-Irvin M. Shick was killed in the woods near Clough's Mills, Jenks township, this county, on Tuesday of last week. He was engaged in the bark woods, and with a companion, had felled a large hemlock, which had so loosened a dead birch as to leave it little or no support. This dead tree finally fell, and with such little warning that the men did not notice it. It struck the unfortunate man on the head killing him instantly. He was aged 28 years, and leaves a young his tragic end. Funeral services were Thursday following his death, conducted by Rev. Shawkey. Deceased was a brother of John J. Tionesta evened-up on the eighth inning, however, and the minth started that way among the silverware, in packing sides. At this stage Dick Davis, Tioand ended by a goose-egg on both nesta's umpire, called the game on account of darkness; while Dr. Magill, Tidioute's umpire, decided the point "not well taken," and called a batter coming, he decided that Tidioute had the game by 9 to 0. A SUCCESSFUL MEMORIAL DAY.

By far the largest gathering that ever assembled here on a similar occasion, was that which assisted in the celebration of Memorial Day in Tionesta on Saturday afternoon last. Promptly at the hour set, 1:30 p. m., Tionesta's silver cornet band struck up a slow march and headed the procession which formed at Post headquarters and marched to Riverside Cemetery. At the Presbyterian church the Sabbath School children of the town were formed in line and headed the entire column, which extended almost half the length of the town, and marched in the following order: Sabbath School Children, Cornet Band, Patriotic Order Sons of America, Post Martial Band, Capt. Stow Post, Woman's Relief Corps in carriages, Citizens. Arriving at the cemetery the usual impressive services. were gone through with, the whole being interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. Commander Jonathan Albaugh of Stow Post delivered an address to the multitude which was brim full of patriotism, pathos and eloquence, and was pronounced by all who heard it as amongst the best ever listened to on an occasion like this. Other brief addresses were made, and then the beautiful custom of strewing sweet flowers over the graves of the fallen heroes was completed, and the large throng dispersed.

The cemetery had been put in elegant repair for this occasion, and it was the common remark that it never looked half so fine. Every grave had been newly built up and trimmed, and there were few which were not literally bedecked with flowers. We understand this was the work of William Hunter, assisted by Louis Nuneman, under the direction of the Odd Fellows Lodge of this place. Certainly the transformation has been very marked, and it is expected that by another year, Riverside will be one of wife, besides many friends to mourn the finest cemeteries along the Allegheny. The decorations of business places and private residences throughout the town were very profuse. All in all the Memorial services in Tionesan honor to the town and community which helped to make them so.

The Excursion Season.

The excursion season is once more pon us, and the W. N. Y. & P. Railroad is the first to announce the opening of its popular rides at cheap rates. Mr. S. B. Newton, whose popularity extends the entire length of the routes over which these trains run, will give his personal attention to all excursions this year, which means quick time, comfort and safety to all who patronize them. The dates thus far named, at the same low rates as heretofore, are as follows: Sunday, June 28, to Bradford and Rock City: Saturday, July 11, to Thousand Islands; Thursday, July 30, to Niagara Falle: Friday, August 28, to Thousand Islands. The Thousand Island tickets will be good for ten days returning, one occasion Mr. McHenry, when "srapand the Nisgara tickets two days. A number of new Pullman coaches will be ready when the season opens, and the public will thus be better served than ever heretofore. Bear in mind the dates, and get circulars when they are distributed. Mr. Newton has prepared a handsome and elaborate excursion book of 112 pages, a copy of which can be had by applying to the ticket agents of the Road. Don't fail to get one. They are nice.

An inventor has applied for a patent on a child spanker. It is automatic, and is said to do its work well.

It is a refreshing bit of history to recall that in the year 1784 the legislature of Pennsylvania, to abolish a practice then prevailing, passed the following resolution : "Resolved, That hereafter no member shall come into the chamber barefooted, nor eat his bread and butter on the steps of the capitol."

John Duhrlinger, of Wrightsville, Bucks county, laughed when he heard the good news that a new railroad passing through his farm would greatly enhance the value of it. His laugh grew hysteric and he is laughing himself to death, going down to 110 pounds the past week from 175. If help cannot be given him he will

DIED.

WHITCOMB .- Sister Minnie Whitcomb, wife of William Whitcomb, was born on Church Hill, Forest Co., Pa., Oct. 14, 1868, and died May 11, 1891.

Sister Minnie was an affectionate daughter, a loving wife and mother. About four years previous to her death she was gloriously saved of God under the labors of Bro, R. H. Bently, after which she lived a consistent Christian life, and was a member of the F, M, Church until her death. For a number of years previous to her death she has been very much afflicted in body, having lung trouble, which was the cause of her death; during all her suffering she would never murmur er complain, but patiently endured to the end. until God saw fit in His wise providence to call her immortal spirit home, where there is no sorrow neither pain, for the Lord shall wipe away all tears from her eyes. During our last revival effort at East Hickory she labored through the congregation lovingly entreating men and women to Jesus and be saved. She finlahed her work on earth; henceforth there is laid up for her a crown of life, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give her at His appearing. Her last testimony was "there is not a cloud between me and my God," after which she peacefully fell asleep in Jesus.

Funeral services were conducted by the writer in the F. M. Church, which was filled to its utmost capacity with sympathizing friends and neighbors; her remains were laid in their long resting place taining patents for all classes of invention. to await the final resurrection, when the dead in Christ shall come forth to meet their Lord.

She leaves a husband, one child, mother and step-father, four brothers and two sisters to mourn her loss, who have
