JOHN R. OSGOOD, Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office, Tionesta, Pa., February 3, 1892. With an eye on Senator Hill, the New York World says: "No nomination secured by sharp practice or maat ie manipulation can command the Democratic conceptions of free, popular action."

THE actorious thief, and morderer of Detective Gilkinson, Frederick Carlton Fitzsimmons, alias Ambrose G. Budd, alias Anderson, alias Jellick, alias A. B. Charles, who escaped from prison, at Pittsburg, on the night of September 14, 1891, while awaiting trial for murder, was arrested shortly before 12 o'clock Sunday night at New Orleans.

THE war with Chili has been fought nd won, so to speak. Secretary slaine, by intsruction of the President, has informed the Chilians that their apology is ample and satisfactory to the people of the United States, and that whatever reparation is found to be necessary on account of the Baltimore affair can be peaceably and honorably adjusted. And so the war's over and everybody's happy.

r a meeting in Philadelphia on the 29th inst., the Republican State Committee selected April 20th as the date for holding the State Convention at Harrisburg. Lieutenant Governor Louis A. Watres presided, and the meeting was well attended. A resolution commending President Harrison's ability in handling the Chilian dispute was unanimously passed, with another, iking Chairman Watres for his vices in the last campaign. No empt was made to choose Senator Quay's successor in the national committee.

THE proprietors of the Beaver Star, John H. Mellon and W. H. Porter, who were convicted of libel against Senator Quay, received their sentences on Monday of this week. Both received the same sentence, viz: Costs of prosecution, $600 fine each, and six months in jail. In concluding his remarks to the prisoners Judge Wickham said: "Nearly two weeks have elapsed since your conviction, yet not one word of explanation or apology has appeared in your newspaper. Under the circumstances, to make the sentence unduly light would be to turn the proceedings heretofore bad in this court into a mockery, and to judicially condemn and abrogate the law itself. For your sakes and, indeed, for my own, I am pained that you have left the Court without the shadow of a pretext for being largely merciful."

ODD FELLOWS' RECEPTION.

By far the largest delegation of Odd Fellows that ever visited Tionesta was that which partook of the hospitalities of Tionesta Lodge, No. 369, I. O. of O. F., last evening. Marienville and Tylersburg Lodges were invited to come as a body, while other brothers in the surroundings were individually welcomed. The meeting at the Lodge room continued until about 11 o'clock, during which some initiations and degree work were performed by 369's excellent team. The party then repaired to the Central House to enjoy a royal banquet arranged for the occasion. Covers were laid for upward of one hundred, and had the weather been less inclement the number would have been doubled. There was an abundance of good things, Landlord Brownell fully sustaining his old time reputation for getting up good supports. Brownell fully sustaining his old time reputation for getting up good suppers. It was after the midnight hour ere the party broke up and the visitors sought their couches, and there were none but their couches, and there were none but pronounced the reception one of the pronounced the reception one of the set they ever enjoyed.
