LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 60.
"Cold enough for you?"
"How's this for an open winter?"
—And other similar new-fangled interrogations were heard this morning.

—Mrs. Normile and children, of Hydetown are guests of Mr. Brennan's family.

—Mrs. Martha Ball left Monday morning, for Olean, where she will visit her son, J. W. Ball.

—J. J. Brooking is down from Bradford visiting with the family of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Hardison.

—P. M. Clark has a good house and lot for rent in the borough. Call on him if in need.

—Monday evening, Signalman Fones hung out his cold weather washing, and yesterday morning the blizzard was on hand bright and early.

—The President's thanksgiving proclamation is issued, designating one week from to-morrow, Nov. 26, as the day. Have you got your turkey fattened?

—Mrs. W. W. Grove is constantly adding to her Millinery stock, and new styles are almost daily arriving.
She extends to all a cordial invitation to call and look over her stock.

—Mrs. Seigel is training the class for the next Demorest Medal contest, which will take place Friday, November 27. These contests are highly entertaining and have hitherto been attended by packed houses.

—The literature on dress during the last 10 years, would form an imposing collection. Equally curious and imposing also would be the collection of all the empty bottles used in the last ten years for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

—Representative and Mrs. Twiler were down from Marienville on a short visit Monday. The Doctor, who was looking and feeling well, has our thanks for a copy of the pamphlet laws passed by the last session of the legislature.

—The Corry National Bank, which was closed by the Bank Examiner a few days ago, it is said will, in a few days resume business, and that creditors will get dollar for dollar. This is good news, and it is earnestly hoped it may be verified.

—This morning's Derrick says the W. N. Y. & P. express from Buffalo was 15 minutes late this morning.
The delay was caused by a heavy snow storm at Panama at Mayville. 18 inches of snow had fallen by 11 o'clock last night. The snow did not begin to fall here until about that time.

—If "Tattler" will write again and give us his signature, not for publication, we will be glad to give space to his items. Correspondents ought to understand by this time, no matter how good their effusions, they can not publish admittance without giving to the publisher their name as a guarantee of good faith.

—The total eclipse of the moon advertised for last Sunday evening, came off promptly as arranged for, and, barring the slight cloudiness in the first part of the programme, the exposition was good. The next of the kind is booked for 1909, so that there is no great hurry about getting out to see the sight.

—Mr. N. S. Foreman, who recently returned home from Philadelphia, where he had gone to consult with eminent physicians regarding his health, is able to go out among his friends somewhat, and hopes by first class care to fully recover from his illness. We join in the general hope that his restoration may be speedy and complete.

—With the thermometer indicating about 15 degrees, the ground covered to the depth of two inches with snow, and a little slush running in the river this morning, it really seems as if winter had come. This is the first "tracking snow" of the season and one man, Mr. Tenny, was already in this morning and stated that he had wounded a deer, and was on the hunt of a "Winchester" with which to finish his job and bring in the venison.

—Empire Meat Roasters, all sizes, at Lawrence & Smeaubaugh's.

—Martin Littlefield, an old and highly esteemed resident of Hickory township, died last Saturday night, after a prolonged illness of cancer of the stomach. Deceased was a member of the M. E. church and had been for a long time, and leaves a wife and family and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss.

—Quarterly meeting will begin in the M. E. Church, Thursday evening, and continue over the Sabbath. Communion services will be held on Sabbath morning at the usual hour. Presiding Elder Smith will be present to assist in the services. On Sabbath evening the new addition to the church will be dedicated.

—Mr. W. E. Morgan has taken charge of Mr. Kelly's oil lease at Dawson, and will "run the machine" this winter. He will have several pumping wells to look after which will occupy his time pretty steadily. A good house has been fixed up in comfortable shape and "Billy" will move up in a short time.

—Much to the disappointment of the members of the Second Presbyterian church, word was received yesterday that owing to the sudden illness of Rev. McAninch, of Tionesta, he would be unable to assist at the installation of Pastor-elect Rev. S. A.
Cornelius—Derrick. We are pleased to report Rev. McAninch much improved this morning.

—Recent and persistent train roberies, in which the express companies have been heavy losers, have brought about a new order of things. All the messengers are now armed with revolvers at the companies' expense, and the rather ominous glitter of the Smith & Wesson dauntling in the belt of one of these is a warning to evil-doers which they will do well to heed.

—On Wednesday night of last week an attempt was made to "hold up" Constable Connelly, of Hickory township, while on his way from the depot to his home on the East side. "Billy" showed too much sand for the highwayman, who, after a considerable struggle, was glad to get away with a whole carcass, and had the night not been quite so dark would no man likely be a good thief—a dead one.

—Among the magazines for December, that Queen of ladies monthlies, Peterson, is one of the earliest and the best. This clothing number of its 50th year is especially fine, being rich in illustrations as well as in its literary matter. The fashion department commends itself for the practical character of the plates, the descriptions of style and the plainness of direction for makeup. Suggestions for making holiday gifts and other articles of interest add to its value. Terms, $2 00 per year. Address, Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Phila.

—A Bradford dispatch says an investigation of the hemlock region, where the worms were abundant during the summer, is not encouraging to the owners of the timber. As it looks now, the timber infested with the "looper caterpillars" in July and August is dead, and in order to save the logs it will have to be cut down before it is a year older. Fortunately the damaged country is not of a large area. Potter county, along the Cou-dersport & Port Allegheny railroad, is suffering, also a section in north Elk county has a bad area, on the Johnsonburg & Clermont railroad, and some smaller places on the Clarion, below Ridgway and Portland.

—A few issues ago we mentioned that Hon. Andrew Cook had gone South with expectations that a change of climate would benefit his health.
We learn from a letter to a friend in Tionesta that he is at Old Point Comfort, Va. His health has somewhat improved, though not as rapidly as he and his friends had hoped and desired.
Dr. Dickson, of Pittsburgh, his physician, is with him, giving him all medical attention that skill can command.
The Dr. is very sanguine of the judge's recovery. Mrs. Cook, Miss Hattie, and Wayne, are also with them, and if good nursing and care are effective, the judge's recovery is a certainty.
They expect to go farther South and spend the winter in Georgia.

—W. Jennings Demorest of New York, has set aside one million dollars for the furnishing of silver, gold and diamond medals to successful contest ants in temperance oratory. These medals are awarded under the direction of the W. C. T. U. to the choice of three disinterested judges. Two of these contests have been held in our borough, each time filling the church to overflowing. The successful aspirants were Russell G. Dingman and William Bible, with second prizes to Missie Landers and Benj. Davis.
Another of these attractive contests will be held Friday evening, Nov. 27, and we would advise all our friends to be on hand at the first ringing of the bell. A small admission will be charged.

—For bargains in Furniture go to S. H. Haslet & Son's cheap furniture store.

—Monday evening a goodly number of the citizens of the borough met at the Gas office for the purpose of informally discussing a proposition to secure the plant for Tionesta for the manufacture of the Richards Sand Reel, a new invention by Mr.
Wm. Richards, and which has received such tests as to thoroughly demonstrate its merits, and at once place it on the market as one of the necessary articles of the oil operator's outfit.
Mr. R. was present and explained in a very lucid manner the workings of his patent, and stated that he was willing and anxious that Tionesta should have the benefit of the manufacture of the same if the proper encouragement could be secured. After considerable discussion a committee was selected to confer with the monied men of the place as to the feasibility of establishing a plant here and report at a future meeting. Here is an opportunity to start an industry that would unquestionably be a success from the start, and a lasting one at that, and if the proper spirit is shown by those who have the means at their command there will be little trouble about the outcome. There ought to be no urging necessary in this matter.

—Don't! If a dealer offers you a bottle of Salvation Oil without wrapper or labels, or in a mutilated condition, don't touch it—don't buy it at any price, there is something wrong—it may be a dangerous or worthless counterfeit. Insist upon getting a perfect, unbroken, genuine package.

—Stewarts Run.

—This morning we are getting a much needed rain.

White & Braden, of Pleasantville, paper hangers and painters, are at work on our church this week. The church was not finished last week, as stated it would be in our last letter, but will be ready for services next Sabbath, and when finished will have quite a fine appearance. J. G. Bromley made a trip to Titusville last Saturday and got paint, paper and carpet, and these, together with the other repairs that have been made, improves things wonderfully.

Nathan Osten moved into the house vacated by Fred. Fogle some time ago.

Rob. Baker made a trip to Marienville in search of work, last week.

Nettie Thomson visited Wm. Byers' family of Bean farm, last week.

Some of our people attended the quarterly meeting at Hickory, last Sabbath.

Captain Butler and wife, of Tid-oute, visited J. A. Dawson's, last week.

F. E. Metcalf and family have moved from the Abbott farm onto the old Thomas Dawson farm last week.
Frank put runners under his little store and had Mack Vanderlin and Art Handy haul it up to that place, and now the post office is handier for some, if on the whole not so handy for others.

Thanksgiving is almost here, and it seems almost impossible it's so near.
We have had so little bad weather this fall it seems it can't be that time of the year.

Nov. 17. CITIZEN.

NEWSY NOTES.

The Pitloch pioneers will hold their second annual reunion in Titusville December 21.

Twenty-five new cottages have been commenced at Chautauque since the assembly adjourned.

The extent of the scourge of diphtheria in Stoneboro and vicinity has not been exaggerated. Recently there were eight deaths in six days, and 100 cases were reported in the village and vicinity. The schools are closed and services in the churches discontinued.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Webber, of Dempseytown, were the victims of the newspaper "special" fiend last week. He reported them both at the point of death from disease contracted in butchering and eating a porker that had hog cholera. Mr.
Webber had a slight rash, and that was all there was of it.—Franklin News.

Another murder is reported from Walston, near Punxsutawney, Pa. Mike Ranesh, an Italian, is said to have been killed by Steve Lagre in a drunken row last Sunday. The southern end of Jefferson county has been furnishing quite a number of such cases during the past few years, and the murderers have about all escaped. Perhaps that explains the difficulty.

Miss Winnie White, teacher of Clarion school, Room No. 2, makes the following report for the second month: No. enrolled, males 18, females 13. Average attendance, males 16, females 15. Those present every day, Gile Boyd, Burkett and Forest Reynolds, Eddie May, Wallace Davis, Homer Boyd, Herman Slaughterhaupt, Clyde and Jimmie Royer, Jennie May, Jennie, Nannie and Lulu Ishman, Flora and Jennie Williams, Letha Elder, Delia Reynolds, Clara Royer and Mary Maze.

Miss Kate Guenther, teacher of Neill-town school, makes the following report for month ending Nov. 13, 1891: No. of pupils enrolled 31. Average attendance 26. Per cent. of attendance 84. Those present every day during month, Belle, Myra and Willie Bowman, Bert, Bessie and Nettie Fout, George and Amos Archer, Orr Carson, Edna Graham, Fred. Anderson, Rena, Edna, Anna, Ralph, Clyde and Archie Machesney, Roy and Ailie Gorman, George Clinger. Those absent only one day, Albert Graham, Belle and Alta Anderson. The school deserves especial mention for punctuality. We cordially invite parents and school officers to visit our school.

—Take a pound of white castile or brown Windsor and stir it on the fire with a little water. Add lavender water or any other kind of essence when it is boiled to a smooth paste, but do not thin it too much. Put in half a cup or more of almond meal or of common oatmeal. Keep it in jars for use. This is an excellent preparation for keeping the hands smooth and white which was used by the belles of olden-time.

—Sorghum making, writes a correspondent, is a new industry in Clarion county.
At the McDowell mills, in Monroe township, as high as 150 gallons are being made daily. Throughout the southern part of Clarion county the cane crop was excellent this year, and the largest ever raised therein. Cane is not raised in the northern part of this county, the citizens of that section not having yet become interested in its cultivation. People who are engaged in cane raising declare it profitable.—Clarion Democrat.

—Some 15 years ago a young man of Meadville, Pa., while out hunting, picked up a peculiar looking dark-colored rock, which had so much the appearance of lead that he took it home and melted and made bullits of it. Not until several weeks ago have the real facts come out. The find has been so satisfactory that a company has been formed to develop the find. Two men were started to work and more will be put on as soon as the work progresses.
A smelter and all necessary machinery will be put in at once, and the work proceeded vigorously as long as there is any sign of profit. The vein is about four inches thick and two feet wide.

—Something About the East.

—FAGUNDS, Nov. 9, 1891.

MR. EDITOR:—It was a mistake, the mention that Miss Lillian Miles is to teach the Whig Hill school. She is still in the east, and will be yet for some time. She is taking lessons in music, and is also enjoying her visit there very much. In one of her last letters she writes me as follows:

Mrs. K. and I took a little trip to the city Monday. We boarded the 7:33 train at Wellington, and when we reached Boston took an electric car and went out to Chestnut Hill, I think about five miles.
It was a lovely ride through what is called the "Back Bay" district. It is land that has been built up from the swampy lands bordering the bay, and now one of the finest parts of the city. Chestnut Hill is the location of one of the reservoirs which supplies the city with water. The reservoir is a lovely little lake with stone banks, (or rather walled up with stone), surrounded by a beautiful park with shady walks and drives. Rustic seats are placed here and there under the trees and we sat down for some time enjoying the delightful quiet and seclusion of the place. At the entrance to the park is a large arched gateway with the inscription "City of Boston, Chestnut Hill Reservoir." Upon it at another entrance is a flight of stone steps, and at the top a pretty stone building, built over the water. Here the water is regulated in pipes which carry it to the city. There are many rocks overgrown with ivy and honeysuckle and varieties of wild flowers, but no tame ones, and frequently the inevitable warning, "do not cross on the grass or pull the flowers." We returned home feeling that we had enjoyed a pleasant day.

On matriculation day of the University I went to Boston on the noon train. Mr.
W. met me at the depot and we went up to a restaurant on Washington street, where a party of students took dinner.
After dinner there were a few toasts. Then we went up to the School of Theology where were gathered the Hon. Ton of the occasion, viz: Dr. John, Pres. of De Pauw University; Dr. Bowman, formerly Dean of De Pauw; Rev. Joseph Cook, and others.
After dinner speeches were given by all the celebrities and many of the professors and students. The speeches were mostly humorous and very enjoyable. In the evening the De Pauw students had their annual reunion. I had the pleasure of meeting Dr. John, and of renewing my acquaintance with Mrs. Dr. Bowman, who renewed her cordial invitation to come to New York; said her daughter would accompany me to all points of interest in the city. After spending a social hour in the library we adjourned to the refreshment room where ice cream, cake, fruit, chocolate, etc., were served. Then Dr.
John gave a little informal talk and we took a late departure home.

I have lately enjoyed a trip to Chelsea with other delegates to attend the anniversary of the Y. P. S. C. E. Arriving at our destination we found the social part of the program in full progress. Several hundred people gathered in the vestry of the elegant church, all enjoying themselves apparently very much; we joined the happy throng and after a half hour's sociability, the folding doors of the immense dining room were thrown open, the orchestra struck up, the company formed in a procession and marched into the dining room, which, by-the-way, was a picture in itself. Long tables laden with everything good to eat, and ornamented with autumn leaves and flowers and large lamps with umbrella shades of every color possible.
The menu was elegant and included sealtoped oysters, lobster salad, pickled tongue, etc., etc. After the repast several speeches were made, a young lady rendered a solo, the orchestra played, and, well pleased, we departed for home.

My lungs were badly diseased, and my
