Mrs. Martha Whittekin, whose death we chronic to-day, was born in the city of Erfurt, Saxe Gothe, Germany, May 24, 1824; her parents names were Johann and Anna C. Koeh, who emigrated to America in the year 1837.

Paul Reisinger, son of Col. J. W. H. Reisinger, of Meadville, was appointed a cadet to West Point, and last week entered the celebrated military school on the Hudson. Most of our citizens remember Paul as a bright little boy, yet in his swaddling clothes, and can scarcely realize that he has grown to the age of a young soldier.

In August, 1847, she married Frank Whittekin, with whom she lived happily until his death, which occurred in 1863. Her children are as follows: Mary C., Albert F., Henry C., and Frank F., all of whom survive her.

Next Sabbath morning, July 5th, there will again be services in the Mt. Zion church, German Hill. Sunday school will begin at 9 o'clock, and the services proper at 10 o'clock, when two sermons will be delivered in both the German and English languages.

She was educated partly in Germany, and partly in America. She seemed fond, not of light literature, but the substantial and scientific,—was delighted with mathematics, philosophy, general science, and music, and being blessed with an extraordinary memory, and clear understanding she acquired a knowledge of these subjects rapidly, as well as of the classics.
