NEWSY NOTES.

Most of the girls of this neighborhood understand the situation and are working accordingly, but the following, from the Christian Advocate, may be of interest to Mr. O. B. McIntyre and family a few who are rather careless: "There is a old and young. The forthcoming census will show a vast preponderance of women in all large cities. Men are becoming precious and women who have husbands who are not brutes should begin to realize the fact. What the result will be-whether men are to entirely disappear from the face of the earth, is a question too deep to Go," the New Wilmington Globe says: known in this neighborhood as the red squirrel or pine squirrel, not the chir munk. Some people will tell you that all creatures have a specific purpose to permar on bedbugs, mice, roaches, etc. But the war against the pine squirrel has been in their work around here. Thos. Howarth had six dollars stolen out of his house while at church Sabbath evening, and Mr. Baker had his apple trees stripped of all good apples not long since.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Forest County, No. 2, May Term, 1891, R. J. Huddleson, Libellant, vs. Lizzie Huddleson, Respondent, In Divorce.
Forest County, ss.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of said County, Greeting:—
Whereas, R. J. Huddleson, did on the 23d day of February, 1891, prefer his petition to our said Judges of the said County of Common Pleas for said County, praying for the causes therein set forth, that he might be divorced from the bonds of matrimony entered into with you Lizzie Huddleson. We, therefore, command you, as we have before, the said Lizzie Huddleson, that setting aside all other business and excuses whatsoever, you be and appear in your proper person before our Judges at Tionesta, at a Court of Common Pleas there to be held for the County of Forest, on the third Monday of December next, to answer the petition or libel of the said R. J. Huddleson, and to show cause, if any you have, why the said R. J. Huddleson, your husband, should not be divorced from the bonds of matrimony, agreeably to the Acts of Assembly in such case made and provided. Herein fail not.
