"COLONEL WATTERSON, of the Louisville Courier Journal, talks too much with his mouth for a man of his calibre and position. He is excellent authority on Kentucky corn-dodgers and whisky, but where statesmanship is concerned a little modesty and less arrogance would become him." That is the way the Venango Spectator lams it to Watterson. ----

SPECULATION on the probable result of the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis next Tuesday is still much mixed, and the outcome is yet quite uncertain. That the candidate will be either the President or Blaine is a pretty well settled fact. If Blaine will consent to take the nomination that will settle it; if he refuses the President's re nomination will be made on first ballot. So say the prophets.

It is reported that Lewis Emery, Jr, of Bradford, will be a candidate for Congress in this district, on a TOWLER, of Jenks township, as a candi-date for Assembly, subject to Republican Democratic Peoples' Party fusion ticket, against C. THE most disastrous cyclone the country has ever known visited Sumner and Harper counties, Kansas, on Friday night last. The storm belt was six miles wide-a straight blow with hail along the outside. The towns of Wellington and Harper were almost totally demolished, and it is estimated that upward of 200 lives will be lost when the facts all come to light. The details of the frightful catastrophe are horrifying, and fill long columns of the daily papers. Hundreds of people are suffering from hunger and want of shelter, while relief trains are going to the stricken districts from all quarters, yet there is suffering from loss of life, limb and property.

WHEN Ingersoll nominated Blaine in 1876, he said : "Like an armed G. Blaine marched down the balls of the American Congress and threw his brazen foreheads of the defamers of his country and the maligners of his honor. For the Republican party to desert this gallant leader now is as though an army should desert their General on the field of battle. James G. Blaine is now and has been for years the bearer of the sacred standard Attention is called to the Act of June, of the Republican party.
