Saturday last, a daughter.

—Mr. J. A. Byerly was down from Hickory this morning.

—We had a pleasant call from our old friend L. B. Wray, of Marienville, this morning.

—Ladies' and Children's untrimmed felt hats for fifty cents, formerly one dollar, at Mrs. W. W. Grove's, It.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Myers, of Pittsburgh, arrived this morning on a visit to Mrs. M.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Walters.

—Clyde Smith of Stewart's Run, was called to the bedside of his mother at Sandy Lake, who is seriously ill, on Saturday last.

—Alex Eitch returned from Erie hospital, Monday, very much improved in health. In fact, about as well as ever, barring a little loss of flesh.

—Beginning next Saturday evening Camp No. 420, P. O. S. of A. of this place, will meet on Saturday night of each week, instead of Monday, as heretofore.

—Charlie Russell killed a fox last Friday not far from town. At least he said he did, and kept such a straight face while telling it that we took the story in all right.

—All of Mr. J. B. Pearsall's Forest county friends will sympathize with him in the loss of his little six-year-old son, Wayne, who died of grip on Saturday last, at Grove City.

—John Emert, a brother of County Commissioner Emert, fell on the icy pavement at Marienville, last Thursday evening, and fractured the bone of one of his legs below the knee.

—Miss Ida Paup, teacher of Room No.
3, has been suffering with the grip during the past two weeks, and in consequence the pupils of that room are enjoying a vacation. She is improving.

—Skating is all the go now, or was before the thaw. The few places where the ice was good for skating have been well used. We have some good skaters, but most of them are out of practice.

—The power of music, all our hearts allow," but there are a few ignorant persons who have not learned yet, that all colours are cured by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Buy it and try it, 25 cents a bottle.

—The King's Daughters will hold a box festival in the lecture room of the school house, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. All the ladies are invited to come and bring a box. Proceeds for benevolent purposes.

—Save at least thirty cents per hundred by buying Flour and Feed at Proper & Douth's, who offer No. 1 Chop at $1.10; cents, and other Flour and Feed in proportion.

—Editor Kepler of the Democrat, whose illness has kept him at his Centre county farm for several months, returned home yesterday, considerably improved in health. His n-physician, Mr. Aaron Kepler of Lancaster, accompanied him.

—There is a slave whom we have put in prison." Aye and we'll keep him there, he was a tyrant once, but his reign is over, his sceptre lies in the dust. His name is pain, and his conqueror is the far-famed and world-renowned Salvation Oil.

—County Commissioners LeDebur, Mc-Intyre and Emert, started on their triennial tour of the county for the purpose of hearing appeals from the recent assessment, on Monday of this week. It will take until the 12th of the month to finish the job.

—Dentist Chas. H. Davis, goes to Buffalo to-day, where he will locate and practice his profession. Mr. Davis had giving excellent satisfaction. He built up a nice practice and we had hoped to have him remain. We wish him success in his new and wider field.

—A fresh milk cow belonging to Postmaster Knox laid down and flunked out on Saturday evening last. Cause unknown, but presumed to have choked on a frozen apple. A year ago apples weren't so plenty as to be laying around freezing for cows to choke on.

—During these thaws it would be a good thing if the sidewalks were cleaned of the slush. A little time and energy expended in this direction would add much to the comfort of pedestrians, especially the ladies, and give to visitors the impression that our walks are used.

—The dwelling occupied by George Blosser, at President, was destroyed by fire on Saturday morning last, together with about all Mr. B.'s household goods, entailing a loss upon him of about $200, with no insurance. The building belonging to Mr. Clapp, who will erect another in its place as soon as possible.

—The family of Frank E. Bible, Esq., have gone to Philadelphia, which will be their future home. Mr. B. will remain in the county till after the February term of court, when he will join his family. During their two years' residence in Tionesta they have gained the esteem of all our people, who are loth to have them depart from their midst.

—Yesterday was Candlemas, more generally known as groundhog day. The sun didn't peep through the dense fog and clouds o'—and so mister G. failed to —consequence of which —Constable Canfield announces by posters that an election will be held in the Borough, on Tuesday, February 16, for the purpose of electing the following officers: Burgess, High Constable, three Councilmen, Judge of Elections, two Inspectors of Elections, two School Directors, Tax Collector, Assessor, Overseer of the Poor, two Auditors.

—A dwelling house belonging to H. V.
Curry & Co., situated at Gilroy's, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday, 20th ult.
Its contents were also destroyed; the loss will be about $500, with no insurance. It was thought the fire occurred from an overflow of gas, the occupants of the building being away from home at the time.—Clarion Republican.

—A young daughter of James Thomas, who lives at Haskell's Mills, was fatally scalded, last Thursday, by upsetting a cup of hot coffee on herself. She suffered the most excruciating pain until Monday night, when she died.—Marienville Express. Mr. Thomas was a former resident of this vicinity, and is a son of County Auditor W. W. Thomas.

—The January oil report of the Pennsylvania field shows 183 completed wells, 37 of which were dry; 376 wells drilling and rigs up on the last of the month; new production 12,309 barrels. As compared with December this report shows a decrease of completed wells of 21; decrease of new production 3,039 barrels; decrease in dry holes 6; net decrease in drilling wells and rigs 19.

—Thursday, January 14, was Warren's day in Congress. It was the occasion of the presentation of life size portraits of ex-Speakers Randall and Grow, executed by W. A. Greaves, of this city. Congressman Stone made the presentation address in behalf of the state of Pennsylvania, and it is needless to say was equal to the requirements of the occasion. Mr. Greaves, who was present, received many glowing and deserved compliments on his work.— Warren Ledger.

—W. W. Kemble, Esq., for the past few years a resident of West Hickory, died at his home on Wednesday last week, and was buried at Tidoute, his former home, on Friday following. His trouble was grip, from which he had suffered some time. His age was seventy years, and he was a brother of Dr. Kemble of Tidoute.
He leaves a wife and four children—Miss Sena, Mrs. Wilkins, and Henry C. Kemble of Hickory, and our former townsman Grant W. Kemble, now of Titusville.

—Sheriff Ray of Venango county, departed for the penitentiary Monday morning from Franklin having in tow quite an invoice of prisoners. The News gives the names of the convicts and their terms of sentence, as follows: Chas. Johnson, larceny, 1 year and 2 months; John Edinger, larceny, 1 year and 2 months; Wm. Bishop, rape, 1 year and 2 months; Harvey H.
Op, burglary, 5 years a; George Robnson, burglary and barn burning, 7 years and 6 months.

—A fatal accident occurred at Clough's Mills, Jenks township, on Wednesday afternoon of last week. A young man named Wm. Huntberger, whose parents live near Shipperville, Clarion county, was sitting in the unloading of some logs from a sled when he fell and was caught by a log which struck him on the head, crushing it so badly that he lived but a short time. He had only begun work on the job that morning. He was aged about 27 years, unmarried, and was a nephew of Michael and Joseph Mong, of Tionesta township.

—Squire Briggs of Balltown, and his fiery little pony, Bob, gave our town quite an exciting show yesterday afternoon. He was driving up Elm St., and when opposite the Lawrence House, the pony took fright and despite all the sawing on the bit which the plucky Squire could accomplish, the race continued until the corner at Bovard's drug store was reached where Mr. Briggs was spilled out and the rig next fetched up at the bridge toll house.
Here the proceedings ended, and strange to say nothing was injured, but the suspense of the large crowd which the runaway attracted was quite painful until the driver's safety was assured.

—The young people's society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian Church held a very interesting meeting last Monday evening, the occasion being the eleventh anniversary of the founding of the first society. Recitations were delivered by several of the members as also short addresses and reports. This is the strongest young people's religious society, and has a membership of 1,100,000 scattered throughout the whole world, and is doing a wonderful work in training the young for successful work in the Master's Kingdom. This local society is quite strong, having a membership of about 70, more than half of whom are active members.

—Van Varner, who lives near Sawtown, drove to Oil City Saturday afternoon. He states that while on the road here two fine deer ran across the President road about two miles from McPherson's corner. A few moments later a hound followed hot on the trail. Mr. Varner tried to kill the hound with a revolver, but the speed of the animal prevented him from doing any damage. He could not say that anyone was hunting the deer or whether the dog had started them on his own account. The hunters in that vicinity are indignant at the owners of dogs allowing them to chase the deer out of this section.—Derick. It's strange this outrage wasn't laid to the door of some Tionesta dog.

—"One of the boys" writes in a sarcastic vein from President to the Derick relative to game law violations. What seems to rankle in the craw of "one of the boys" is the fact that the sportsmen of this vicinity refuse to lay under the false charges of irresponsible pothunters that they are a set of law breakers, wholesale and retail; and because the papers here chase to enter a protest against such imputation last week, "one of the boys" proceeds to "walk off on his ear" and get a right smart nudge on about it. What the REPUBLICAN said it is ready to stand by.
We deny that any Forest county parties hounded a deer into the river and shot it this winter, and we didn't imply that any President or Venango county gentlemen had been hounding deer, and "one of the boys" or two of the boys, or half a dozen of the boys could not so construe our remarks, unless, perchance, they had been "hit" by them. If "one of the boys" knows as much as he would have folks believe about dynamiting, setting, etc., it is his duty as a citizen, not to say sportsmen, but to see to it that the Fur, Fin —Louisa, wife of George Henderson, the colored barber, died at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, at her home on Pine street, after a short illness, of inflammation of the brain. Eleven children are left motherless. The case is a very sad one, and while no power on earth can bring back the mother, aid can be extended to the father and children, who, we are informed, are very poor, and will appreciate any aid that may be furnished. The believed husband was the first colored man who volunteered to go from Crawford county when there was a call for troops in 1861. Help the old soldier.—Marienville Gazette, Jan. 20. Mr. Henderson's many old Tionesta friends will sympathize deeply with him in his distress, upon learning the above sad news.

—Mrs. L. H. Johnson, who formerly lived in this section, where she was well known and highly esteemed, died at her home in Scotts, Kalamazoo county, Michigan, Jan. 18, 1892. The deceased was born in Oneida county, N. Y., Nov. 11, 1823.
When yet a child her parents moved to Chautauque county, where on Feb. 11, 1850, she was united in marriage with Luther H. Johnson, and shortly after they moved to this (then Venango) county.
Five children were born to them, all boys, of which three still live. It was here she united with the M. E. Church in 1856, of which church she ever remained a consistent member. In 1860 they moved to Orleans county, N. Y., where they remained three years and then moved to their present home in Scotts. Her death resulted from typhoid pneumonia. On the night of her death Mr. Johnson was stricken with paralysis of the heart, and is now in very poor health. All the old friends of the family in this section will hear this piece of news with sadness.

—A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of Forest county to the Board of World's Fair Managers of Pennsylvania, was called by the Chairman, Mrs. A. B.
Kelly, and held at her residence in Tionesta, Thursday, Jan. 28. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. A. B.
Kelly; Vice President, Mrs. E. L. Davis;
Secretary, Mrs. J. B. Siggins; Treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Whiteman.

—Mrs. Chas. Randall and Mrs. A. B.
Kelly were elected delegates to the congressional district convention.

—A committee of eight, to be called Inspectors, was elected; their duty shall be to solicit exhibits of women's work throughout the county, all exhibits accepted by them to be brought to Tionesta, and inspected by the county committee, or described to the committee through correspondence with the Secretary. The members are: Mrs. Orion Siggins, West Hickory; Mrs. T. D. Collins, Nebraska; Mrs. A. H. Kettler, West Hickory; Mrs.
Henderson, East Hickory; Mrs. Dr.
Towler, Marienville; Miss Gertrude Griffin, Balltown; Mrs. Saie Sharp, Tionesta; Mrs. John A. Dawson, Stewart's Run.

—Our ladies engage in this labor with the same enthusiastic vim which characterizes their work in all things which they undertake, and we feel an unalloyed satisfaction in the collection of exhibits at the great fair in '93 will compare very favorably with any that will be represented. We trust the county society will keep us informed from time to time of the progress it is making.

Fire at West Hickory.

Wm. P. Siggins of West Hickory, not with a serious loss in the destruction of his general merchandizing establishment, at an early hour last Sabbath morning. Shortly after 2:00 o'clock the fire was discovered, and despite all efforts the building and about all its contents were licked up in the flames. The fire is thought to have originated from a gas jet that was near the ceiling. Mr. Siggins places his loss on building and goods at $5,000, on which he had an insurance of $2,600.

Tompkins-Tobey Wedding.

On Tuesday evening, February 2, 1892, at the residence of Mrs. Lafferty, Titusville, Pa., Mr. John A. Tompkins and Miss Hattie L. Tobey were united in marriage, Rev. Jas. T. Brennan, of Tionesta, Pa., officiating.

Mr. Fred Lafferty and his sister, Miss Mossie, close friends of the bride and groom, "stood up" with the happy couple. After the ceremony the guests, which were confined to the relatives of the bride, the family of Mrs.
Lafferty, and a few intimate friends, sat down to and enjoyed a most sumptuous wedding supper.

Mr. Tompkins is a prosperous young business man of Gerry, Chautauque county, N. Y., while Miss Tobey is well and popularly known in Tionesta and vicinity, where she has resided all her life. The REPUBLICAN joins heartily in the general good wishes that will go out to the happy young people.

Clarrington.

Our town seems very full of business at present, the river is frozen over and its banks are lined with timber.— We understand protracted meeting is to commence in the M. E. Church this evening. We wish them a grand revival.—The last ball being a grand success the boys have issued cards for another on Feb. 12th.—Professor Hillard is at present the guest of his father.—Miss Brennan is enjoying a visit among friends in Corsica.— A number have been sick with the grip, but all are at present reported better.—The boys seem to be enjoying the coasting season.—We think if last week's correspondent would visit the kitchens of some of our houses he would find out the reason some of our young ladies change their minds, the chorus frequently sung, is How they tittered, how they chaffed; How my neighbors and their sisters laughed, when they heard my mother said, fate had only left to me Old Bald Head.
Feb. 1.
