LITTLE RHODY ALL RIGHT.

The fearful drubbing which the Democracy received at the election in Rhode Island last Wednesday has affected the party all over the country. They had been led to believe that they would surely carry the State, and were betting on that belief.

Even Grover Cleveland was possessed of the idea that Rhode Island would go Democratic, and, to fool people into the belief that he had something to do with it, he went into the State and made a couple of speeches. Ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, a genial rainbow chaser, also thought he could count on Little Rhody electing a Democratic State ticket and Legislature this year, and he stomped the State that he might get some of the glory.

But alas for human hopes! The latest returns show that the Republican candidate for Governor has a majority over all, something unusual, and there is already fifteen or twenty Republican majority in the Legislature, with a prospect of largely increasing this in districts where a second election is necessary.

It was a great day for Republicans.

SPEAKER CRISP tied himself in a convoluted bow knot in the heat of the silver fight on the night of March 24 by refusing Bourke Cockran's demand for recapitulation of the vote "because the vote had already been announced." But after ex-Speaker Reed blandly and kindly pointed out that the right of the Speaker to refuse a demand for recapitulation had only been given in the last Congress to prevent filibustering, and that the custom had always before been to recapitulate the vote unless, by unanimous consent, it should be dispensed with, the Speaker reversed his own decision and ordered a recapitulation. Probably Speaker Crisp did not see in the embarrassment of the moment that Reed's bland statement was an accusation, and that his own reversed decision was an admission that he had been guilty of a worse piece of "Czarism" and despotism than ever Reed was. Reed had the authority of the rules, while Crisp acted without the authority of the rules and in defiance of the custom.

It is a gratification to learn that that brilliant statesman, Hon. Charles W. Stone, of Warren, has been again unanimously nominated by the Republicans of his district, and that his election to the fifty-third Congress in the fall will be practically as unanimous. Few districts are so fortunate as to be represented by so able a man, and the people seem to appreciate this fact to the fullest extent. Mr. Stone's recent speech on the silver bill was a masterpiece of sound logic, and has gained him a National reputation already, a distinction attained by few men in their first term in Congress.

A LARGE edition of the speech of General Bankhead (ex-Confederate) in the House in denunciation of Union pensions is being printed for circulation in the South. This is the speech in which Bankhead threatened a disruption of the Union if the South is not relieved of the pension tax. According to Bankhead the North must pay the entire amount of the pensions itself or prepare to face another rebellion. The South will not submit much longer, he says, to paying a part of the pensions.

The Republican primaries in Warren county were held last Saturday, and resulted after a very spirited contest, in the nomination of the following ticket by decisive majorities: Congress, Hon. C. W. Stone, no opposition; Assembly, Hon. C. C. Thompson, Speaker of the last House; Treasurer, A. W. Jones; State Delegates, Geo. H. Higgins and Geo. W. Peck. The fight was on the Assembly between W. E. Rice Esq., and Mr. Thompson, the former running as a Dalzell candidate.

"As goes Rhode Island so goes Cleveland's boom," said a New York paper. Well—Rhode Island "has went."

DEMOCRACY all over the country has its eye in a sling. That was a terrible whack it got between the eyes in Rhode Island last Wednesday.

STATE TREASURER BOYER is of the opinion that the State should make education compulsory, the State bearing all the expenses and entirely do away with local school taxes. Why isn't this idea a good one?

TARIFF PICTURES.—The average weekly wages of silk weavers in Macclesfield, England, are $3 16. The broad silk weavers of Paterson, N. J., get on an average $12 per week. The Paterson ribbon weavers get $18 per week.—New York Press.

PATRICK WALSH of Augusta, Ga., introduced Senator Hill as "one of the ablest, purest, highest, and best exponents of Democracy in the country." Of course he is, and it takes the kind of a man Dave Hill is to be that kind of an exponent of that kind of a political faith.

The Republicans changed the rules of the House to prevent a minority filibustering so as to obstruct business, but the Democrats have fixed them so that an anti-silver minority has throttled a free coinage majority inside their own party and that, too, without the trouble of filibustering.

The Democracy of Pennsylvania need not fight over who shall be delegates to the National Convention in the hope that those delegates are going to help nominate a winning candidate. Rhode Island settled that little matter. The next President will be a Republican. This is not a good year for Democracy.

TAKING a broad view of the working of protection since 1816, it appears that the principal products the farmers sell have advanced in price an average of 144 per cent., while on the other hand, the principal articles they have to buy have fallen an average of 79 per cent. Yet Democrats with cheeks of triple-plated brass declare that the tariff is a tax and a particularly heavy burden on the farmers.

LEFT HANDED PROTECTION.—Republican: "You are a protectionist, I believe?"

Democrat: "Not much. I'm a free trader."

Republican: "Well, free trade is protection."

Democrat: "How do you make that out?"

Republican: "It is protection of foreign labor and foreign manufacturers, and that's what you are in favor of by your own admission."

How would a law like this strike this State: A new bill has been introduced at Columbus, Ohio, for the improvement of country roads. The ideas, as incorporated into a bill, are as follows: Each county is to be created into a road district, over which a board of three road commissioners are to have supervision. They are to be appointed by the court of common pleas, and are to receive $2,000 for devoting their whole time to the duties of their position. They are to determine which roads are to be improved, and may issue bonds in a sum not exceeding the five-thousandth part of the grand duplicate. They shall decide upon the character of the improvement and the material to be used. They can elect a clerk and as many inspectors as may be necessary, and shall exercise personal supervision over the work while it is in progress. No part of an improvement shall be made within an incorporated municipality. The commissioners are prohibited from improving a road paralleling another already improved that is within two miles of the first until all the roads in the country are improved. When all roads have been improved the commission shall expire under the law, and the improvements shall be turned over to the county commissioners to be kept in repair.

Stone, of Warren, has been again unanimously nominated by the Republicans of his district, and that his election to the fifty-third Congress in the fall will be practically as unanimous. Two Bottles Cured Her. VI GARDOLL, Iowa, July, 1890. I was suffering 15 years from shocks in my head, so much so that at times I didn't expect to recover. I took medicines from many doctors, but did not get any relief until I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic. The second dose relieved me and 3 bottles cured me. S. W. PECK, HARRISVILLE, Pa., March, 1891.

We began using Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for our 11-year-old daughter (who had had epileptic fits since she was 2 years old) over a year ago with little hope of any good, as we had been so often disappointed in other remedies, but soon after using this medicine she began to get better, and we hope that any and all afflicted with this terrible disease will try your wonderful remedy. I recommend your medicine to every one afflicted with any nervous affliction whatever. H. S. BINGHAM.

ACME BLACKING is cheaper at 20 cents a bottle than any other Dressing at 5 cents.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAY because shoes once blacked with it can be kept clean by washing them with water. People in moderate circumstances find it profitable to buy it at 20c a bottle, because what they spend for Blacking they save in shoe leather.

It is the cheapest Blacking considering its quality, and yet we want to sell it cheaper if it can be done. We will pay $10,000 Reward for a recipe that will enable us to make Wolff's Acme Blacking at each price that a retailer can profitably sell it at.

This offer is open until Jan. 1st, 1892. WOLFF & RANDOLPH, Philadelphia.
