LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 58 1/2.

Mr. Benjamin May spent last Sabbath with friends in Fracklin.

Mr. Fred. Scowden, of Meadville, is paying a visit to his brother, J. C.

Dr. A. Fisher, Dentist, will be at the Lawrence House during court week.

This is a royal good time, and the REPUBLICAN ditto place, to plant Christmas ads.

Hon. Henry Brace of Warren, was a visitor to town yesterday, and gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call.

The ladies did splendidly at their Bazaar sale last Friday evening, netting a nice sum for the public reading room project.

The Sabbath Schools are considering the matter of Christmas trees. Meantime the little ones are holding their breath in expectation.

Miss Blanche Fry returned to day from a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Hawk, at Nebraska, Forest County.—Oil City Blizzard.

There will be no services in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath, Rev. McAninch having accepted an invitation to assist Rev. D. Elder, of Clarion, on that day.

Burns or wounds should be attended to carefully, especially in cold weather. We should recommend Salvation Oil for such cases. All druggists sell it for 25 cents a bottle.

A new post office has been established near Wolf run, in Jeaks township, this county, and will be known as "Parrish." Mr. Robert Parrish is the post master of the new office.

Expecting to remove from Tionesta to Buffalo, N. Y., about the last of January, Dentist Chas. H. Davis, requests all who desire his services to call as early as possible, and avoid a rush in the last few days of his stay.

All alone, unheard, unknown—he makes his moan—in a fifth-story bedroom. The reason is obvious, he is suffering everything with a cold and hasn't got a soul to step across the street for one small bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Editor Cowan of the Warren Mail knows how it used to be when he says "It isn't too early for the boys who have been out of Sunday school since the close of the picnic season to begin to look around for the school which is certain to have a Christmas tree."

Messrs. Blakely & Bradbury have in operation a shop for the manufacture of marble tomb stones, monuments, &c., on River St., just above the residence of Hon. E. L. Davis, where they are turning out a nice class of work, Mr. Blakely being a good operator. Some of his work may be seen in the cemetery and speaks for itself.

Proceedings have been instituted to test the validity of Michael Cashman's claim to the office of Associate Judge of Elk county. The contest is based upon the irregularity of the tickets voted at the last election, his name having been printed on the regular Democratic county ticket, when it should have been on a separate ticket headed "Judiciary."

At the regular meeting of Forest Lodge, A. O. U. W., last Friday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: P. M. W. Jas. Canfield; M. W. Wm. P. Walters; Foreman, G. W. Dunkle; Overseer, J. E. Wenk; Recorder, L. J. Hopkins; Receiver, J. B. Hagerty; Fin. Gen. W. Bovart; Guide, J. S. Eden; I. W. L. Fulton; O. W. S. S. Canfield; Trustee, J. R. Clark; Medical Examiner, Dr. Morrow.

Judge Noyes, in Argument Court last week, handed down an able opinion on the fence law in the case of Marston Greenlee vs. Jacob Eisenbaum, in which application had been made for a new trial. After citing the various laws he finishes as follows: "Being satisfied that there is no law now in force in Warren county or any part of it, which requires the owner of cleared land to fence against cattle running at large, we think our instructions to the Jury were correct, and therefore the rule to show cause why a new trial should not be had is discharged.—Warren Mail.

—Scowden & Clark are filling an order for one of their superior wagons, which goes to Oregon. The wagon is for George Blurock, who proposes taking it with him when he goes—about two weeks hence—because he can not get so good an article out there, and can pay freight from here and still save money.

—Supt. Kerr issues his call for the teachers' annual institute this week, with a gentle hint to the members of the profession in the county that, not only are they invited, but expected to be present on this occasion. His list of instructors and lecturers never was better, and it remains simply for the public to lend its presence in order to make it the best institute ever held in the county.

—Attention is directed to the card in this issue of C. E. Daniels, who has opened a machine shop and foundry in Tidouste, and is prepared to do all work in his line at reasonable prices. Mr. Daniels makes a specialty of mill work, a thing which our mill men will appreciate, as they have heretofore been obliged to go long distances for such work, and which is now obviated.

—"The Gospel of Good Roads: A Letter to the American Farmer," by Isaac B. Potter, is one of the very excellent publications just issued, for a copy of which we are indebted to J. A. Fellows, Esq., General Passenger and Ticket Agent of the W. N. Y. & P. R'y, Buffalo, N. Y. The title indicates the purpose of the pamphlet, which is nicely illustrated, and a very entertaining treatise on the subject of roadmaking.

—Chief of Police Fry was up from Oil City last Saturday, having with him some of the plunder found in the possession of the two negroes now awaiting trial in Kittanning. He submitted the gold bowd spectacles to the inspection of Mrs. Smead, who readily identified them as her property, stolen from her residence on the night of Nov. 24. Mr. W. H. Mabie, of Tidouste, whose residence was invaded on the night previous, Nov. 1st, met the chief here and positively identified a pair of nose glasses stolen from him on that night. When the Kittanning authorities are done with the culprits it is likely they will be asked to come back to this neighborhood and explain to an anxious public how they came in possession of these articles.

—An old friend in a new dress, and an article that has come to be one of the indispensables of an editor's desk, comes to hand in the Columbia Daily Calendar for 1892. The Calendar is in the form of a pad containing 367 leaves, each 5 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches; one for each day of the year, to be removed daily, and one for the entire year. The day of the week, of the month, and of the year are given, and each slip bears a short paragraph pertaining to cycling or some kindred subject. At the bottom of each leaf is blank for memoranda, every leaf being accessible at any time. The stand is an entirely new departure, being made of sheet metal finished in ivory black, and is very compact. A more desirable desk companion could not be imagined. The Pope Mfg. Co., Boston, has our thanks.

MORE BURGLARS.

Sunday night last burglars made another raid on Tionesta, the victim this time being Louis Nuneman, who lives in the old Venango house, near the eastern end of the bridge. About one o'clock Mrs. N. heard strange noises in the house and awakened her husband, who jumped out of bed just in time to hear the retreating steps of a man at the back door. He discovered his pantsloves lying near the door, and further discovered the absence of $1172 in money which he had in his pockets when he retired. Louie gave the alarm and a number of citizens parolled the town till nearly daylight, and believe they had the thieves in pretty close quarters at one time, but were not aware of it until they had made good their escape. Two men—a tall and a short one—were seen by a lady trying to gain an entrance to the old skating rink, presumably to hide, and it was here that close search was made. After the searchers had moved to another spot a racket among the board piles near by was heard which is supposed to have been the hiding thieves, but having every advantage in their favor they succeeded in escaping.

It never just as everybody "told you so," no sooner has the scare from the raid of few weeks ago subsided, when another is made, and had they not been disturbed evidently on the "start in" more houses would doubtless have been visited. Let everybody be well loaded and sleep with one eye open until a few members of the gang have been weighed down with cold lead.

County Institute.

The teachers' annual county institute will be held in the Court House, at Tionesta, during the week commencing Monday, December 28, 1891, at 2:30 P. M. Supts. Geo. B. Lord of Venango county, and C. J. Swift of Elk county, will be the principal instructors. Mr. F. A. Wheeler of Titusville, will have charge of the music at both the day and evening sessions. Every teacher in the county is expected to be present. The same reason, only, that would keep him away from his school, should keep him away from this institute. Thursday afternoon will be directors' day, at which time subjects relative to their duty will be discussed. On Monday evening the fourth Demorest Medal Contest will take place. Tuesday evening a lecture by Dr. James Hedley, subject, "The Sunny Side of Life." Col. L. F. Copeland will lecture Wednesday evening on "Seeing the Elephant," and Thursday evening on "Handsome People."

The Juice of half a lemon in a teacup of strong coffee, without sugar, it is said will often cure sick headache.

Bradford has a toothpick factory which turns out 15,000,000 per day, and the cuttings of the log are used to make splint baskets for strawberries, grapes, etc. The pay roll is $1,000 a month.

An exchange says a gang of soap swindlers have been doing Kittingann. They sell a box of villainous soap for $2, offering as a premium a rubber door mat with the victim's name worked thereon. The $2 is invariably collected and the box of alleged soap delivered, but the door mat never arrives. Look out for them.

The Butler Citizen is responsible for this: A lady school teacher of that place took a school boy to task one day for being away a whole week, and he excused himself by saying that she had told all the school's not to come to school if they had any contagious diseases at home, and that they had a new baby at his house. He was excused.

The epidemic of diphtheria in Stoneboro abated almost as rapidly as it came on. There has been but one case in the town during the past week. The schools have resumed. One of the methods employed to exterminate the disease and prevent the spread of the contagion was peculiar. Large sulphur fires were started in the streets throughout the town and especially near those houses containing cases of diphtheria. These fires were kept burning day and night, and supplied with coal from the mines near by, containing a large amount of sulphur.—Franklin News.

There are few persons who would think of stealing the money with which to buy Christmas presents, yet there are many who in reality do this. There is a pleasure in giving which prompts many a man to throw consistency to the dogs. The man who feebly buys presents with money which he honestly owes to others is virtually stealing it. The better way, before making Christmas presents is to find out what you owe and pay it. Settle up the little accounts with the grocer, the butcher, the baker and the printer, and then, with a clean conscience, go ahead and provide for your friends.—Blizzard.

—We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to fail. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Proper & Douth, Druggists.

William Dean Howells is to write a story especially for girls. It is said that Mr. Howells, who is perhaps the foremost of living American novelists, has long had in mind a story of American girl-life, which he believes will be the best piece of work he has ever done. The great novelist has now been induced to write out the story, and at present he is at work upon it. It is a novel unlike any which Mr. Howells has ever written. It deals entirely with the struggles of a Western girl who goes to New York, and the story will have about it all the flavor which attaches to a tale of city life with a young girl as the central heroine. Heretofore all of Mr. Howells' novels have gone to the Harpers, but this special girls' novel will be printed during 1892 in The Ladies' Home Journal, of Philadelphia, the publishers of which have bought the exclusive rights to the story from Mr. Howells. The novel is to be beautifully illustrated, and Mr. Howells himself believes that it will be as attractive a story as any with which his name has been connected.

To Whom It May Concern.

I will be in Hopkins & Co.'s store this week and will open my stock of Christmas goods, and leave the very choicest things with them for my many Forest county friends, and I hope nobody will be forgotten, especially the children.
