LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 55.

This is splendid sap weather.

Marienville will be a money order office after April first.

Monday was the first day of spring. Also four degrees below zero at daylight.

The early bird has to whistle pretty lively these days to keep up his courage.

The trout fishing season opens April 15th, and not one day sooner. Remember that!

Charlie Whiteman met with the loss of a 200-dollar team horse, by death last Saturday.

The weather this morning gives promise of a flood, a thing earnestly desired by our lumbermen.

Miss Manie Brennan is home from Hamilton, Ont., on a few days' vacation with parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Shawkey and Ellis, of Warren, were guests of their parents over last Sabbath.

Stewart Turner has purchased the interest of A. Dunn in the Dunn & Turner store at Hickory.—Tidont News.

Mr. H. W. Ledebur was down from East Hickory yesterday on business, and gave the print shop a pleasant call during his stay.

Ducks are reported "fair to plenty" on the creek and river. While not always "out of sight," they are generally out of reach of a gun.

Many of our townpeople are getting ready to hit on the first of April, and some are talking strong of building, being unable to rent.

When winter's wind, with mad turmoil, sweeps over hills and plains, 'tis then you need Salvation Oil to heal your aches and pains.

Ex-Sheriff L. Agnew has purchased the Lawrence House of Mr. Shawkey, and will take charge as soon as the change can be conveniently made.

The creek and back channel froze over solid on Sunday night. If this thing is going to keep up it might be well to look up a job for the winter.

The dwelling house of Welsh Grove, located at the mouth of Little Hickory, was burned to the ground on Thursday morning of last week.

Charlie Kirchertz tapped his best brand of Havana's last Thursday morning on the arrival of that young 10-pound cigar-maker at his domicile.

The sixth annual State Sanitary Convention of Pennsylvania will be held at Erie, March 29th, 30th and 31st. All Boards of Health are invited to send delegates.

"Down on your knees, and thank heaven fasting," not for a good man's love this time, but because you have cured your cold so easily with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Look out for something not heretofore seen in Tionesta in the line of Spring goods at H. J. Hopkins & Co., L. J. is in the East, and goods will be arriving in a few days.

The Tionesta News entered its 19th volume with last week's issue. Under Brey's White's management it is as bright, saucy and handsome as most eighteen-year-olds usually get.

The increase in the salary of male teachers in Pennsylvania for 1891 was 73 cents per month, as against 36 cents for females. This isn't a fair shake for the latter class of teachers.

Postmaster Knox has rented the Bonner house now occupied by Dr. Siggins, and will occupy it after April 1st. The doctor has not yet fully decided on his location after that date.

Operators have been entirely suspended in the Lineville field. There is more territory to drill, but the operators have entered into a voluntary shut down owing to the price of the product, says the Bitard.

The Brookville Republican says it is reported that Alex. Whitehill, the favorite pitcher of the Brookville Base Ball club, has been offered flattering inducements to sign with one of the clubs of the Ohio State League.

Sheriff Osgood has purchased the handsome cottage of Mrs. John Cobb in the north ward, and has rented the same to J. F. Proper, who is obliged to vacate the Forest House to make room for the Keeley Institute people.

The reward of $500 offered for the recapture of murderer Mills, which was accomplished at Marienville last week, was divided as follows: Conductor Thurston and his crew $250, and Constable Coon and T. J. Brick $125 each.

L. J. Hopkins of the firm of H. J. Hopkins & Co., is in New York lying in the Spring stock of goods for that enterprising house, and as usual the firm's customers may be on the watch for a record-smasher in their line.

Wm. G. Trunkey, one of Warren's most prominent young attorneys, and only son of the late Justice Trunkey, committed suicide in Youngstown, Ohio, on Wednesday morning of last week. An aggravated attack of the grip, from which he never fully recovered, unbalanced his mind for the time, and led to the rash act. The affair has cast a shadow of gloom over the entire community in which he was so well known and universally respected. He was buried in Franklin, the home of his childhood, and where he grew to be the idol of his family and large circle of friends.

Kellettville.

Proper Bros. bid in all the goods at the sale of Cash Store on Monday. The sale was largely attended.—R. M. Herman has returned home after a two month's stay in Tionesta.—Mrs. Net. Watson has departed for Pittsburg, where she intends learning the millinery trade.—Sons were born at the homes of Geo. Whitton and John Thompson.—Monday was the first day for Kribbs & Groce hauling hides.—Mrs. M. Andrews is putting in a new P. O. department in the store.—Chas. Andrews and Clinton Decker, while on a trip to Hickory, had an experience that will not be forgotten soon. When passing the Stowtown saw-mills the horse became frightened and unmanageable. The horse had scarcely run the length of the sled when one runner of the sled passed over a small board pile that was on the roadside. The next instant everything was turned topsy-turvy. The sled, which was advertised to be sold at Sheriff's sale, Monday, was completely wrecked, the bed being torn to pieces. Aside from a severe shaking up no one was injured.—Ira Barnes of Newtown Mills, is the possessor of a 12-dollar-per-month pension, with $210 back pay.—The creek at this place is completely filled up with rats and slush ice.—Elof Johnson has sold one-half of the billiard hall and barber shop to Burn Longfellow. We understand Mr. Burnside will be our tonsorial artist.

Wolfs' Corners.

The people of this place are glad to see the Vernal Equinox come again but do not generally desire to see the cold or violent storm which prevails on or about that time.—Mr. A. Wolf, who is the leading merchant of this place, is doing good work. He has a large trade and his customers speak well of him.—Mrs. William Lewis, of Tylersburg, has been instructing a class in singing in the Washington Grange hall at this place. She has a class of twenty-seven scholars, who meet each Wednesday evening at half-past seven.—Rev. J. R. Miller has recently closed a series of protracted meetings which he had conducted in the M. E. Church at Washington for six weeks. The meetings were very well attended and resulted in the conversion of about thirty souls.—Mrs. J. G. Passauer, who has been afflicted with la grippe for some time, is slowly recovering.—J. G. Passauer has been running his saw-mill during the entire winter, and has turned out a large amount of lumber, which the teamsters of this vicinity are rapidly conveying to market, via Tionesta.—We are glad to state that the people of this place are determined to support President Harrison again in the coming Presidential campaign.—Miss Nettie Hill of Tionesta, began to finish the winter term of Shriver school on Monday. Rev. J. D. Rhodes of Newmarket, gave up the school the week before.—As the days are getting longer and the weather becoming warmer the farmers are thinking about, and preparing themselves for, the early spring labor.

NEWS NOTES.

Ex-Judge Peter Sutton, of Indiana, died Sunday of last week, of blood poisoning. He was married to a member of the well-known Meekling family of Kitztaning, was a prominent Greenbacker, and some years ago was that party's candidate for State Treasurer.

Mrs. Ann Black, one of the oldest residents of Shippen, died a few days ago. Her husband and children have been dead for several years. She leaves a large estate in oil and timber lands, which is mostly disposed of by will to her brothers and sisters and their children.

Titusville has a case of smallpox—a child, brought over on the steamer Diana from Poland. The case came under the notice of Dr. Proper, who promptly reported to the board of health, and under the excellent precautionary measures employed it is believed the disease will not spread beyond the single case reported.

Hood, Gale & Co.'s large veneering works at Kinzua, were destroyed by fire Friday afternoon, Mar. 11. The fire originated in the dry kiln, it is thought by spontaneous combustion. The works were totally destroyed and 75 men were thrown out of employment. The loss is estimated at $40,000 with $21,000 insurance.

Jesse M. Perrine, of Utica, Venango county, justly lays claim to be one of the oldest postmasters in the State, if not in the United States. He is 79 years old, and has been postmaster at Perrine's Corners and Utica for a continuous period of fifty-seven years. Mr. Perrine is the father of Mrs. W. K. Swartz, of this city, and also of J. N. Perrine, business manager of the Oil City Derrick.—Mendell Star.

What to wear and how to make it! Important questions at this season which ladies can have satisfactorily answered in Peterson for April. There will be found every pretty and useful novelty, from an outdoor costume to a spring wrap for the little daughter. The entire contents are far above the average of periodical literature. Peterson steadily progresses in beauty and excellence. Address, Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

At 8:30 p. m. Sunday fire broke out in the village of Corydon, east of Kinzua, on the W. N. Y. & P. railroad. The citizens formed a bucket brigade and worked hard but the business portion of the town was almost destroyed. The following is a list of the buildings burned: R. J. Clawson, general store; building and stock, $1,900; J. M. Turney, hardware; building and stock, $5,000; N. Mead, general store; $4,000; C. C. Andrews, newsdealer; $300; Mrs. Wm. McAllister, residence; $1,000; Joseph Hale, residence; $700; Postoffice; $200; P. B. Canfield, drugs and groceries; $5,000; N. M. Day, blacksmith; $700; D. C. Marsh, meat market; $500; S. C. McClintock, billiard room and furniture; $1,900.

The vagabond or poorhouse party is referred to by a contemporary as particularly unique in its way. Those invited receive their invitations written on common brown paper and from the tenor of it it knows exactly what is expected of them as to dress. The very ragged and most tattered garments are donned and the one coming nearest the unanimously accepted idea of a vagabond receives a prize. This prize need not be expensive, but it is the only piece of extravagance about the whole affair. If dancing is indulged in one of the guests does the playing, for vagabonds are not expected to hire musicians.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.' " 50 cent bottles for sale by Proper & Douth, druggists. mar.
