THE Democrats call the McKinley law a "worse than tariff." But it has increased our foreign trade during the Increased our foreign trade during the first ten months of its operation in the sum of $53,435,123. It has increased free importation from 34.00 per cent. of the total imports to 56.23 per cent., thus bringing in more than half of our foreign supplies absolutely free of duty. And it has reduced the per capita revenue from duties from $3.62 to $2.59. But facts never interfere with Democratic allegations.— New York Recorder. York Recorder.

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL, the ing interest for down trodden Ireland has won the admiration of the world. Like all great men he made some mistakes, but that his heart was right no man, not even his enemies could dispute. As a leader in a noble cause, he had no equal, and his loss will be keenly felt.

Northwest farmers would seem to be doing more than well. The newspaper in question is conservative and has not been in full sympathy with the Republican party on a number of subjects, notably opposing the McKinley bill.

THAT was a remarkable Republican meeting in Chester last night. Thousands of Republicans, burying their factional differences, which all true Republicans forget in a hot fight against the common enemy, turned out and gave General Gregg a rousing reception. There was no time there for factions; all were animated by a common purpose-to show General Gregg that the Republicans of Delaand proposed to aid him in the victory to come. A noticeable feature was the warm welcome extended their old commander by a number of cavalry. men who fought under Gregg in the came, irrespective of party, to pledge their support to the man who had lead them so often to victory, and met with a hearty welcome from him.
