LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 64 1/2.

The river was up to good rafting stage the beginning of the week.

Forest Board returned to his duties at Grove City College, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Law, of South Oil City, gave friends here a visit over last Sabbath.

Several of Tionesta's people are in the berry woods this week laying in their supply of the dusky fruit.

George Bush, a former Forest county boy, now of Butler, is paying a visit to old friends in these parts.

Mr. A. B. Kelly is the new member of the Republican State Committee for Forest county for the ensuing year.

Mrs. J. C. Colegrove, of Corry, is paying a visit to her parents at the Central House, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Brownell.

Mr. N. G. Cole of Nebraska, mourns the loss of an infant son, aged one week, which was buried in Riverside last Sabbath.

Mr. L. E. Osgood, head-sawyer at Wheeler & Dusenbury's fine band mill at Stowtown, gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call Friday.

Mrs. M. K. Leard, who has been visiting her parents on German Hill for a few weeks past, was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Smearbaugh over last Sabbath.

Dentist Chas. H. Davis will be at Dr. Towler's office, Marienville, during the first week in each month, prepared to do all work in the dental line. He guarantees all his work.

Rev. Jenkins and his assistants departed yesterday morning for Marienville, where they expect to hold a camp meeting, having finished his work in this place. The attendance at the meetings here was very fair.

To-day our team is in Warren "playing ball." Two games will be played, weather permitting, and as the Warren team has been greatly strengthened, as well as Tionesta's, some interesting sport may be expected.

Joseph Morgan is obliged to let the boys do the boat building at the Lawrence & Smearbaugh scaffold for a few days, being knocked out by a bad cut on the back of his left hand, the result of a misstroke from a hand-axe last Thursday.

The Warren county fair promises some fine attractions, aside from the customary big pumpkin exhibit usual to county fairs. Besides being the best in this section it is the handiest, and always draws largely from our people. Time, Sept. 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Our thanks are due D. W. Clark for the largest tomato we have ever seen. It weighed one pound and nine ounces, was solid as a rock, so to speak, and made a fair meal for the whole family. It wasn't a "picked" tomato, but one such as he gathers off his vines almost daily.

The annual reunion of the 83d Reg. Pa. Vols. will take place at Corry, Pa., on Tuesday, Sept. 8th, 1891. The surviving members of the regiment are earnestly requested to be in attendance, and a cordial invitation is also extended to all old soldiers to join in the festivities.

The Warren Mail celebrated its 43d birthday last week by donning a new dress of type, and erecting on itself a new head, besides showing general marks of prosperity in its old age. Merit gets there every time, and this case is no exception to the rule. Our best wishes to you.

John W. Beverly, one of the colored attendants at the camp meeting, was arrested here last Saturday at the instance of a groceryman of New Castle, who claims that Beverly obtained goods from him to sell at the camp meeting held there, and failed to pay them. The accused was taken to New Castle.

Mr. D. S. Drury of Marienville, gave us a pleasant call last Saturday. But it wasn't so pleasant when he informed us of his intention to leave these diggins and locate in California. He expects to go about the first of September, and will be accompanied by Messrs. W. H. Frost and Ed. Vanhorn, of Pigeon, who will take a look at the country.

Alexander Gordon, Jr., of Elkhart, Ind., stopped over a few days here with his cousins, R. L. and James Haslet, while on his homeward trip, after a few weeks of sojourning at Chautauque, Niagara and other noted resorts.

John W. Reed Esq., received the endorsement of the Republicans of Clarion county, at their recent primary, for President Judge by a very flattering vote. He will in all probability get the district nomination, and if he does, will be the next Judge of the Clarion Jefferson district, sure, a result which will be heard by his numerous friends over here with greatest delight.

Geo. Raab departed for New York last Thursday, to be present at the funeral of his brother, who met with the drowning accident, and whose body was recovered. He had been bathing in the harbor, and although an expert swimmer, is supposed to have been seized with cramps, and the exertions of his companion were insufficient to drag him ashore before he was drowned.

The Bovee & Duck well on the Ledebur farm, was finished last Thursday, and is reported dry; we say reported, for it is whispered around that there is still some mystery about it, which the operators will not explain. Hardison is rigging up on the Kaman farm and will probably start the drill to-day. This location is scarcely a quarter of a mile in advance of Wolcott's latest strike, which is still keeping up nicely at 25 to 30 barrels.

Mrs. Josephine R. Nichols, who will lecture before the convention to be held here next week is a lady of National reputation, being the Supt. of Fairs and Expositions of the World, as well the Vice President of the National W. C. T. U. She had charge of the temperance department at the Paris Exposition, and will have like charge at Chicago during the World's Fair. Her great experience and extensive travel, have given her the best opportunity to make her discourse both instructive and entertaining.

The boys of the base ball association have arranged to give a lawn tea at Dr. Siggins' on Friday evening next, and issue a cordial invitation to all. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments will be served in abundance, and those who patronize the boys may expect a good treat. The lawn will be lighted with gas jets, Chinese lanterns, &c., if the weather is fair; otherwise the good things will be served indoors. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the benefit of the ball association, which has been at considerable expense heretofore in furnishing our citizens with fine amusement during the summer almost free of charge. Drop in and give the boys your patronage.

Burglars were quite busy in Marienville last Friday night, and must have worked like beavers while they were at it. The safe at the Acme Extract Works was broken open, and the thieves got nothing. Chas. Leech's store was broken into and about $25 worth of clothing, boots, shoes, hats, &c., taken. The safe in Mr. Leech's store was not disturbed. The Machine Shop safe was gone through but the burglars failed to get anything there. This safe was not locked. The hand-car of the P. & W. Railroad was missing next morning, and it is supposed the thieves stole it and went north. They left not a solitary clue to their detection, even the hand-car had not been heard from up to Saturday evening. A pretty fly set of crackers.

One of the best conducted and handsomest dairies in the eastern part of the State that has come to our notice is the West Chester Republican, edited and managed by our fat, handsome and talented friend Jas. B. Fisher. On the 15th inst. they turned out a mammoth sheet of 16 pages, devoted principally to a review of the industries of that staid and thriving city, in which appear many handsome illustrations showing to fine advantage the numerous attractions to be found within her borders. Surely the publishers have reason to "point with pride" to the success of their attempt to show the outside world what they and their community are made of. And the people of West Chester and vicinity are slower than we think if they don't show a keen appreciation of the same.

Last Thursday forenoon, as Mr. and Mrs. J. Park Grove, who had been out for a pleasure ride, were coming down the German Hill road, their horse, a very speedy animal, took a sudden notion to run away, and all of Mr. Grove's strength was of no avail in trying to get him under control. The animal was soon under full headway, and the vehicle was dashing down the steep hill at lightning speed. After a distance of nearly a quarter of a mile had been covered and there seemed no prospects of getting the horse stopped, Mrs. Grove determined that her only chance of saving her life lay in jumping from the buggy, which she did when going at a terrible rate of speed. Mr. Grove clung to the reins in the hope of getting the horse stopped until near the foot of the hill, when he also sprang from the buggy and ran to the assistance of his wife, whom he found prostrated by the terrible leap. Other assistance soon came and the unfortunate lady was conveyed to her home, where she was found to be very severely bruised but it is hoped sustained no serious injuries. Park was also severely bruised, having been dragged some distance after jumping out, but the anxiety felt for his wife's safety has diverted his thoughts from himself. The escape of either from instant death is almost miraculous.

Frank Russell Killed by the Cars.

Frank Russell, well known to our towns-people, and a brother of Charles Russell, of this place, accompanied the excursion to the Franklin reunion on Wednesday last. He did not return on the regular excursion train which left here in the night. Thursday morning the body of an unknown man was found lying beside the Nyp-a-ann track near Sugar Creek station. The body was brought to Franklin where an inquest was held, and the discovery made that the unfortunate man was Frank Russell. The facts elicited at the inquest were to the effect that Russell had boarded the wrong train and did not discover his mistake until he had reached the station above indicated, where he got off and was walking back toward Franklin. The appearances indicated that he had lain down beside the track with his head so near a passing train that the cow-catcher struck him on the back of the head killing him instantly. No other bruises were found on his body.

There is another theory as to the manner in which Frank was killed. It is believed, while walking down the track, he was overtaken by a freight train, and having stepped off the track to allow it to pass, was struck by a projecting lumber binder that had become loosened and swung out. The fact that the only bruise about the body was on the back of the head, and that not very severe, gives plausibility to this theory which may be the correct one. Still another idea with some is that he may have met with foul play, there being no money found on his person, whereas he is known to have exhibited considerable of it during the day.

His brother here was telegraphed and went on. The body was prepared for burial, and on Friday was interred in the cemetery at Franklin.

An Incendiary Fire.

On last Thursday night the dwelling house of James Stroup was totally destroyed by fire. The house is or was located on his farm, which lies on top of the hill overlooking Tubbs Run, and about half a mile to the left of the German Hill road, beyond the Proper farm. Just across a deep ravine from James' place lives his brother, A. L. Stroup. Shortly after midnight his wife awoke him and called his attention to a bright light which shone through their chamber window. On investigation he discovered his brother's house on fire, and hurried to the scene. When he arrived the whole inside was ablaze, the side walls having as yet hardly been burned through. Not a person was in sight, and he could do nothing but watch it burn.

The house, which was comparatively new one, had not been occupied for some time, and contained no furniture whatever. There was no thunder storm during the night, to which the cause of the fire could be attributed, and so it is evidently a plain case of incendiarism. Mr. Stroup is not aware that he has an enemy so bitter that he would perpetrate such a desperate outrage, and is therefore at a loss for any clue. The house was insured for $450, but cost Mr. Stroup to build between $700 and $800.

As a general rule the perpetrator of such a crime fails to thoroughly cover up his tracks, and it is hoped that some discovery will be made that will bring the guilty to trial.

Last of the Season.

The last excursion under the auspices of the W. N. Y. & P. R. R. to the Thousand Islands will take place on Friday, August 28. The train leaves Tionesta station at 8:40 a. m., and will reach its destination at 7:00 a. m. Saturday; rates for the round trip $5.50, and tickets good for ten days. The train will be provided with sleeping cars for the night run, so that all can be provided with finest accommodations and perfect comfort. Remember the date.

Convention of the W. C. T. U.

This, the 5th annual convention of the fairest of Forest county's sisters, mothers and daughters, will be held in the Presbyterian Church, Tionesta, beginning Wednesday, Sept. 24, at 2 P. M., and closing the following day with a session at 1:30 P. M. As the object of their union grows more popular, their ranks are almost unconsciously swelling to great proportions, and the work being pushed forward with an apparent certainty of early and complete victory. The sacrifices our sisters have made in their efforts to develop a higher humanity are already bearing fruit, and we point with pleasure to the systematic education of our youth, the curtailment of the sale of tobacco and drugged cigarettes to the young, and the perfection of man and womanhood by living a pure life. With these pleasant reminiscences before us we look forward with pleasure to the coming convention as a time when something new, something interesting and something elevating will be told, and to add to the attractions the ladies have secured at considerable expense, the services of Mrs. Josephine R. Nichols, of Indianapolis, Ind., of whom the press are loud in applause, to address the people who may be so fortunate to hear her on Wednesday evening, and also to take part in the other sessions of the convention. There will be no admission fee. Come early. See detailed programs.

The Franklin Re-Union.

The eight annual re-union of the Northwestern Association is now a thing of the past, and as the smoke of that great event has disappeared it becomes us to take a glimpse of the field, bury our dead, care for the wounded, and praise the gallant and heroic acts of those who so nobly contributed their talents, money and presence, to make the 19th of August, 1891, a festal day to the "boys in blue." Other cities, whose hospitality we have shared in the past, have not been forgotten by the G. A. R. boys, and we believe our thanks tendered them as can only be tendered by the Grand Army boys, have been accepted by them. Hence, we only have now to speak of our reception at the hands of the patriotic people of Franklin. During the past history of our lives our feet have often contributed to clattering noise along her busy streets, but we freely confess at this day, we never knew Franklin until very recently. As our long train, laden with its immense cargo of boys in blue, patriotic ladies, citizens and happy children, we confess we doubted the propriety of our visit to that place, in such great numbers; not that we doubted the patriotism of Franklin; we were too well versed in her past history for that; but what would, what could she hope to do with the mighty hosts that were soon to tread along her busy streets? Soon the shrill whistle of the engine told us we were at Franklin. Every available spot of ground was so overrun with the multitude as to make it almost impossible for the boys to form in line on stepping from the platform of the cars; the only thing for us to do was to start for the city and form line as we moved forward. The bands at the head of the different organizations filed the very air and soul with music, and as we passed over the iron structure that spans French creek her great iron bars trembled; and she swung to and fro in perfect time to the music and tramp of the passing host.

As we halted in front of General Headquarters, on Liberty street, we were greeted by one of the grandest scenes our eyes have looked upon since away back to the Grand Review in Washington, May 26th and 27th, 1865. The city of Franklin is before us in all its beauty and patriotism; the decorations along the streets was simply immense, grand, even brilliant, and amid the patriotic welcome by her citizens on every hand, we felt that it was good for us to be there. Our dinner, we know not how it could have been bettered; there was enough and to spare. Our parade of more than two miles in length passed over the principal streets of the city amid showers of greetings from the viewing multitude on every hand; our old boys, animated by the grand welcome, put the left foot forward, keeping time to the drum, made the best marching possible; in fact, to better this marching, we call up the sixties. Thus, for two hours, we marched, carried forward by the enthusiasm prevailing on every hand. Every G. A. R. comrade feels glad for his visit to Franklin. Every heart within our Association does, and will ever bear testimony to the noble, patriotic people of that city. Boys, when our march of life is ended, our camp fires have died out and we have been mustered out of service, the history of our organization filled up, no brighter page will be found in that history, than that which refers to our re-union at Franklin, Aug. 19th, 1891.

NEWSY NOTES.

The school board of Corry is considering the plan of adopting a school savings bank. It works very successfully in the Warren schools.

According to an ingenious French savant, persons who laugh with the sound of "A" in "father" are frank and loyal, fond of noise and movement, and frequently of a versatile and changeable character. Those who laugh with the sound of "U" are phlegmatic, with a turn toward melancholia. The laugh in "E" is that of children, timid and irresolute. The laugh in "O" signifies generosity and robust boldness. "Look out," says the French observer, "for those who laugh in 'U,' because they are misanthropes."

A very reasonable article on fresh and dried flowers, with clear directions for drying them, and the process by which the color of the leaves is perfectly preserved, is given in the September number of Peterson's Magazine. There are also fine illustrations of dried flowers arranged in bouquets and baskets. The number is replete with engravings, illustrated stories, miscellaneous articles and poems, all first-class. Ladies will find all sorts of new, pretty and useful things in the Fashion and Household departments. In every way this popular periodical makes itself invaluable to the family circle. There is no getting along without it. Terms, $2.00 a year. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Phila.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Healed.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd of Groun, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, coughed up and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Proper & Douth's Drugstore, regular size, 50c, and $1.00.
