her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of

of a fine Fourth of July boy.

Geo. Hood and family have been up from Pittsburg during the past week visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Etta Wentworth, of Rome, N. Y., is paying Tionesta friends a visit as the guest of Miss Nellie Hunter.

A horse belonging to "Bub" Mung, Tionesta township, was killed by lightning during the storm yesterday afternoon.

Joe Clark has moved into one of the new dwellings recently built by J.
M. Kepler, near the Scowden & Clark carriage factory.

The name of Miss Bertha Wilkinson, of Marienville, appears among the list of graduates from the Clarion Normal School this year.

Misses Lizzie and Vinnie Randall, Inez Brownell and Effa Clark are spending a couple of weeks at Allegheny Sulphur Springs.

Wm. F. Blum of this place, has just received the sad intelligence of the death of his father, which occurred some time in January last in Germany.

Sheriff Osgood is minus any summer boarders just now, but he is not advertising for any, and won't feel slighted if he is given the go-by entirely.

The exodus from Tionesta to Chautauqua has not fairly set in yet this season, but will likely be as large as usual before the hot wave is over entirely.

Miss Louise Dunn, of Washington, D. C., is with her grandmas, Mrs.
Sloan, Lee and Dunn VanGieson, are up from Leechburg, also visiting grandma Sloan.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Humes of Rouseville, spent last Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Watson. Mr.
Humes occupied Rev. Rumberger's pulpit Sunday evening.

Dr. J. N. Fradenburg has left Warren for North Dakota, his new field of labor. His family are at Chautauqua and will remain during the Assembly, going West about Sept.
1st.

Jake Klinefister, of Nebraska, will be laid up for a week or two.
Yesterday he made a mis-clip with an ax which found lodgement in the instep of his left foot, making a deep gash.

Editor Lytle, of the Marienville Express, was a visitor to the county seat last week, and made many new acquaintances during his stay, and added quite a number of our citizens to his subscription list.

Judge Arner's new domicile, in the North Ward, is climbing rapidly along toward completion, under the supervision of Carpenter Sawyer. The Judge will have a very pleasant abode when once it is finished.

To-day ends the troutling season, and it is earnestly hoped that the law will be respected, and the little beautiful given a show for their lives till the season again comes 'round. The yield has been very fair this year. Whether it has been on account of the increase of the fish, the fishermen or stories of the fishermen, it is difficult to determine. At any rate the gamey little fellows have earned a rest and should now have it.

Any of our friends intending to visit Chautauqua this season may secure pleasant lodgings or rent a large furnished tent for the season by applying to Miss L. M. Dithridge, 552 Haven Ave., Chautauqua.

Mrs. W. Y. Siggins sustained a severe injury to her right arm near the wrist, Monday, by a fall. When a physician arrived the injured arm had so swollen that he was unable to tell whether any of the bones were broken.

A new order of things in the extra train line has gone into effect on the W. N. Y. & P. road recently. The morning passenger train up, and the evening train down, now run daily, so that we have two Sunday trains each way.

There is already a very hot scramble going on in Clarion among the Democracy for the empty Judicial bench, caused by the recent death of Judge Wilson. Doubtless the fight will be as unseamy as all the others have been.

New walks—one in front of and another leading up to, the M. E.
Church, are among the improvements of the past few days, an example which many others in the borough should emulate. In fact, if they don't get a move on soon some one else will.

John Kron, accompanied by his wife and little daughter, paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. Fulton on the Fourth, remaining several days.
During his stay John renewed many old acquaintanceships and tried some of our trout streams with very good success.

Republicans should not lose sight of the fact that our county primaries take place one week from next Saturday, 25th inst. The Chairman's call, together with the rules will be found in this issue, and should be scanned closely. There should be a good turnout at the primaries.

Harry Keating of St. Petersburg, H. G. McKnight of the Blizard, and and Fred Morgan of Oil City, were up last Friday, and took in the last run of trout. They returned with a fine lot of 'em—something over 200, we notice by the Derrick, and the Derrick don't lie—about a few fish.

Mrs. Nellie Colegrove, of Corry, who has been critically ill for some time past, so much so that her mother, Mrs. O. C. Brownell, has been called to her bedside on several occasions, was so much improved on Monday that her mother was able to leave her and come home, and the physicians pronounce their patient past danger.

Jas. C. Pierce, employed at Amler, Campbell & Ritts' lumber camp, in Jenks twp., was instantly killed on the 25th, ult., by dropping off a train of cars that was being dropped down the siding. Defective brakes was the cause of the train running away, the others on the train at the time succeeding in jumping off and saving their lives.

Squire Wm. Richards was down from Mayburg yesterday. The new saw reel lately patented by him is rapidly growing in favor with oil operators, and it is only a question of time when every contractor will be using them, and Mr. Richards' revenues therefrom will be a thing not to be sneezed at. None are more deerv-ing of success.

Supervisor Haines has a force of men at work replacing the old rails of the W. N. Y. & P. track with steel rails, much heavier than those taken up. The work along the whole line will soon have been completed. The heavy freight traffic which the company has been having, and which is rapidly increasing has made the change necessary.

The Pittsburg & Western is building a branch down Tionesta creek from Sheffield to connect with the main line in Howe township. The grading and much of the track has already been laid as far as Foxes, at the mouth of Blue Jay creek, where a bridge is building, and up which creek the new road will run. This branch will give the company another outlet to the P. & E. road.

I. N. Patterson brought in the best well yet in the new oil field on Little Hickory, last week. It is on the Smith tract, and claimed to be good for all the way from 60 to 75 barrels. Operations in that section are already quite active, and the prospects are excellent for a nice field.
Mr. Patterson alone, we understand, has in the neighborhood of 125 barrels of a daily production.

Barring the ball game between Warren and Tionesta, there were no doings here to excite a person to the sweating point on the Fourth, the day, being a very pleasant one, passing off quietly. The game aforementioned, resulted very disastrously to our team, which allowed the Warren boys to carry away the victory by a score of 22 to 8. If our boys don't show up better than this soon, we'll be almost persuaded that Tidouct can beat them.

A game of ball between Titusville and Tionesta has been arranged to take place on the grounds here next Saturday afternoon. The game promises to be an interesting one, as our boys will do considerable practicing in the meantime, and Titusville promises to send over a good team. The turnout will doubtless be large.

If you want to see a busy lot of people just take a ride over the beautiful roads through the country and note the activity in the hay and harvest fields. One of the first and pleasantest features which you will observe is that most of this work is now accomplished while riding, and that half a dozen men with as many horses do the work that would require a small regiment of men ten or fifteen years ago. Another very gratifying sight that will meet the eye is the splendid crops that are being garnered, and that are yet to be, of all kinds.
Truly, thus far, the farmer is in it this year.

Theophilus S. Wilson, president judge of the 18th judicial district, composed of Clarion and Jefferson counties, died at Indiana, Monday morning of last week, at one o'clock.
He had gone to Indiana two weeks before to hold court, and while a long case was being tried he became ill. A few days later he resumed business and again was compelled to adjourn.
His physician made an examination and found an abscess formed on his hip from which came great quantities of pus, and blood poison set in. The most skillful physicians and the tenderest care could not save him, and after ten days he died, surrounded by his wife and children. He was buried at Clarion on the 8th inst.

The preparations for the Veterans' Reunion, to take place in Franklin, Aug. 19, are under headway. Everything points to the greatest and best annual gathering in the history of the N. W. Association. The Meadville Tribune says: "Passenger Agents F. H.
Garfield, Jamestown, of the Nypano, and W. G. Sargent, Greenville, of the P., S. & L. E., and M. & L. were in the city and completed arrangements for the P., S. & L. E. trains to run through to Franklin on Aug. 19, on the occasion of the annual reunion of the Northwestern Association, Department of Pennsylvania, G.
A. R. Mr. Sargent expects to have upwards of twenty cars of excursionists into Erie alone. All of the lines into Franklin will make special rates for the occasion."

The following is a complete summary of action by the Governor on all the bills and resolutions submitted to him by the Legislature: Total number of bills passed, 414; disposed of as follows: Recalled during the session, 12; vetoed during the session, 17; signed during session, 122; total, propriation bills partially vetoed be-one, without regard to denomination, will be made welcome.

Stewart's Run.

Harvesting has begun once more.
The crop is quite light although better than was looked for 6 weeks ago.

The Sunday School picnic on the 4th was a very enjoyable affair for the children, it being made more for their benefit than the older ones. The exercises were opened by singing, followed by prayer. The school then marched from the church to the picnic ground where a stand, seats and a table had been erected. Then the children spoke some pieces and sang some songs. Mr. H. M. Zahniser then addressed the audience briefly. We then retired to the table, completely loaded down with good things, which were enjoyed by all, a great deal being left. The remainder of the day was spent in social conversation, swinging &c., and all returned to their homes feeling the day had been well spent.

Mrs. Ida Rankin of Siverlyville, returned to her home Saturday last, after spending a week or more with her parents and friends here.

Mr. Steve Vanderlin is quite poorly.
Chas. Zahniser, who is clerking for Mr. Miller, of Garfield, was home over Sabbath, returning Tuesday of this week.

Mr. O. B. McIntyre made a trip to Lyonville on the 4th to visit his brother from Nebraska, whom he had not seen for about 15 years.

Mrs. Cummings has built a kitchen to her house and repaired her cellar wall, which has greatly enhanced the value of her property.

Stewart & Son's No. 3, on the Fair, came in this morning and shows for a 10 barrel well.

John Huddleson is helping Len.
Range harvest.

Eli Vanderlin is home from Butler Co. for a two weeks' visit.
Mrs. Connelly and Mrs. Brant of Neiltown, were down to Jas. McIntyre's and attended the picnic on the 4th.

F. E. Metcalf and family visited friends in Meadville last week.

Mrs. Jas. Hogg's parents, of Goodwill Hill, visited her recently.

Mr. Cris and family have shipped their stuff to Ohio.

Law Penzel is now pumping on the Wylly for Stewart & Son.
Our Sabbath School now has 61 enrolled and is still growing.
July 14. CITIZEN.

A DAY AT NIAGARA FALLS.

The first grand excursion this year to Niagara Falls, under the management of the W. N. Y. & P. Railroad, is booked for Thursday, July 30th.
A special train of through coaches will leave Tionesta at 6:30; Hickory, 6:43; Trunkville, 6:57; stopping at all intermediate stations between here and Olean. Fare for the round trip, only $2.50, which is certainly as low as any reasonable person could desire.
Tickets will be good to return from Buffalo on the following day, so that excursionists can stay all night in the latter city thus making the trip much pleasanter and less fatiguing. This is one of the nicest features of the outing. To those who have never seen the great falls this excursion will afford an opportunity to do so at an expense that is within the means of any one. The train will stay seven hours at the Falls, which is plenty long enough to view all the sights of interest. Returning will leave at 8:00 p. m. Excursion Agent Newton will be with the party and see to the personal comforts of all.

NEWSY NOTES.

The Wilkesbarre Record says that the old fashioned striped bead potato bug was a harmless and an innocuous pest compared to the new and insignificant looking little green bug now actively at work committing his depredations on the vines.

On the 1st inst. William Mizner, a wealthy old farmer who lives near Greenville, was buncoed out of $1,000 by two confidence men in a three card game, in which the farmer won $10,000. Then the two sharpers played the old tin box racket on the old man with great success.

The most appalling railroad accident that ever occurred west of the Missouri river, occurred at the junction, 16 miles below Aspen, Colorado, Saturday night last. Eight persons lost their lives and about twenty others were badly injured and mangled. Drunkenness of an engineer, who has since disappeared, is said to have been the cause.

The late James McHenry, whose body was exhumed June 29, at the instance of several English and American insurance companies, was insured for $5,000,000.
The companies now suspect that he took poison, which would render his policy void, and have his intestines at the Home Office, London, for examination. Where there is $5,000,000 involved the insurance companies should have little difficulty in procuring expert testimony to prove that the man swallowed seven ounces of prussian acid.

Oil City has set an example of tenderness and humanity that all other cities may well profit by. She has quite out-angled Mr. Angell, of Massachusetts.
Listen to this pretty tale of woe from the Derrick: "A week ago a basket full of kittens were thrown on a stone pile in the rear of Ed. Hunter's house on Cottage Hill. Humane Agent McFarvey took the case in hand and found they had been placed there by two young ladies, who without having the case come to trial plead guilty and paid the lowest fine—$10."

The young man who lifts his girl along by her elbow is to be seen every yard on Broadway. Nor is this style of locomotion confined to any particular class.
It is one of those fashions that occasionally starts up in the crude society of the country village, and reversing the usual rule of social contagion, spreads to the metropolis.—N. Y. Herald.

Clearfield Journal: J. T. Murphy, of this place, purchased from Denney Billot, of Frenchville, last week, a little doe fawn supposed to be about six weeks old. Mr.
Murphy is very proud of his little pet, which is a beauty, and has placed it with the one Phillip Lucas sold to Fred Cardon last week. They are as handsome a pair of young fawns as ever was seen, being of opposite sex and very fond of each other.

There's but one prisoner in the jail of Indiana county, Pa., and he doesn't care to get out. The Messenger says: "He is charged with having three or four wives, and they are not on the best of terms with him; which fact, in connection with the additional fact that he has a mother-in-law for each wife, has much to do with his disposition to stay where he is. Life is not so much a burden to him in jail as it might be were he outside, and he knows a good thing when he sees it."

Big Run, Jefferson county, heads the list with a new secret society called the American Eagles, which is to be organized throughout the country for political purposes. We presume it will be like the Junior Sons of '76; govern and control the political parties of the country about as much as the Salvation Army does the established churches. No spasmodic political party can long exist in this country without being based upon some National principles.—Clearfield Journal.

A party of men were exchanging reminiscences of early olden Saturday afternoon, and the conversation turned on the difference between the banking facilities now and then. Stories were told of carrying money from Titusville to Pleasantville and to Tidouct after night, when they expected to be waylaid every minute. One man who had been sitting quiet for some time, said: "I had an experience once that makes me bless the existence of April fool's day. I was going to Titusville one morning on the train. "By" Taylor was conductor and Ed Sackett flagman. Just before the train started Captain J. J. Vandergrift came up with a package and asked me to give it to John Satterfield when I saw him. I told him yes, and he carefully pinned it in my inside vest pocket, and told me that it contained $8,000. After walking to Titusville, I walked a square up the street and saw Satterfield coming down driving his little dun mare. I reached in my pocket and the package was gone. I ran back to the depot just in time to see Sackett kick the package off the car platform with some sarcastic remarks about people trying to April fool him. I picked it up with both hands, and never let go my grip until I saw it safe in Satterfield's hands. When I examined my pocket I found that the Captain had slipped the packet between the vest and shirt and had carefully pinned the top of the packet together. I never acted as bank runner for anyone else—one experience was enough."—Derrick.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.
From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E.
Hurd of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay, with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent
