WHENEVER in the history of the Republican party the full vote was gotten out the result was only a question of majority in both State and county, and often reached a surprising figure. This is without a doubt the most important matter of all. Let it be the watchword of the campaign. Our candidates are without a blemish. Let orders be passed along the whole line, and be repeated emphatically antil election day. Get out the vote!

HON. LEONARD RHONE, Master of the Pennsylvania State Grange, comes out in an address to the grangers of the State in which he urges the defeat of Robert E. Wright, Democratic candidate for Auditor General. Mr. Rhone is a Democrat, but Wright's record on the tax question is too much for his Democracy. Mr. Rhone says:

"Wright's record shows him to be opposed to the farmer's demand for equality in the distribution of the necessary burdens of government. It Dawson, C. C. Rumberger. was Robert E. Wright, representing a great corporation, that made the most bitter and unfair attack upon the farmers' grange tax bill before the senate finance committee during the last session of the legislature, and it election, the efforts of the party manis reasonable to suppose that what he agement are all directed to the election alm did as a private citizen and an em of Tilden as State Treasurer. They plove of a great corporation he would are no doubt acting on the principle do as an auditor general."

REPUBLICANS, turn out next Tuesday and vote. This is no "off year" if we care a straw for the great campaign of next year. The Democrats expect they are fooled in this hope. GET OUT pave the way for the great battle of

The Case of Treasurer Boyer.

The investigation of State Treasurer Boyer by the Senate yesterday devel ped that Governor Pattison was very badly advised when he summoned the Senate to investigate Mr. Boyer. The one great point made against Mr. Boyer in the Governor's message was that the latter had paid to John Bardsley the Philadelphia school warrant of $425,000 long before it was due. On the examination yesterday Mr. Boyer admitted that he had paid the warrant a few days after January 1st, and insisted that he bad authority to do so from the law and precedent. Then John Q Stewart, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, was put on the witness stand and testified that frequently in former years the Philadelphia school warrant had been paid in January, as it was a separate school district, and not governed by the laws affecting other school districts. To crown all, and completely cut the charge against Mr. Boyer, the secretary of the Philadelphia Board of that the school term in Philadelphia runs from January 1st to December 31st, showing therefore that when Mr. We urge Republicans to awaken to Boyer paid the Philadelphia school warrant he had done so after the term had begun, and not six months before, as charged by Governor Pattison, in

THERE are five tickets to be voted at the coming election. The first labeled "State," contains the names of the candidates for Auditor General and State Treasurer. The second, 'Delegates at Large," contains eighteen gates at Large," contains eighteen names for delegates at large to the constitutional convention. The third is not labeled on the outside, but on the inside "For" or "Against" a constitutional convention. The fourth, labeled "District Delegates," contains labeled "District Delegates," contains the names of two district caudidates for delegates to the constitutional convention. The fifth, "County," has on it the names of the candidates for County offices, which on the Republican ticket are, P. M Clark, John A.
