THOSE voters who have not paid their State or County tax within two years should not lose sight of the fact that in order to exercise their right of suffrage this year a tax must be paid on or before October 3, thirty days before the election.

HON. JOHN B. ROBINSON was elected president of the State League of Republican clubs at the convention held at Scranton last week. All the clubs organized after July 16th were ruled out, and Robinson's majority -was overwhelming. Had all the clubs been admitted the majority for him would have been as great, if not great er. Hon. John Dalzell, his chief competitor, moved to make the election unanimous, and delivered a most stirring speech on the campaign.

THE Governor has called the State Senate in extra session, to meet on the 13th prox., for the purpose of investigating charges against Auditor General McCamant and State Trensurer Boyer. Whether the investigation will show anything further than has been adduced by the courts and the committee now at work on the same matters remains to be seen, and it is as well not to pass judgment i- ad-

Don't fail to pay your taxes before next Saturday, or you may be deprived of your vote. Republicans, don't neglect this important matter.

FARMER-What are you doing,

Clerk-Waiting on you. Weighing out your sugar.

Farmer-How much are you giving me? Clerk -A dollar's worth.

Farmer-Yes, I know; but how many pounds?

Clerk -Twenty-four. Farmer - Twenty four! Why, used to be only fourteen.

Clerk-Yes, but McKinley did it. Farmer-Well, run her back and give me only fourteen pounds. If I took home twenty-four pounds of sugar for a dollar, the old woman would make me vote the Republican ticket, and I'll be banged if I do that. -Kennebec Journal.

THE Democratic party has repeatedly denied through its organs and representatives that it was a free trade party. Democratic speakers have told the people in every campaign that they were in favor of a tariff for revenue, with incidental protection. But the Democracy cannot blind the people as to its true attitude on the greatest of political questions—that of a protective tariff or no tariff. The patrick, Merritt, Custer, but he was su-Press published a few days ago the statement that the Democrat Committees of Ohio, Michigan and Ne braska are buying from a publishing company in New York city large numbers of well-known works of Henry George on Protection vs. Free Trade, to be used in the above States as a campaign document this Fall. Yet we will still hear in the manufacturing States of the East that the Democratic party is not a free trade party.-Phila. Press.

THE Democrats of the Clarion-Jefferson district bave got into a snarl over the Judgeship nomination. At the first meeting of the conference, Heath Clark, of Jefferson, and Frank R. Hindman, of Clarion, each received three votes. They adjourned to Brookville where the balloting proceeded with the same result. The Jefferson men were willing to adjourn, but would not agree on a date on which all the Clarion conferees could attend. The latter then withdrew. Thereupon the Jefferson men nominated Clark, and on hearing of this the Clarion men nominated Hindman.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL.

GEN, DAVID M'MURTRIE GREGO FOR STATE TREASURER.

CAPT, JOHN W. MORRISON.

Fassett Strikes a Keynote.

"The Republican party is a party for young men," says the brainy young Fassett, of New York. "It is progressive. It stands up; it always has stood with its face to the future. The Republican party stands for free schools, for free worship, for a free press, a free ballot and, mark this, it stands for these things not so much in platforms and promises as in performances.

"The Republican party never breaks its promises. The Republican party has ever been the party of reform, and has ever been for those things that lift menonward and upward. The Republican party invites the people to a feast of reason founded on honest performances. The Democratic party, like the Barmecides of the 'Arabian Nights,' invites the people to a feast of broken pledges and misrepresentations." Fassett Strikes a Keynote hands even on Republican votes when he needs them," says the Allentown Chronicle of the Democratic candidate for auditor general. "He can talk protection at a tariff demonstration and free trade at a Democratic county meeting, but he will have hard work to convince anybody that with the issues before the anybody that with the issues before the people this year and the taultless ticket the Republicans have in the field he stands any show of election.

"The Republican convention, too, was run by the people. It was free from boss rule. Mr. Harrity's convention was the worst exhibition of the insincerity of Democratic anti-boss pretensions we have ever had in this state. It is ridiculous for it to talk reform."

GREGG AND HIS WORTH.

A Valuable Opinion from One Fa-miliar with the Army. In speaking of General Greggs' candidacy for auditor general, Colonel John McElroy, editor of The National Tri-bune, and one of the best posted men in journalism on military plans and operations and the personal services and brave deeds of officers on the Union side in the rebellion, while chatting in Washington the other day said: "Any one who knows anything about the services of the higher officers in the late war must feel gratified at the nomination of General Gregg. The Penn-sylvanians should feel proud of such a candidate, and setting all politics aside should show their appreciation of his distinguished services by giving him an enormous majority.

"Gregg, next to Meade, Hancock and Reynolds, was the greatest soldier Penn-sylvania produced. By all means he was a greater soldier than Beaver. He was second only to the first cavalry leader of the national arms. The first was the only Sheridan. The people of the country never had a chance to know of Gregg at his real worth on account of his inherent modesty. "Take General James H. Wilson, part of whose command captured Jefferson Davis; he, by some, is thought the most dashing cavalry officer next to Sheridan. But Wilson was boomed considerably during the last year of the war, and hav-ing been associated with General Grant's headquarters he had some advantage of patrick, Merritt, Custer, but he was su-perior to any of them. He commanded a division when they began to mass the cavalry, and his services were incom-parable. He fought the great cavalry fights which preceded Gettysburg, and history records with pride the services of his battalions of troopers at that des-perate crisis of arms in the war for the Union.

Gregg was a great soldier, and for the people of Pennsylvania to do any-thing but to handsomely honor him in this campaign for civic office would im-peach their gratitude, and it might almost be said their patriotism.

A Tip to Business Men. At Logan, one of the principal towns in the Hocking valley coal regions, where Major McKfuley spoke a few days ago, says the New York Press, he was greeted by a delegation of fifty former Democrats, including a number of farmers, who declared their intention of woting for him. Among them was Darius White, a wealthy furniture manufacturer, whose family numbers fifteen.

Ear Treables are Cared In an astonishingly quick time. He will relieve you of all roaring, hissing and ringing noises, heaviness, itching, pain, running of the ear, will close up a hole in the drum of fifty years standing; will inner a drums of his own inventors with astonishingly gratifying results. Major McKfaley spoke a few days ago, says the New York Press, he was turer, whose family numbers fifteen voters, all heretofore Democrats, but now determined to vote for the Republican ticket. There are many more business men who will follow Mr. White's example, not only in Onio, but in all the states.

No Use for McKinley.

The advertisement of a cutlery establishment in the last issue of an eastern magazine says: "We have no use for McKinley. His infamous bill has advanced the wages of every cutler in the United States, while the retail price of knives has not advanced one cent. excopt with those who impose on their customers." Which is a frank confession that the new tariff law helps labor while does not increase prices.-Teledo

The Doctors treat no acute disease, but make an entire specialty of chronic and long standing disease. Cases given up by other bectors and pronounced incurable, they most desire to see. The Doctors have treated over 15,000 cases in Ohio in the last twelve years, many of which had been given up as incurable, some to be blind, and others deaf, and a large number to be invalids for life. But behold! now they see and hear and many are started on the bigh road to recovery every month. The Doctors are surrounded with the largest collection of line instruments ever in-ported to this country for examining and treating all chronic diseases of the bead, treating all curonic diseases of the bead, face, eye, ear, throat, heart, lings, stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin, brain and nervous system, cancers, tumors, piles, swellings, old sores, fits, paralysis, neuralgia, rheumatism, dropsy, gont, sick headache, debility, depression of spirits, diseases of children, hereditary diseases of all long standing chronic diseases. all long standing chronic diseases,
