watson Farm to scale logs for a lumbering firm.

J. R. Landis is building a new house this spring.

J. J. Henderson of Clarington, is feeling quite happy over his young son.

Teachers when going to settle should not go on Saturday evening when they do not take any guardians along.

Mrs. Philo Williams has been sick for some time. We wish her a speedy recovery. S. R. S.

Tribute to a Faithful Comrade.

At a regular meeting of Capt. George Stow Post, No. 274, G. A. R., on March 18, 1891, the following report was adopted by a rising vote, and ordered to be given to the county papers for publication:

The undersigned, appointed by the Post to write a tribute of respect or memorial of our respected Comrade, Daniel Black, Sergeant of Co. E, 10th Pa. Reserves.

Without detracting from other workers in our ranks, your committee feel obliged to say that, in the organization of the Post this venerable and earnest Comrade did more to establish the Post, when it was started on August 9, 1882, than any other member, and that since that time has been the most active and zealous member in our ranks. Long before our noble order obtained a foothold here, this worthy comrade was working with that end in view, and the pride which he has taken in the same, his solitary spirit, his charity and benevolence, his earnestness, and all his good qualifications has aroused the admiration of us all; for diligence he has no superior. When he joined the Post, in Aug. 9, 1882, as a charter member, he was 58 years of age, consequently he is now about sixty-seven, and during the 9 years he has been with us all the time, and notwithstanding his infirmities, and his residence about 2 miles from our headquarters, he has been as regular an attendant as any residing in sight of our hall. It was very proper, although the honor was long delayed, that he was elected to the highest office we could give him, Post Commander, during his eighth year of membership, and the Post would be ungrateful indeed if it did not remember his eminent services in the heat of summer, during the rains of autumn and the snows of winter, in visits of good will, attending to the sick and the destitute comrades of those who once wore the blue. We are thankful to Providence that this good comrade is still spared to us, and we feel that we cannot properly estimate the great good he has done in his errands of mercy, and by his encouragement when the prospects looked dark, they were always bright to him, for he cheered us on, and would not admit there was any such word as fail. We all cordially acknowledge this tribute to Past Commander Black, a man that every member of our order within the circle of his acquaintance delights to honor. Respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL D. IRWIN, J. W. MORROW, Committee.

OF INTEREST TO WRITERS.

A Labor Saving Invention Indispensable to All Who Write.

Of the many valuable improvements which have been made in self-feeding pens a great part are due to the skill and persistence of Mr. L. E. Dunlap, of Boston, who, as a pioneer in this business, has spent the last decade in perfecting the fountain pen that bears his name. The latest perfected invention is the Dunlap Double-feed Pen, and in this very double-feed lies the secret of its success.

It carries a sixteen-karat diamond-pointed gold pen, and is a perfect pocket-companion that will not only prove indispensable, but a joy and blessing as long as it lasts. It is guaranteed to write instantly, always and under all circumstances. To introduce it among the readers of this paper, the manufacturers offer for a short time only, to send it by return mail at one-half the regular price.

By posting a letter, enclosing a two-cent stamp, to the Dunlap Pen Company, 250 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., you will receive a beautifully engraved ticket worth $2, and also an illustrated price-list and circular, telling you how to make $5 per day.

—That old established cough remedy, Down's Elixir, still more than holds its own in the public estimation, despite sharp and active competition. It is a "home remedy," and in this locality needs no words of praise from us, so well known is it. It is the best remedy for coughs, colds and all throat troubles, with great numbers of our people, and their continued use and unsolicited recommendation of it speaks volumes in its favor.—Burlington Vt., Free Press, January 25, 1882. For sale by V. W. Boward.

NEWSY NOTES.

The silly couple over in Crawford county who got married in fun are now repenting their foolishness and are trying to obtain a divorce.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in an opinion rendered by Judge Paxson, has decided that church funds are not subject to taxation.

Common Pleas Judges, while holding court outside their own districts, are paid $12 per day. This is in addition to their regular salary of $4,000 a year.

Capt. M. R. Rouse, of Titusville, will run the Grand hotel at Lily Dale the coming season. The spiritualists are preparing for a big season of meetings and seances.

Umbrellas are counted as property over in Erie county. At least George McDermond, of Union City, will so consider them when he gets out of the Erie jail, in which he was lodged recently on a sixty day sentence for stealing one of those articles.

We clip this from an exchange: "Turn that wrapping paper the other side out," said a lady in a dry goods store the other morning as the clerk was putting up her purchase in a printed wrapping paper, "I don't want to be a walking advertisement to your store. I read the papers as all civilized people ought to do, and I think that in them is the proper place to advertise your business instead of sacking your customers to carry your sign around with each purchase of goods. Tell the people though the papers what you have to sell and how you sell it."

Interesting, elegant and useful.—Peterson for April deserves all these titles; for it is a number of more than ordinary excellence. This magazine stands among the foremost to-day as a purveyor of first-class literature, while as a fashion guide and instructor in home decoration and housekeeping generally, it has no equal. The stories are all good, several of them of unusual merit. There are a couple of excellent illustrated papers, one on the Palm Tree, and another, A walk through a Glass Manufactory. Terms: Two Dollars per year. Send 5 cents for a sample copy. Address, Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia, Pa.

It will not be long now ere the merry clatter of the lawn mower and low "dull thud" of the carpet beater will intermingle with the tuneful notes of the robin and bluebird in a sort of catch-as-catch-can struggle as to which shall create the most disturbance as "Old Sol" takes his first peep each morn over the eastern hills on our sleeping city. Aye, Spring, gentle creature, will soon be with us again, and the burning rubbish piles in the back yard will once more diffuse their fragrance on the neighborhood air, while the wish of the scrubbing brush will reverberate to that same old house cleaning melody. "We've all been there before, many's the time," and a lot more, etcetera.

—Don't be in a rush to buy your Spring wares or "wears." Wait till you see the layout at H. J. Hopkins & Co.'s, now being selected from the great Eastern marts. 2t.

NOTICE.

All parties having accounts with me are kindly requested to call and settle, or remit before March 31, 1891, as I go East to purchase Spring goods April 1st.
